SIXTEEN DAYS FOR INTOXICATED MEN

GUS WARE HAD A GUN AND IS NOW IN COUNTY JAIL—BILL McCLAREN WAS A "PLAIN DRUNK."

Gus Ware was sent to the county jail this morning by Judge Bryson's well-traveled route for ten days on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon. Chief Farrington arrested him last Saturday night for being intoxicated, and when he came to examine the man Ware threw his hand behind his back, the chief catching his wrist. He found in the pocket a loaded revolver, which resulted in ten days of confinement for Ware.

"Bill" McClaren was given six days on the street by Police Judge Dorris this morning. Farrington picked him up Saturday night on the street in a badly intoxicated condition.

Thousands of rolls of new wall paper just received.
