AN INDEPENDENT PAPER, Member of Associated Press. THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1908

SERIOUS BLOW TO PUBLIC WELFARE

In my opinion an adverse vote on the University of Oregon appropriation would be far reaching and a serious blow to the manhood and the public welfare of the state, and I think it is the duty of every good citizen to vote "Yes" on this bill.

CHAS. A. JOHNS, Mayor of Baker City.

THE UNLUCKY THIRTEEN, OLD SUPERSTITION

It is usually stated that the superstitious objection to sitting thirteen at a table in Christian countries was based on the fact of the last supper, when Christ and His twelve disciples sat down to eat together immediately before the Savior was seized by his enemies, according to Housekeeper.

Among the ignorant blacks of the South the fear of this number in any connection is actually absurd, and whether they have borrowed this idea from their imperfect knowledge of Christianity, or whether it is a survival of the voodoo worship of their ancestors it is impossible to say.

AMERICAN CORPORATIONS.

It is of extraordinary interest that President Vail of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, in his annual report, commends President Roosevelt's attitude toward corporate control and management and favors the doctrine of physical valuations as a basis for establishing fair earnings.

THE OLD MAN

But yesterday I thought that I was just as young as any boy; There was no atom I wouldn't try. No sport that I could not enjoy. I used to think that I could run as fast as any youngster small.

of today has necessarily become interstate and, therefore, subject to control as interstate commerce.

George Washington was the real father of the new navy. There were other patriotic advocates of a fighting fleet, but to his voice more than to that of any other did the country listen.

Let us say right here and now that we endorse the objects of the National Prosperity Association.—To keep the dinner pail full, to keep the tax ear going, to keep the factory busy, to keep workmen employed, and to maintain present wages.

Paul Morton has become a director of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad. This is a free country, but Paul would do well to study up what has happened to other men who mixed up the insurance and the railroad business.

The navy department has been altogether too kind to Oregon, in allowing our people the opportunity of standing on the mountains about Newport and the mouth of the Columbia river and watching the Atlantic fleet steam by on its way to Puget Sound.

"Found his money in a dream" is a headline over a news-story in an exchange. It's very familiar. That's the way we all find our money, but mighty few of us ever spend any of it after we wake up.

Andy Carnegie has repeatedly said that he "has enough," but somehow we have not heard of his doing anything to interfere with the plans of the steel trust for maintaining prices at their present level.

What a pity Wu Ting-Fung isn't eligible, so the hen-pecked could show their appreciation for his having said, "a bossed husband is generally a good one," by nominating him for president.

Wonder if the reverend gentleman who recently said, "Most of us have wishbones where our backbones should be," had been using X-rays, or just making a shrewd guess?

The addition to Eugene's high school will be built of brick manufactured in Salem. Why not have a factory or factories large enough to supply the local market?

The prohibitionists ought to turn their attention to the month of May, which is showing a most reprehensible disposition to foregather with the "wets."

Careful investigation will show that the ten-a-week clerk devotes much more attention to the latest thing in "business suits" than does the boss.

If Canada fails to put an export duty on paper, if we take off the import duty, it will not be for lack of tips from this side of the line.

After all, life is much like a game of baseball—in looking over the score we always find more errors than home runs.

AMERICAN CORPORATIONS.

Both Eastern and Southern Oregon are said to be wanting rain. Well, the Willamette valley might spare a little just now.

THE OLD MAN

But yesterday I thought that I was just as young as any boy; There was no atom I wouldn't try. No sport that I could not enjoy. I used to think that I could run as fast as any youngster small.

MRS. NATALIE SCHENCK COLLINS. Mrs. Collins, whose divorce from Captain Charles G. Collins of the British army is well remembered, is very popular among the society set of New York and Newport.

JUDGE HARRIS GOES TO ROSEBURG

A letter received here from Judge Harris of Eugene, announces that he cannot arrive in Roseburg in time to open the preliminary term of circuit court next Friday morning, as scheduled.

LOCAL OPTION IN PENN.

(Athens (Pa.) Gazette.) Well, that local option boom seems to have collapsed in this state. Pennsylvania atmosphere must have been too chilly for it.

DOUGLAS AND ROOSEVELT

(Athens (Pa.) Gazette.) Three years and more, October 7, 1904, the Democrats of Massachusetts at the convention which nominated William L. Douglas for governor, declared that Roosevelt's course was full of peril, and that his career was a disappointment.
