PRESIDENT SPEAKS TO METHODIST DELEGATES

which make a good wife and good mother, if each has self-respect, and if each realizes that the greatest thing in life is the chance to do service—why, then the future of the nation is secure. We cannot stand up for what is good in manhood and womanhood without condemning what is evil. We must condemn the man who is either brutal and vicious or weak and cowardly—the man who falls to do his duty by the public, who is a bad neighbor, an idler, an inconscient father. So also must we condemn the woman who, whether from cowardice or coldness, from selfish love of ease or from lack of all true womanly qualities, refuses to do aright her great and all-essential duties of wifehood and motherhood. We admire a good man; but we admire a good woman more. We believe in her more. All honor is due the man who does his full duty in peace, who as a soldier does his full duty in war, but even more honor is due the mother, for the birth pangs make all men the debtors of all women. No human being has a greater title to respect than the mother who does her full duty, who bears and rears plenty of healthy children, so that there shall be national growth and not national decadence, so that in quality and quantity our people shall increase. The measure of our belief in and respect for the good man and the good woman must be the measure of our condemnation of the man and the woman who, whether from viciousness or selfishness or from rapid folly, fails to do each his or her duty in his or her special sphere. Courage, unselfishness, common sense, devotion to high ideals, a proper care for the things of the spirit, and yet also for the things of the body—these are what we most need to see in our people, these are the qualities that make up the right type of family life; and these are the qualities that by precept and by example you here, whom I am addressing, are bound to do all in your power to make the typical qualities of American citizenship.

STATE GRANGE ENDS ITS 35th SESSION

would be a confusing and disturbing factor.

Citizens of Eugene Thanked.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

Resolved, That the officers, members and visitors of the Oregon state grange, in this 35th annual session assembled, do hereby express their most sincere appreciation and thanks to all concerned who have in any manner contributed to the success of this meeting.

To the citizens of Eugene, whose welcome has been so delightfully expressed in the various street and window decorations, and in so hospitably opening their homes to shelter us.

To the Commercial Club and to its ladies auxiliary, who have combined to receive and serve us, and in every way to do us honor and make us comfortable.

To the faculty and students of the University of Oregon, whose reception was most cordial and which gave us cause to regret that our business engagements prevented a longer visit to this institution.

To those who took part in the public reception of this body and so cordially greeted us—not forgetting the boys of pretty little girls who decorated us with roses not more dainty and fair than themselves, nor the University Glee Club and Eugene Military band which were so heartily enjoyed.

To the local granges, who so ably managed the decorations and bonfire for feast on the occasion of the fifth and sixth degrees.

To the Independent Order of Odd Fellows who so generously furnished the use of its commodious hall free of charge.

To those who have so agreeably entertained and instructed us in addresses, songs and recitations.

To the newspapers of Eugene, of Portland and the press of the state generally which have reported our proceedings.

To the railroad companies, which furnished us reduced fares.

"The Grange in Eugene."

The following verses were composed by Ethel Pringle on "The State Grange in Eugene":

We love our order, we love this town,
And it is hoped not one will give it a frown.
After being so nicely entertained
At this great session of the State Grange.

Now Eugene is an industrious town,
And no one should try to put it down,
But help it to gain its efforts high
Of which this State Grange will surely try.

And the U. of O., we must not forget,
Although when we visited it it was rather wet;
With President Campbell in the lead,
To have the students do some good deed.

Next the Commercial Club must be remembered,
Whose assistance has been so kindly rendered
In giving the members of this great order
A chance to see Eugene from border to border.

We think Lane county granges have showed their good will,
And will surely have to pay some bills
For giving the State Grange such a treat
Of the many good things they had to eat.

The State Grange met in Odd Fellows' hall,
We know it is their's by the emblems on its walls;
Thanks be to their order and God bless them all,
If they live up to their motto at the head of their hall.

And when we walk upon the streets
Not only Patrons do we meet,
But citizens of high renown
Which makes complete this lovely town.

Again there is something we do not see,
Something of which Eugene is free,
Which surely is a credit to you,
And don't let one come here, what 'ere you do.

Now, you all know what I mean,
It is a saloon, which would cause citizens to dream—
To dream the dreams that will cause them to do
Deeds of disgrace to themselves and you.

And when to our humble homes we go,
We, as State Granger members, surely know
Much credit is due to Eugene,
The town which is surely fit for a "Queen."

BLUE WOMEN

Women should understand that melancholia, commonly called "the blues," is in nine times out of ten a sure symptom of some serious female organic derangement and should have immediate attention.

Women whose spirits are depressed, and who are ailing and miserable, should rely upon LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND as is evidenced by following letters.

Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For three years I was in an awful despondent and nervous condition caused by female troubles. I was not contented anywhere and was in such constant fear that something terrible was going to happen that it seemed as though I should lose my mind. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health, and I cannot say enough for it."

Mrs. Mary J. Williams, of Bridgeport, Ill., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have been suffering from a female trouble, backache and headaches, and was so blue that I was simply in despair. I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. The change in my appearance is wonderful, and I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, Why don't you try it?
