PE-RU-NA AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

Mrs. Paul Casavant Writes From 219 Monroe Street, Topeka, Kansas, Concerning Peruna. Read Her Letter Below:

In Spring and Early Summer a Tonic is Needed.

The source of good blood is fresh air and well-digested food. If anything interferes with digestion the blood becomes impure.

A catarrhal condition of the stomach prevents perfect digestion. Such a condition allows the food to ferment and decompose in various ways, instead of digesting. The blood is thus contaminated with various materials that do not belong in the blood.

This gives rise to spring fever, eruptions on the skin, general lassitude and constipation.

Peruna corrects all these difficulties by striking at the source of them. By eradicating the catarrhal condition of the stomach Peruna at once restores digestion, the blood is thereby purified, and the whole machinery of the body is put in working order.

Peruna has probably made a more remarkable record in cases of catarrh of the stomach than any other medicine. These cases are very frequent, and we have a host of testimonials in which Peruna has received lavish praise for prompt and permanent relief in cases of catarrh of the stomach

Mrs. Emily Kellogg, 5649 S. Lawrence St., South Tacoma, Wash., Gives Her Experience With Peruna. Read Her Letter Below:

Mrs. Paul Casavant, 219 Monroe street, Topeka, Kansas, writes:

"I have found Peruna very effective in restoring my health and strength after I had been worn out and run down for a long time. I began to use it about six months ago when I was unable to leave my bed. My nervous system was shattered and I was daily losing flesh and strength. This condition was completely altered after a few bottles of Peruna had been used and I kept on using it until I was finally restored to perfect health and had gained about fifteen pounds.

"I feel so grateful for what your medicine has done for me that I am pleased to give it my hearty endorsement and shall always be glad to speak a good word for it."

Mrs. Emily Kellogg, 5649 S. Lawrence St., S. Tacoma, Wash., member of Ladies of the Maccabees, writes:

"Three months ago I had an attack of biliousness which threatened to undermine my health and strength. Luckily for me, I tried Peruna at the suggestion of my friends before it was too late. I found in a few days' time that I did not have the usual sick headache, neither did food nauseate me any longer. In two weeks' time Peruna had completely rid my system of the poison and bile, and I was in a much better condition. My skin assumed its normal color, I had a splendid appetite and I was in every way improved in health. I used Peruna for a month longer and it wrought a wondrous change in my entire system."

Tones up the System.

Mrs. William McRoberts, Waverly, Minn., writes:

"I am perfectly well of the catarrh. I took Peruna and Manalin. I recommend your medicine to every one and cannot praise it enough. It is a fine medicine to take any season of the year. Taken in the spring it tones up the system and acts as a gentle stimulant."

A Good Tonic.

Mr. Joe Leonard, Flat 3, 282 Allen St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

"I have good reason to endorse Peruna as I have found it a good tonic, stimulating the system and sustaining it under great pressure, imparting unusual endurance and enabling me to work much longer and harder than the system could possibly do were it not for the great powers with which it endowed me. It gives one nerves of iron."

Mr. Caleb H. Bortell, Police Officer, 212 North Paca street, Baltimore, Md., writes:

"For several years I was troubled with catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. Many times I would vomit before and after eating.

"I took seven bottles of your Peruna, and I am glad to say that it has cured me.

"I feel more like living and working, and am not bothered at all with my old troubles.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh, and I thank you for what you have done for me, for none but those who have suffered as I have can appreciate a great cure as I have found Peruna to be."

Splendid for La Grippe.

Mr. Frank H. Fielder, 213 Pleasant Ave., Montgomery, Ala., formerly principal of Haynesville High School, writes:

"I can truthfully say that Peruna is a splendid remedy for la grippe, and a good tonic for building up the system."

Pain in Chest.

Mrs. A. W. Gustin, 5209 Lake Ave., St. Joseph, Mo., writes: "When I began taking Peruna I had quite a severe pain and ache in the left of my chest. I suffered a great deal with it.

"I wrote to Dr. Hartman and asked him what I should do. He advised my taking Peruna, which I did. I took three bottles, and I can say I am cured.

"Thanks for kind advice and Peruna."

Hay Fever and Catarrh.

Miss Mayme E. Smith, 444 East Mound St., Columbus, Ohio, writes:

"Have used Peruna for catarrh and hay fever. The results being remarkable, I can highly recommend it to all who are suffering with the above diseases. I am happy to be able to say it has helped me wonderfully."

Mr. William Hoge, President Commercial Travelers Association, 280 Broadway, New York, N. Y., writes:

"I endorse Peruna as the most effectual remedy for catarrh I have been able to find in my travels in this country or Europe. I can truly say that I have spent thousands of dollars in this country alone trying to find a cure, and it was not until I was induced to give Peruna a trial that I obtained anything like permanent relief. As a tonic it is simply great. It ought to be in the grip of every commercial traveler on the road. It cured my wife as well as myself. We have not had the slightest symptom of catarrh for a long time."

In a later letter Mr. Hoge says:—"I have used Peruna for many years, never without a bottle in my grip. I am the youngest feeling and youngest looking man of my age in New York, which I think is entirely due to Peruna."

Eyes Red and Watery.

Mr. William S. Hearn, 1063 Segal St., Camden, N. J., writes:

"For about two years I was troubled with my eyes being red and watery, and my general health was very poor.

"Finally a friend advised me to try Peruna. I had tried almost everything else, so I purchased a bottle of Peruna and commenced to take it at once, and before I had finished the first bottle I found I was improving.

"I wrote you for special advice concerning my eyes, which I received. I continued to take the Peruna until I had used six bottles.

"Now my eyes are absolutely well, and I feel like a new man in every way.

"I honestly advise any one similarly afflicted to try Peruna."

Peruna Tablets.

Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

SUSPECT MARTIN'S RECORD UNSAVORY

...to be held for the murder of the ...ney lender.

"I have been studying medicine ..." he said, "and came to Portland from Syracuse, N. Y., a few ...rs ago. Prior to my coming to ...st I was in the army, having ...ved as a second lieutenant of ...Twenty-first Infantry in Cuba." ...hen he went on to recount his ...ements in various portions of the United States, all of which was foreign to the object of closeting him with District Attorney Manning and the detectives.

Martin was extremely nervous, and District Attorney Manning suddenly seized upon a moment when he was more than usual off his guard and asked him in a loud tone:

"Why did you kill Wolff?"

"I did not kill Wolff," said the prisoner. "Those scratches on my neck and hands were made by a cat at my home a week ago, and the cut I bear on my head I did myself, with an ax. I knew Wolff, but did not kill him. When I first came to Portland I pawned my watch with Wolff and soon afterward, not being able to redeem it at the scheduled time, I visited Wolff again. I swear these are the only two times I had anything to do with the pawnbroker."

Then he went on almost incoherently, saying suddenly that he slept in the Imperial hotel last Sunday night and in the Belvidere Monday night.

"Friday afternoon," he said, "I met Judge Cameron down town and went to Turn Halle. There I saw by the evening paper, that I had failed in my examination taken for the appointment as examiner of weights and measures. Then I got on a car and went to my home in Sellwood, staying there until about 5 o'clock. Friday morning I sold my revolver to a pawnbroker at 31 Pine street to pay on a debt of $90."

That part of the prisoner's statement wherein he says he secured money from Ashley & Rumelin has been corroborated, and as his statement continued, detectives would leave the room in an attempt to substantiate other portions of his statement where he mentioned names, localities and figures.

He appeared to be exceedingly nervous and apparently was under the influence of some drug. The money he had in his possession when arrested, $40 in gold and a small amount in silver, he said he had obtained from Ashley & Rumelin.

After much questioning by District Attorney Manning Martin finally referred to his movements the night of the murder. He said that after returning from the Turn Halle he stayed at home until about 8 o'clock, when the women folks of his family engaged in a quarrel, and he left, rather than participate in the trouble.

He was shown the revolver with which the attempt had been made to kill Wolff, and denied ever having seen the weapon before. He said emphatically the pistol had never been his property.

Martin was ordered into custody by District Attorney Manning until later, when he will again be subjected to cross-examination. The district attorney's office is confident that sufficient evidence is at hand to charge Martin with the crime, and it is probable, District Attorney Manning said, that a formal complaint would be filed against him tomorrow.

Wife's Damaging Admissions.

In addition to the material evidence in the hands of the police, they have obtained from the accused man's wife what is alleged to be practically a confession of her husband's guilt. Mrs. Martin, who is a refined little woman, is completely unstrung. She married Martin in Syracuse, N. Y.

Mrs. Martin declared that her husband had told her in order to allay her suspicions that he would go to a saloon and get the missing coat and vest. She said he left the house and did not return.

Mrs. Martin said to a reporter today that she had entertained suspicions that her husband was implicated in the crime from the moment he returned home Friday night, with his face and hands cut, and minus his shirt and wearing a strange coat and vest. He first explained to her that he had been held up on the way home. His next story was that he had been engaged in a poker game in a saloon which was broken up by a fight, and in the melee he had been hit with a chair.

Mrs. Martin said her suspicions only were further aroused by her husband's stories, and Sunday on the way to the Catholic church she purposely led him by Wolff's pawnshop. There, she says, she asked him point-blank if he had had anything to do with Wolff's death.

Mrs. Martin says that he replied that he had not, and that if he thought she suspected him he would jump into the river.

Later in the day the subject was again brought up, she says, and then she begged him to leave her and not to bring further disgrace upon her.

Served in Cuba

Martin at one time was an officer in the regular army and served in Cuba as a lieutenant in the Twenty-first United States Infantry, and is said to have commanded his company at San Juan Hill. He contracted dysentery while on this campaign, and met his wife, who was a nurse in a hospital at Syracuse, where he was being treated for the disease.

GEO. GOULD ASSERTS GOOD TIMES ARE COMING

New York, May 5.—George J. Gould said yesterday that he thought the corner had been turned in the financial situation and while he looked for somewhat unfavorable railroad earnings, perhaps until July, he was inclined to take an optimistic view of the outlook. He said that while all roads would not be able to borrow with the same facility as the Pennsylvania, he was of the opinion that the success of the Pennsylvania and of the Interborough Rapid Transit issues had made it measurably easy for the other roads to place loans.

Mr. Gould said he attached a great deal of importance to the change that has taken place in the attitude of the political leaders of Texas toward the railroads of that state. Mr. Gould said the change in the sentiment of the people of Texas with respect to the railroads had become pronounced within the last three weeks. He believes that this more friendly attitude on the part of the politicians and the people will gradually become general throughout the United States. He attributes the improvement to the outlook to the supreme court decision on the rate cases. Referring to the Western Union Telegraph Company Mr. Gould said the company had $1,000,000 in the bank, was paying all its expenses promptly, and that operating expenses had been so much reduced that net earnings, despite a falling off in gross receipts, have not recently shown any material loss. Substantial progress, he said, is being made in the construction of the Western Pacific.

OREGON ATHLETES EAGER FOR TRIP

Intensive training will be done on the track at the U. of O. all this week, as the try-outs for the Whitman-Pullman trip will be held Friday and Saturday. The Oregon team leaves a week from today for the Inland Empire, where the Oregonians meet Whitman College May 14 and Washington State College May 16. Trainer Harwood expects the Pullman meet to be a hard one on the men, as it comes only two days after the Whitman meet. The team will return from Washington May 18, and have only four days' rest until the Oregon-O. A. C. meet in Eugene. After the O. A. C. meet the Oregon men will rest for a week and then leave for Seattle to meet the Universities of Washington and Idaho in the triangular meet at Seattle.

The competition for places on the Oregon team is very keen, and some fast running will be seen in the try-outs. The distance will be exceptionally close.

The varsity baseball team is working hard to get in first class shape to meet Multnomah here Friday and Saturday. Fred DeNeffe, the former Michigan star, will pitch one of the games for Multnomah. Last year's varsity beat Multnomah both in Portland and Eugene, and this year's team hopes to repeat the performance. The varsity second team, which plays ball but little inferior to the first team, goes to Albany Friday to play Albany College. A game is expected with O. A. C. second at Corvallis on Saturday.
