PRESIDENT CASTRO HAS FOUTING SPELL

Washington, D. C., May 11.—The capital city is smiling today at the efforts of President Castro of the little republic of Venezuela to "insult" the United States. Castro has always been taken more as a tropical joke than as a real live, South American president, and when it was known that he had failed to comply with the strict rules of diplomacy and send a message of congratulation to President Roosevelt on the occasion of the ceremony of the laying of the cornerstone of the building for the bureau of Central and South American republics, the delegates from other countries than Brazil laughed. "Guess he'll send a fleet to bombard New York now that the battleship fleet is on the Pacific side," facetiously remarked a prominent South American official. And thus the fun at Castro's expense went the rounds of the South American diplomatic corps.

DEEP CRACKS FROM ECZEMA

Could Lay Slate-Pencil in One Hands in Dreadful State—Disease Defied Remedies and Prescriptions—Suffered Seven Years

FOUND A PERMANENT CURE IN CUTICURA

"I had eczema on my hands for about seven years and during that time I had used several so-called remedies, together with my physicians' and druggists' prescriptions. The disease was so bad on my hands that I could lay a slate-pencil in one of the cracks and a rule placed across the hand would not touch the pencil. I used—Skin Lotion, Remedy, and others externally but I did not use any internal remedy, and while some gave partial relief, none relieved as much as did the first box of Cuticura Ointment. I made a purchase of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and my hands were perfectly cured after two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of soap were used. I now keep them on hand for sunburn, etc., and use Cuticura Soap for shaving. I could write a great deal more in reference to my cure but do not want to take more of your time. William H. Dean, Newark, Del., Mar. 28, 1907."

CHILD SUFFERED With Sores on Legs. Cured in Two Weeks by Cuticura

"My little daughter suffered with sores on her legs all last summer. Her feet were sore, too, and she couldn't wear her shoes. I think she was poisoned by running through weeds but the doctor said it was eczema. I tried several remedies but failed to find a cure. Then I sent for Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment which cured her in two weeks. I find Cuticura the best I ever tried for any kind of sore and I hope I shall never be without it. Mrs. Gertrude Laughlin, Ivydale, W. Va., Apr. 25, 1907."

CONFESSION OF HOLT OBTAINED BY OFFICIALS

Portland, May 12.—A special dispatch to the Evening Telegram from Port Townsend says that District Attorney Eimer E. Todd, aided by two secret service men, has secured a partial confession from James H. Holt, the alleged murderer of Congressman Henry Johnson. The detectives worked on Holt's sympathies until at last he is alleged to have declared: "Well, I am not afraid to die or afraid of the gallows, but I don't want any dirt thrown at me. Three of us committed the murder and we divided the money." The other men, Knight and Greble, are in custody.

Hugh Fisher, assisted by O. W. Warren, has been running lines to secure figures for the apportionment of the expense of the paving of First street, and the adjoining streets, at Albany, preparatory to the passage of an ordinance covering the matter. It is doubtful if it is ready for the city council by tomorrow night. Lots run north and south, and all lots touching a street have to stand their share of the cost.—Democrat.

YOUNG WOMEN

Young women are often great sufferers for want of proper advice at just the right time. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., has always issued to young girls a special invitation to write to her about their sickness. She is a mother, and fully understands.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND is what you need to restore health. Miss Abby F. Barrows, of Nelsonville, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "When I wrote to you I was very nervous, had dull headaches, backache, and was very irregular. Doctors did me no good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your advice made me regular, well and strong. I am now in better health than ever before." Miss Elsie L. Hook, of Chelsea, Vt., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I am only sixteen years old, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and your advice have cured me of sideache, periodic pains, and a nervous, irritable condition after everything else had failed."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?
