The party will leave Eugene on September 10th.—Herald.

D. E. Yoran has sold to Charles W. Severson the corner residence lot, which is now vacant, at West Eighth and Lawrence streets, for $1,200, and the property on which the residence stands, adjoining the corner lot, to B. D. Paine. The consideration in the latter deal is not given out for publication; Mr. Yoran bought the property last summer from the Shannon estate at administrator's sale.

Carl Davis, a graduate of the U. of O., '05, is ill with typhoid fever at Missoula, Montana, and will probably come home to Eugene as soon as he is able to travel. He went to Montana to help Dr. Ricketter of Chicago University investigate the nature of the mysterious Rocky Mountain spotted fever, which is peculiar to that locality. Soon after arriving at Missoula he was taken ill.

Professor Stafford, of the University of Oregon, has received a letter from Dr. Roy R. Renshaw, formerly an assistant in the department of chemistry here, and at present occupying a position in Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn. Dr. Renshaw tells of his regret at the undesirable publicity that Oregon is getting in the East from reports that the State University is not supported. He says: "It is the worst possible advertising the state could have."

Instead of a new train, as reported, leaving Portland at 1:30 in the morning, there will be a change in the schedule of No. 12, which now leaves Portland about 11:30 at night. It will leave two hours later and arrive in Eugene about 6 o'clock in the morning, bringing the Portland paper here at that time, as stated in yesterday's Guard. WU TING FANG EXPOUNDS LESSON FROM CONFUCIOUS

New York, May 12.—The Chinese minister, Wu Ting Fang, today delivered to his countrymen in this city some wise counsel drawn from the teachings of Confucius.

His address was delivered in the Chinese theatre, on the lower East Side, and was intended to promote the erection of a $100,000 temple to Confucius in this city.

"There should be no more factional fights among you," said the minister. "The sage Confucius, if his teachings are followed, will make the whole world one family, and China like one person in nationality, Christians and all other persons dwelling together. Abolish your faction."

"Be sure to learn American ways and its language, and associate with the American people where you can. A good way to learn American ways is to attend Sunday school."

"A good man obeys his wife, and a wife sometimes gives her husband good advice, especially when she advises him not to gamble and not to smoke opium. Don't drink, especially whisky and brandy."
