NOW IS TIME TO HAVE PAVING DONE

Within thirty days the present contracts for street paving will probably be completed, and if it is the intention to extend the improvement outside of the present district it will be necessary to take definite action soon. There is such a demand for paving in the other Western Oregon towns, Roseburg, Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland that it will be likely the Warren Construction Company will move its plant away as soon as its present contracts are completed unless there is further work arranged for. From the present outlook it may be difficult to get a small amount of paving done here during the next year or two if the plant is moved this summer, as it would not pay to ship it back when there are larger jobs to do elsewhere.

Whatever paving is desired by the property owners ought to be done this year, and the county especially should order the completion of the work about the city park blocks, something that is just and necessary, considering the improvements made by private owners of property in that part of the city.

EASTERN OREGON STANDS BY U. OF O.

The following editorial from the Pendleton Daily East Oregonian is good news for the friends of the State University who are working hard to secure proper recognition of that institution at the hands of the people of Oregon:

"The leading farmers of Umatilla county are all in favor of supporting the University of Oregon, and few of them will vote against the appropriation.

"While the grange started the movement against the University appropriation, yet that organization does not have the sympathy and support of the rank and file of the substantial formers of the state.

"In Umatilla county, and in other counties as well, the farmers' sons and daughters are students of the University in large numbers. They are proud of the institution, proud of the educational advantages it offers and are glad that Oregon is showing a willingness to improve and strengthen the University.

"Therefore, instead of voting against an appropriation which would increase the advantages of the institution, these farmers are going to vote for the appropriation. They want to see the institution grow and expand. They want their sons and daughters to have equal advantages with students of surrounding states. They do not wish to bear the odium of having throttled educational progress."

Former Senator Heitfeld, mayor of Lewiston, Idaho, is having a little practical experience with the recall, which was authorized in the charter of Lewiston at his instance. The recall provision enables a percentage of the voters, by petition, to call upon an official to stand aside until the people take a vote to determine whether they want him to continue in the office he holds, or prefer to substitute another man. Not many citizens of the United States give themselves the privilege of the recall, though it is coming into vogue slowly. It is permitted by the charter of the city of Los Angeles. Des Moines has recently adopted it. The South Dakota legislature, at its last session, passed a law authorizing cities above 5000 to employ the recall at their option. In the Lewiston case remedies of Mayor Heitfeld have formulated charges of dereliction of duty against him, and have invoked the recall to have him ousted from office. As the mayor was an ardent advocate of this principle he is thus being treated with his own remedy.

Across the Potomac from Washington, one of the greatest reforms of the age was inaugurated when the council of the historic town of Alexandria adopted an ordinance making it a misdemeanor for a guide to lie about historical places therein.

Governor Chamberlain is becoming so radically non-partisan in this campaign that we begin to doubt the currently accepted report that he was born down in Mississippi and educated at Washington and Lee University.

Wickedness of any sort is seldom a paying proposition to the individual, but for all that the town that's advertised as the wickedest generally gets the most visitors, and, of course, the most coin. Chew on that, if you are hunting problems.

Those Chicago suburbanites who, in mass meeting assembled, resolutes a local judge into a "modern Solomon" because he decided a sewer case against Hetty Green, would better have waited until the upper courts have been heard from.

It might easily be guessed that Congressman Bartholdt, of Missouri, is not a prohibitionist by his definition of prohibition—"a devlish device to nail the human family more securely to the cross of King Alcohol."

Mount Etna is very inconsiderate in allowing its volcano to become active in the midst of the baseball season and on the eve of a presidential campaign. We can't give our attention to everything at once.

Rush legislation is usually careless legislation, and careless legislation is usually full of "jokers." If congress is to adjourn by the middle of May, everything will have to be rushed.

The Salvation Army road to being good must have been too noisy for South Bend., Ind., where the entire local corps were arrested, charged with being a public nuisance.

But suppose the experience of John Sharp Williams as an old-time minstrel monologist, on the floor of the house, should tempt him to take the road in the same role?

A Delaware man has been found who never heard of Roosevelt until this week. And that, too, in spite of all J. Bourne's missionary work!

The Portland Telegram says "Fulton is out for Cake." As a rule politicians are out for pie.

THE MERRY WIDOW

It's "The Merry Widow" this
And "The Merry Widow" that,
It's the "Merry Widow" kiss
And "The Merry Widow" hat.

It's "The Merry Widow" craze
And "The Merry Widow" dance;
It's "The Merry Widow" plays
And "The Merry Widow" glance.

It's "The Merry Widow" dinner
And "the Merry Widow" waltz;
It's "The Merry Widow" sinner
With "The Merry Widow" faults

I've a "Merry Widow" wife,
And a "Merry Widow" brat;
I've a "Merry Widow" knife
And a "Merry Widow" cat.

I've a "Merry Widow" auto car,
With a "Merry Widow" toot,
And a friend whose wife has sued him—
'Tis a "Merry Widow" suit.

And if I die tomorrow
Why, let them play real loud,
"The Merry Widow" waltz song
For "The Merry Widow" crowd.

The World's Best Climate

is not entirely free from disease. On the high elevations fevers prevail, while on the low levels malaria is encountered to a greater or lesser extent, according to altitude. To overcome climatic affections, such as rude, malaria, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague, and a general debility, the most effective remedy is Electric Bitters, the great alterative and blood purifier; the antidote for every form of bodily weakness, nervousness and insomnia. Sold under guarantee at W. Kuykendall's drug store. Price 50 cents.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea tones the stomach, stimulates the lazy liver, strengthens the bowels and makes their action easy and natural. The best tonic for the whole system. 35c Tea or Tablets.

MRS. GEORGE LEE THOMPSON.

Mrs. Thompson, who was Miss Julie Phillips, is regarded as one of the most beautiful young women in the social life of Philadelphia. She made her debut three seasons ago and has since been a conspicuous figure in all the principal society events in Philadelphia and at Narragansett Pier.

STATEMENT NO. 1 THE REAL ISSUE

Editor Guard:—We read with considerable interest the wail of woe from the Junction City Times, published in a recent issue.

We fail to see where Mr. Moorehead has a kick coming. He was one of the sixty or more stalwarts who met in mass meeting in Eugene and formulated principles and resoluted that our legislative candidates would not be expected to "stultify" themselves by voting for a Democrat for senator provided the people of Oregon elected one in June. That, Brother Moorehead, was the basis of your favorite candidate's defeat. The unscrupulous combination which was formed to defeat the only man of the six candidates who dared to do what he knew to be right failed in its purpose. It is perhaps as well for Mr. Edwards that he was defeated when he was, as there will be three names on the ballot in June of men who stand for honest politics and popular rule; men who, if elected, will vote at Salem for the people's choice for senator without fear of "stultifying" themselves.

While Mr. Cake will no doubt be elected in June by a large majority, yet if he should fail that will settle the matter with him. He would neither consider it honorable or complimentary to receive two votes from Lane county.

There is a new order of things in the election of a United States senator from Oregon. Most people knew it two years ago and some even four, but alas, a few had to be shown. Edwards, Jennings and Dodd found it out in April, others may learn it about midnight June 1st. The issue is: Shall Lane county be represented by men who stand for the new order of things, or shall we send two cogs out of the old broken machine? Statement No. 1 is the issue—let us have it out on that line.

A. L. CLARK.

Marcola, May 5, 1908.

MRS. DUNIWAY'S APPEAL TO VOTERS

Space is willingly given in our columns for the following communication from Mrs. Abagail Scott Duniway:

Gentlemen, Voters, Sons, Brothers: I am growing old. But I cannot rest until you have given us the victory. Every hour I spend in this service is a labor of love. Every dollar I donate is a personal sacrifice. Have the faithful mothers of Oregon not earned their affirmative votes for their full and free enfranchisement? You ought not to be afraid on us.

You are equipped with ballots. We are not. We are depending upon you to honor our flag of truce by voting YES in our behalf in this unequal struggle in 1910 if you should fail us now. But we believe you will not fail us. You have but to unlock the door to the closed chain of liberty, leaving us free to choose for ourselves, exactly as you do, as to whether to vote or not to vote, at each succeeding election. Thus only can you acquit yourselves as free men and relieve us from further efforts to secure equality with our sons before the law.

ABAGAIL SCOTT DUNIWAY.
Mother of Native Sons, and President of Oregon State Equal Suffrage Association.
