MOST TEACHERS TO BE RE-ELECTED THIS EVENING

SCHOOL BOARD WILL CHOOSE INSTRUCTORS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS—VERY LITTLE CHANGE WILL BE MADE—COMMERCIAL COURSE MAY BE ADDED—PROFESSOR LYANS NOT APPLICANT

The Eugene school board meets this evening at 5 o'clock for the purpose of selecting the teachers of the public schools for the year 1908-1909.

All the teachers who are now holding positions in the schools, except Central school, are applicants for re-appointment, and it is probable that there will be very little change in the personnel of the teaching force from what it is at present. Professor Lyans' successor is not known yet, and will not be decided upon until the applications for the position are all read this evening. Clerk Reiser says there are over one hundred applications for the several positions in the schools, a number coming from several different parts of the state and a few from outside.

Superintendent L. R. Alderman will be re-elected to that position by the board at its meeting this evening, and Principal Hug, of the high school, as well as the principals of the three grammar schools, will be chosen again, is the program.

The board is considering the matter of establishing a commercial course at the high school, and in that case an additional teacher to take charge of the department will be chosen. There will be perhaps one or two more additional teachers chosen for the high school.

Mrs. S. D. Read, formerly Miss Ethelyn Barbour, now teacher of vocal music in the schools, is not a candidate for reappointment and her successor will be chosen at this evening's meeting.

formerly of Albany, who has been at San Jose, Cal., for several years, has decided to return to Oregon and will locate in Eugene, where he has a son residing. He has sold his San Jose holdings.

Sheriff Flak is expected home on the local tonight with St. Jones and Fred Craig, who were arrested the other day at Heppner on a warrant from the Eugene justice court charging them with contributing to the delinquency of a minor female.

The funeral of Charles Croner, the pioneer, will be held at the family residence at the corner of East Tenth and Oak streets tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited. Interment in the Masonic cemetery.

Cherry Bros. and Jas. Sanford, who both intend to erect brick buildings on the half block that was burned over last August, have signed a party wall agreement. It is probable that both buildings will be commenced some time next month.

On an average of ten car loads of gravel and sand for the depot yard improvement arrive here every day and will continue to arrive at that rate for some time to come yet. The exact number of loads that have already been received is not known, but it is estimated that all of 300 have been sent here and spread over the grounds.

The stockholders of the Eugene General Hospital Association has elected directors for the ensuing year as follows: Drs. T. W. Harris, L. W. Brown, F. W. Prentice and George Wall; also S. H. Friendly, Alton Hampton and L. E. Beam. The directors elected the following officers: Dr. L. W. Brown, president; Dr. T. W. Harris, vice president; and Dr. J. W. Harris, secretary.

Bury I. Dasset, the new booster for Albany, has written the Commercial Club of Eugene that he cannot be here to make the club a visit next Monday night, as planned by the local organization on account of the rush of work there. He has been invited to spend Sunday here however, at which time arrangements will be made for the long talked-of excursion of the local club members to Albany.

The members of the county commissioners' court were taken to Judkins' Point yesterday afternoon in W. L. Kincaid's automobile to look at the grade which the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway is throwing up across the road leading up the hill toward the Kincaid place. H. R. Kincaid made the complaint that the grade was too high to permit of travel over the road, and his son took the court to the scene to view the alleged obstruction. The matter has not yet been settled.

There is some complaint that teams are left on Willamette street and other streets, on which the street cars run, without drivers. Often the conductor on the car has to get off and lead the team out of the way, thus losing a great deal of time. Only a few days ago a team and wagon were standing on Willamette street with only a very small boy in the wagon and a runaway was narrowly averted. The car had to be stopped and it waited till the owner of the outfit came and drove away.

The auto fever appears to be raging all over the country. Thus far it has proved sporadic only in this vicinity, but down at Medford, where, at last accounts, sixty or more cases are reported, it is raging in an acute form with unexampled severity, and with but few convalescents. Strange as it may appear, old people seem to escape its ravages, though there are exceptions to the rule, but young people are very susceptible to the contagion and very escape it. Fully fifty per cent of the younger element among the population in any given community have it, and what aggravates existing conditions is the fact that they recklessly expose themselves and actually hope their parents will catch it. If the disease is not checked it runs a swift course, terminating in perforation of the tires and ultimate collapse through financial insolvency. In this immediate vicinity there are, as yet, but few cases, all of a mild form, and even the latest symptoms of those may not develop until another season.
