THE BETTER WAY

He serves his country best
Who joins the tide that lifts
her nobly on;
For speech has myriad tongues for every day.

He serves his country best,
Who lives pure life and doeth
righteous deed,
And walks straight paths,
however others stray.

He serves his country best,
Who lives pure life and doeth
righteous deed,
And walks straight paths,
however others stray.

EUGENE HONORED

BY STATE GRANGE

Eugene is entertaining today a large number of delegates to the state grange, and we trust that all our people will do their part toward making their stay pleasant and profitable.

CARRY OUT STREET IMPROVEMENT PLANS

That is an excellent idea to pave a block west from Willamette street on Fifth and Sixth streets.

WOOD SAWING

John M. F. Dixon, successor to W. E. Boddy. All wood sawed to gauge.

GERMAN COACH STALLION

The German coach horse which I purchased from Duncan Scott will make the stand during the season at Bangs' barn.

NEW DEPARTMENT IS BADLY NEEDED

The Oakland Enquirer thinks that the bill introduced in the House by Representative Randall, of Louisiana, for the creation of the department of transportation and public works, as a branch of the government, ought to pass.

IP YOU KNEW

The merits of the Texas Weeder. You would never suffer from kidney, bladder or rheumatic trouble.

COAL FEED

Alfalfa meal. At Bailey's Tenth and Willamette streets. Phone Red 441.

WOOD SAWING

tant matters through departments which are overloaded with business. Congressman Randall, in presenting his bill, denied any intention of criticizing the engineering corps of the army, but said he did blame congress for putting upon that corps a "nondescript method of river and harbor improvement that is absolutely impracticable."

Representative Randall well said that the work of the river and harbor improvement should be taken away from the army engineers and placed in the hands of competent civilians. The transportation interests of the country are certainly of sufficient importance to warrant the creation of a department co-ordinate with the war department, the treasury department, the department of agriculture and the department of commerce and labor.

Eugene, with its paved streets well swept, arches of multi-colored lights through the business section, and gay bunting and pennants waving in the breeze, presents a beautiful picture to the hundreds of visitors from all over the state.

Judge Landis got in a fine humor again the other day and soaked a bunch of railroads $13,150, in amounts ranging from $100, for violating the safety appliance law, to $5300, for violating the cattle transportation law, all of which seems to prove that all the railroads are not being good.

A suffragette, armed with a big dinner bell, forced Winston Churchill, the English politician, to skiddoo, instead of making a speech to a big meeting. As the open season for spell-binding is upon us, we shudder to think of the possibility of the adoption of the dinner bell idea over here.

Dan Sully, who went "busted" a few years ago trying to be the cotton king, has duplicated the trick in trying to be the soap king, which ought to convince him and his kind that this isn't a good time for American kings, crowned or uncrowned.

The adage that "a shoemaker's family never wears good shoes" was called to mind by a decision of the Pennsylvania supreme court declaring the will of the late chief justice of that court, drawn by himself, invalid.

Everybody can now safely loosen up. Hetty Green, who moved last winter to reduce her rent from $23 to $19 a month, has moved again—this time to a swell hotel, where she is paying $30 a day for accommodations.

There are now correspondence schools for about everything else, and we are confidently expecting to get a bunch of literature from one which promises to each an easy and cheap way of getting divorced while you wait.

In spite of the trouble which befall those who have in the past attempted to pull off the stunt, a bunch of daring Chicago speculators are again trying to get rich quick by cornering the corn market.

If the able inventors who are burning midnight oil trying to make diamonds, would turn their attention to beef they might expect to receive more wishes for their success.

Extravagant praise of poverty by a rich bank president reminds us that poverty is a mighty good thing—provided that you can look back at it.

The number of freak "Merry Widow" stories being printed indicates that the foxey space writers are right on the job while the fat lasts.

The state troops of Kentucky seem to be as badly "skinned" as the blooming Night Riders as the other residents of the state.

John M. F. Dixon, successor to W. E. Boddy. All wood sawed to gauge.

SIR THEODORE MARTIN.

Sir Theodore Martin, who is publishing a volume entitled "Queen Victoria as I Knew Her," is one of the oldest authors living, having recently celebrated his ninety-second birthday anniversary.

TO THE OREGON ROSE.

Thou wast born with the blush of morning,
With its radiant glory and light,
While the dawn with its beauty adorning,

Lies enthralled in thy form so bright,
'Tis the love of the Maker thou hast heard,

Oh, thy petals are red as the blusher
On the cheeks of a sweet rustic maid,
When the warm flood of love sweeps and rushes

While the first words of love, soft and slow,
Are said,

Like the morning's fresh crystals of dew,
Like the stars in the deep silent night,

Are thy petals, so pure and so white;
In thy breast lie the unwarmed snows,

And subdued is the fierce tropic heat
Of desire, and thy heart's spirit knows,
Naught of sin, but of love, chaste and sweet.

In this beautiful, golden Westland,
'Neath the blue of our sun-kissed skies,

Thou art crowned as our queen, fair and grand;
And thy smile do we ever most prize,
'Tis our love and our pride, and our boast,

'Tis the Queen where the great water flows,
And with pleasure, we drink to this toast:
'To the glorious Oregon Rose."

Donna Items (Special Correspondence.) Donna, May 12.—The rain for the past few days has been of great value to the fields of late sown grain.

Most everybody in this vicinity is enjoying good health at present.

John Adams was in Donna Sunday. J. S. Magrady has closed down his sawmill.

J. R. McGee is having a new well put down at his residence. C. Hayden is also going to have one put down at his place.

A number of our young people attended a picnic at Seavey's ferry on the McKenzie Sunday. Among those who went were Grace Thompson, George Barnhill, Anna Hills, Flora George, U. Bennett, G. Thompson, G. Hill and A. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hammit, of Eugene, were visiting in Donna Sunday.

John Rike, of Vinin, in, says "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year, and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold."
