WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1908

It really doesn't matter much if bank accounts are small; if we have sunshine in our hearts We're rich enough for all.

JUDGE CAKE POSSESSES SENATORIAL QUALIFICATIONS

In his address last night Judge Cake came out strongly and without reservation in favor of the University of Oregon appropriation. Whether this is a politic position for a candidate before the people to take makes no difference, but the manly unhesitating declaration stamps him as a man of positive beliefs, and not timid about expressing them on occasion.

WATER POWER IS KING

At various stages of the industrial development of the United States there have been certain natural resources invested with a kind of sovereignty in the public mind. Cotton, iron, coal and wheat have been proclaimed king in the jubilation over national wealth, and while these may continue to hold popular regard a new monarch is about to arise in the industrial world. It is water power, upon which our great-grandfathers relied largely for mechanical energy, but neglected later in the rush to dis fuel from the earth for steam production.

Interest has been revived in hydroelectricity by the movement started by President Roosevelt to develop the county's waterways, and some amazing figures are being presented to arouse public interest. For instance, according to a writer in the Los Angeles Express, the United States Geological survey reports that 1,400,000 horsepower available for economic use in the Southern Appalachian streams and with the construction of storage reservoirs this figure might be raised to $2,000,000.

as indicated by the president's address, printed in today's Guard, and delivered to the count. One of the hours and other notables gathered in Washington at this time.

This year about Allice Roosevelt-Longworth is preparing to take the stump in one of the Ohio congressional districts against the Countess of Warwick, of England, who will speak for the socialist candidate, merely proving that the silly season is several months ahead of schedule time this year.

Rumor says the managers of the Johnson show are dangling the vice presidential bait before General Nelson A. Miles. General Miles had a run-in with the political bait-danglers several years ago which he has not forgotten yet.

Mrs. Hetty Green, so the dispatches say, is threatened with death by the "Black Hand" unless she gives up $50,000. And you can bet the old lady would give up her life gladly to save so much coin.

In knocking out the proposed restoration of the "canteen" in soldiers homes by the decisive vote of 167 to 49, the members of the house made a noise like keeping tabs on the strength of the prohibition wave.

Senator Teller is too good a man to become a permanent victim of the dictator's nightmare habit. This country isn't France by a jugfull. Mean while Mr. Teller might find relief by changing his diet.

Several gentlemen ambitious to fill second place on the national ticket feel mighty kindly toward the Ohio Democrats for having nominated Judson Harmon for governor.

If congress authorizes the issue of emergency currency on commercial paper, the government will only be doing what the banks do every day.

The 200 inhabitants of Benbow city, which is credited with having 23 saloons, are all doubtless members of the ancient Bendelbow tribe.

If every member who failed to earn that increased salary were to be trapped, the next congress would beat the record for new faces.

IN MEMORIAM

The following verses are written in memory of Daniel Smith, who died May 4, 1908. Dear Uncle—we miss you from our presence. When your face we no more see; While of others we are thinking— We oft times think of thee.

Your feeble walk is ended, And your work on earth is done; But we hope some day to meet you In a fairer, brighter home.

Where sorrow and death cannot enter, And night and all is one— Where life goes on forever, That is a far better home.

For ninety years you've been with us, Telling and sorrowing through life. Your kind face we all remember As through the years of our life MELVINA HERBERT.

PARK CURBINGS SHOULD BE KEPT IN CONDITION

Ever since the cement walks and the curbing around the county park blocks, or the plaza, have been built the space between the walks and the tall grass growing wild and gravel and rubbish allowed to remain there present a bad appearance compared to the neatness which characterizes the appearance of the park blocks and surroundings. In the opinion of most people it is the duty of the county park tender to see that this work is attended to, but the county officials say that it is the duty of the city to look after the matter, while the city officials say the county should pay for it.

EUGENE MEN RODE COW DOWN MAIN STREET

TOWN OF HARRISBURG STIRRED UP OVER LITTLE EPISODE THERE ONE DAY THIS WEEK

Two young men residing in Eugene had occasion to go to Harrisburg one day this week on business. They evidently succeeded in finding a blind pig down there—anyway, they filled up on bad booze and started for a lark. They spied a cow in a barn, and tying a rope around her neck took her out and rode her down the main street of the quiet little town to the consternation of the inhabitants. A number of farmers tried to remonstrate with them and it is said that the young men from Eugene, who are reputed to be handy with their "dukes," proceeded to wipe them off the earth and succeeded in their task pretty well. It is said, but soon ran up against the town marshal and a force of deputies, who subdued the mad placed them in the lockup. They were later brought before the village magistrate and fined for being drunk and disorderly.

MRS. GORDON REFUSES TO MAKE STATEMENT

Marshfield, Or., May 11.—Believing that she could live but a few hours, Mrs. Bertha Etta Gordon, who was shot Sunday morning by Mazuke Anderson, this evening persisted in her denial that she had anything to do with the counterfeiting of money on Coos Bay. At the Marshfield General hospital, where she is being treated, Mrs. Gordon was seen by an Oregonian representative. "I am too near death to talk," she moaned. "If I live until tomorrow morning you can talk to me. I will not speak to newspaper men. I am so sick I can say nothing."

WELL-DRILLERS OF EUGENE ESTABLISH PRICES

Eugene, Or., May 12, 1908. We, the undersigned well drillers in Eugene and vicinity, have established the following prices: For a three-inch well in earth, 50 cents per foot; in gravel and sand rock, 75 cents per foot. No casings furnished. For a four-inch well in earth, 75 cents per foot; in gravel and sand rock, $1.00 per foot. No casings furnished. For cement, gravel and basalt rock, $2 per foot. The owner of the well to furnish all needed casings. For out-of-town work, parties having well drilled to furnish all transportation, board and the water necessary to drill.

GOULD LIVERY, FEED AND SALES STABLES

Having purchased the Gilbert feed stables on West Fifth street, near Willamette, we intend to conduct a first-class livery, feed and sales stable. We are prepared to furnish good teams and ladies' saddle horses on short notice. Our prices will be found reasonable and our treatment of the public courteous and obliging. Having had much experience in the livery business we know how to conduct such an establishment in a first-class manner. We respectfully solicit a share of your patronage. D. G. GOULD & SON.

A Californian's Luck

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Huckle's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn, of Tracy, Cal. "Two 25c boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and had yielded under no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at W. Kuykendall's drug store.

HORRORS OF FAT GIRLS COMING OUT

Coming out is the first great event of a girl's life. She thinks and dreams about it from the hour she understands what it means. It is to be her first triumphal hour. Then how terrible must be the anticipations of the over-fat young maiden who realizes her proportionate far from conforming to the standard of fascination set by the more shapely girls with whom she is about to compete. Hence, she makes desperate efforts, by means of rigid dieting, curtailment of food and chocolate delights, strenuous exercising at the risk of developing a quartet and angular outline of figure, to take off the excess of matterly fat. Or else the distracted debutante flings her succor to the "patent" and "re-cast" advertised remedies.

The result only too frequently is that the so-called remedies and starvation diet ruin her stomach, while the exercise makes her course and boyish, and may be accompanied by serious physical danger. A far better plan, one which other fat folks, old or young, may adopt with equal benefit, is to go to the druggist, get those three simple remedies, viz: 1-2 oz. Marmala, 1-2 oz. Fruit Extract of Cascara Aromatic, and 3-1/2 oz. Syrup Simplex, mix these together, and take one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

With the aid of this harmless receipt one can reduce as much or as little as one pleases, quickly and safely. It works naturally, does not cause wrinkles and redness of the body, and does not deprive one of sleep. It depends on neither overeating nor diet to help it do the work, and it will not distress the stomach. On the contrary, it is beneficial to the system, cleanses the blood and clears the complexion. Finally it saves a girl's money, for any druggist will fill this receipt for a small sum.
