GROVER CLEVELAND DYING OF CANCER

New York, May 1.—The Evening World gives prominence today to the report current in financial circles emanating from the Equitable Life Assurance Society, that former President Cleveland is hopelessly ill of cancer of the stomach, and that the family are still at Lakewood Hotel, Lakewood, N. J., although that hospital closed ten days ago.

Efforts to confirm the story that Cleveland is suffering from cancer and that his condition is critical are unavailing, owing to the extreme reticence of all connected with the case.

WILLAMETTE'S NINE

30—Orion Agricultural College, Willamette baseball today by the score of 8 to 4. The game was an interesting one and the team more than held its own in the ninth inning when Willamette's pitcher made a home run. Then the team got excited and went to the field. Corvallis had no trouble hitting and registered seven at-bats, Poff hitting a good sagger, which a fumble made a run.
