UNION PACIFIC'S ACTION SURE TO RESTORE PROSPERITY

The meeting of the Union Pacific stockholders at Salt Lake City yesterday, at which time the directors were authorized to issue $100,000,000 of bonds for the further extension and development of the system, was an event of far-reaching importance to the country at large and especially to the Northwest. It will tend to restore public confidence everywhere to have it known that the Harriman interests purpose to go to work again building new lines and making improvements upon old trackage.

For the Northwest it means the completion of many projects, including the Drain-Coos Bay branch and the Natron extension from Eugene to Klamath Falls. Thousands of men will be put to work again and it is more than likely that the sawmills of this section will soon receive orders from the railroad that will enable them to resume on full time. The railroads are said to use practically one-third of the cut of the mills, and it was the complete shut-down of railroad work, following the financial flurry, that was more responsible for the slump in the lumber market than any other one cause.

Taking all these matters into consideration, the meeting at Salt Lake City spells prosperity to the Northwest, through the development that will come from the building of new railroads and the effect that it is likely to have upon the lumbering industry.

EUGENE'S RAILROAD PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

The Guard has it on good authority that the Oregon Electric Railway Company, operating the Portland-Salem road, expects to be running its cars into Eugene next year. This is good news and with the splendid prospects for the construction of the Natron extension to Klamath Falls, and the operations of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, now building to Springfield, and up the McKenzie, means that this city must build even faster than it is now to keep pace with the requirements of its growth in population and business.

Eugene is destined to become an important jobbing and manufacturing city, and the centreing of many railroads at this point will hasten its development in that direction. We should not be surprised to see Eugene wholesale houses shipping goods into Eastern Oregon and even to Northern California over the Natron road in two or three years from this time.

UNITED DEMAND FOR PACIFIC FLEET

The governors and mayors of the movement, and will aid it in every manner possible. The people west of the Rocky mountains regard a great fleet in the Pacific as a necessity in order to preserve the peace of the United States and they will not be content until congress agrees to the plan and makes provisions to comply with the unanimous demand of the Western half of the American continent.

A financial writer in the New York Times says a marked change in the mortgage market is indicated by the statement issued by the Title Guarantee and Trust Company. Last week the company announced that it was prepared to accept loans on Manhattan real estate at 5 per cent. "The mortgage loan outlook is decidedly better from the standpoint of the borrower," this statement continues. "There has been a gradual accumulation of funds for mortgage investment, and it is becoming more and more apparent that in order to obtain an outlet for these funds the lenders will have to be satisfied with a lower rate of interest than 5 1-2 per cent. Once the lenders become alive to the fact that they cannot obtain employment for their funds at panic rates there should be a liberal flow of money into the mortgage loan field at 5 per cent."

It is doubtful if one per cent of the $1,000,000 appropriated by a bill which has been passed by the senate and favorably reported by the house, to reimburse ex-slave depositors in the Freedmen's bank, which "busted" more than forty years ago, will go to the negroes, as most of the pasbooks were sold to speculators for almost nothing long before even the first payment was made by the receiver from the assets. This money will be simply a gift to the undeserving.

It is nothing new for the states securely anchored in one party to be raising Cain about the candidate of the other. Some day, perhaps, a reformer may come to the front with a proposition that the states which deliver the goods shall nominate the candidate.

If none of the claims of B. F. Lynch, manager of the Johnson boom, are any more substantial than the one declaring that Bryan will get less than a majority on the first ballot, we fear that he must be classed with the hot air bunch.

At a vegetarian banquet one of the speakers, who must have been short of trouble, branched out in a blanket attack on high-heeled shoes, Merry Widow hats, corsets, tobacco and wine. Nothing lazy about that man, eh?

Notwithstanding its good name, murder is cheap in Churchville, Va., where a negro shot and killed a white boy because he did not dance to suit him, upon conviction of manslaughter, was fined $50.

There are tariff revisionists and tariff revisionists, some in favor of downward and some of upward revision. Merely to declare himself a tariff revisionist commits a man to nothing.

Oyster Bay is beginning to sit up and take notice again, now that the time is drawing near for it to resume its place on the map and in the news of the day.

George Gould is another big financier and railroad magnate who asserts that the tide has turned and that prosperity will soon rule throughout the land.

Why is a kicker? We respectfully submit this as a worthy side-partner to the other absurd questions that are now being handed around.

THE CRADLE SONG.

Adown the vista of the years,
I turn and look with silent soul,
As though to catch a muted strain
Of melody, that seems to roll
In tender cadence to my ear,
But as I wait, with eyes that long
The singer to behold, it fades,
And silence ends the Cradle Song.

But when the shadows of the years
Have lengthened slowly to the west
And once again, I lay me down
To sleep upon my mother's breast,
Then well I know, I ne'er again
Shall cry to God, "How long?
How long?"
For to my soul her voice will sing
A never-ending Cradle Song.
—Marion F. Gilmore

"NOW ABIDETH"

Self built a splendid palace
Beyond wayfaring reach;
Set Pride to guard the gateway,
From all of common speech.
But never king or angel
Sought Self's Pride-guarded hall.
And soon the poorest pilgrim
Shrank past its ruined walls.
Love built a little cottage
Beside the common road,
Where faithfulness and Kindness
Fulfilled the law of God
And Love throughout the ages
Sends loftier powers to heaven
... shrines are built by ...
Of grateful pilgrims given
Jessie Allen Anderson.

ANTHONY HOPE.

Anthony Hope, whose novels are so popular with all readers of fiction, had little success as a writer until he produced the "Prisoner of Zenda," whereupon he came into immediate and lasting popularity. Mr. Hope is an ideal writer of serial stories, for he is a master of the art of suspense. This never has been more substantially verified than in his splendid story "Sophy of Kravonia." In this work he has returned to the field of romance, which made him famous. There is such suspense between the chapters of reckless adventure, court intrigue, conspiracy and hairbreadth escapes as to give the story that inexplicable charm which is the true condiment of romance.

ENDORSES EDMUNSON FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

(Springfield News.)

Leon R. Edmunson is a candidate on the Democratic ticket for Representative from Lane County and no more fitting expression can be used than "he is the man for the place." Mr. Edmunson is one of Eugene's most successful young attorneys and is well known and very popular over the county. He is through and through a man in the truest and noblest sense of the word, secondly he is eminently fitted for the place. He is one of the two candidates on the legislative ticket who is in favor of Statement No. 1. He is worthy of every voter's esteem for few men could be sent to the Legislature who would put forth more earnest efforts for the people's good than Mr. Edmunson. He is a thorough business man and awakens confidence in those who meet him. He is a man of strong determination and when he makes up his mind that a thing is right he will fight to the bitter end. Such is the kind of a man that should be sent to the Legislature for something will be accomplished for our good. He is very conscientious in his work and if elected will prove of service to Lane county. During Mr. Edmunson's business career in the county we have had ample time to judge his character, qualifications and worthiness. Therefore, in selecting a Representative to the Legislature from Lane County, the voters of Springfield should lay aside party affiliations and unanimously support Mr. Edmunson.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE.

Dew of dawn on hills of dream—
Beaten egg and lots of cream!
Breath of bloom from vales of sweet
Taste the flavor while you eat!
Layers of snow and bars of gold,
In between them, crushed or rolled,
Berries from the vines that run,
To the reddening of the sun!
Gods, upon Olympus' height,
Cross your hands and take a bite.
—Baltimore Sun.

Last week witnessed the most successful sale of horses ever held in Portland. Breeders and buyers from Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, California and British Columbia were there, with a liberal sprinkling of eastern owners. The average was $240 each for every horse sold during one day of the sale.
