PORTLAND MARKET REPORT.
Portland, Or., May 7.—A "truce" has been declared in the war between the two great sugar refiners of the coast, and the Honolulu Plantations company, otherwise known as the independents. Today an advance of 10 cents a hundred on Imperial, Empire and the unmarked brand was announced. Whether the regulars in the sugar refinery industry have absorbed the independents and ended the sugar war for all time has not yet been publicly made known. For the present at least they have quit fighting.

More Oregon Strawberries.
Oregon strawberries came in more freely today, from Riddle and other parts of the state, and the best of the home-grown fruit sold at 35c a pound. The bulk of the supply of course still comes from California, and receipts from there today were fairly large. The demand was good and the fruit sold readily at $1.75 to $2 a crate.
Other fruits were unchanged. Oranges and lemons were firm, with the price tendency upward in both lines. Cherries moved at 75c to $1.25 a box.
Supplies of vegetables generally were liberal and the market at about the same price as yesterday.

Butter May Decline Again.
The city creamery trade today reports butter working off in a satisfactory manner at the lower price made a few days ago, and there is also more activity in the front-street market. Nevertheless, the belief is more or less general that a further decline in butter prices may be expected this month. Production is now heavy in all the dairying districts of the state, and some dealers maintained through the flush season.

Country Dressed Meats.
Front street reported slightly heavier receipts of veal yesterday and today than were anticipated, and the market as a consequence was somewhat weaker, though no change in prices were announced.
Pork held its own at last week's prices and the demand today was sufficient to take up all offerings. There was little or nothing doing in the market for country dressed mutton and lambs. Offerings were meager and there was little demand for stock.

Spring Chick Demand is Heavy
There is a very heavy demand for spring chickens at this time and broilers and fryers are finding a very high call at prices that range from $5.50 to $6.00 a dozen. While one or two dealers are selling, these birds by the pound, most of them are still doing business by the dozen. This means that practically 30c a pound is obtained. When sold by the actual weight a lesser figure rules.

Ordinary chickens are in fair receipt with demand along the street good today at prices quoted by the Journal. Turkeys are scarcely arriving at all and would find a good demand at high figures. Receipts of spring ducks are nominal with movements at high figures.

Dressed meat receipts are quite good, especially as regards veal.
Storage Operations in Eggs
Storage egg operators are again at work and the input during the past 48 hours has been quite liberal. Receipts of eggs are showing a decrease and for this reason the salable supplies are short in many places. Most of the eggs are today moving at 17 1/2 @ 18c and this is the price today quoted by front-street merchants and the Journal.

An effort is being made by one or two of the members of the board of trade to boost the commission on eggs up to 10 per cent. A petition with that purpose in view is being circulated among the commission men.

Cheese Production is Heavier.
According to latest advices from Tillamook and other Oregon cheese centers, the production of cheese in this state will be somewhat heavier than a year ago. Already the make is greatly increased and in consequence local arrivals are heavier. This applies principally to "Twins" as "Young Americans" are still in small supply and are quoted at a slight premium.

Brief Notes of the Trade.
Oranges are getting very scarce along the street.
A shipment of bananas was reported in this morning.
Receipts of hothouse cucumbers are quite liberal from local places and the market is easier.
Hothouse lettuce is showing fine quality and late arrivals have been more eagerly picked up at $1 @ $1.50 a box.
String beans from Brawley, California, are arriving by express daily. With the quality receivers experience no difficulty in selling at 15c a pound.

Portland Livestock Market.
Receipts of livestock at the local yards yesterday were considerably larger than for some time past, consisting of 150 cattle, 600 sheep, 70 hogs and 230 lambs, all the stock coming from Eastern and Southern Oregon.

No changes in quotations were made, and the market was considerably steady in all lines excepting sheep, where the tone was weak and the tendency downward. To chances are, however, that sheep prices will be maintained for some days to come. The demand for cattle and hogs continues strong.

For the lambs that came in there was a fair demand at current quotations.
Quotations ruling in the livestock market today are:
Cattle—Best steers $5.00; medium, $4.50 @ 4.75; common $3.50 @ 4.00; best cows, $4.00; common $3.50 @ 3.75; calves 4.50 @ 5.50.
Sheep—Best wethers, $6.00; ewes $5.00 @ 5.50; shearlings $1.00 less; spring lambs $6.00 @ 6.50.

Portland Quotations.
Creamery Butter 21 @ 22 1-2c.
Eggs—17c.
Chickens—13 1/2c.
Wheat—Valley 87c; club 87 1-2c.
Barley—Per ton—$24 @ $28.
Oats—Per ton—$26 @ $27.
Hay—Timothy, $17; cheat, $15.
Grain hay—$15 @ $16.
Mohair—Choice, 17c @ 18.
Wool—Valley, 11c.
Hops—Prime, 4 @ 5c.
Potatoes—45c per cwt.
Onions—$4.25 @ 4.50 per cwt.

F. J. HARD WILL PLANT PALMS

SHIPMENT ARRIVES FROM CALIFORNIA AND HE WILL EXPERIMENT WITH THEM

It will be remembered that the matter of planting palms along East Eleventh street this summer was given up by the East Eleventh Street Improvement Club for the reason that the nurseryman in California from whom the club ordered the trees stated that it was a bad time of the year to take them up and that they might all die. F. J. Hard, however, decided to experiment with planting them now and ordered eleven, which he will plant in the curbing surrounding his handsome residence at the corner of East Eleventh and Patterson streets. There are two varieties in the shipment which arrived this morning. The Dracena palms will be planted on East Eleventh street and the fan leaf palms on Patterson street.
