MEMORIAL DAY WILL BE FITTINGLY OBSERVED HERE

LOCAL POST OF G. A. R. HAS COMPLETED A GENERAL PROGRAM FOR THE OCCASION

THE USUAL PARADE WILL FORM ON WILLAMETTE STREET AND PROCEED TO ODD FELLOWS' CEMETERY, WHERE EXERCISES WILL BE HELD OVER GRAVES

J. W. Geary Post, G. A. R., of this city, has completed arrangements for the proper observance of Memorial Day, and has outlined a general program as follows, the exercises to take place on Saturday, May 30:

The marching column will form on Willamette street, right resting on Seventh street, in the following order: Companies A and C, Oregon National Guard, on right of line acting as escort; Sons of Veterans, Grand Army of the Republic, Woman's Relief Corps, school children, mayor and city council and citizens in carriages.

The line will move promptly at 9:30 o'clock a. m., moving south on Willamette street to Fourteenth, east on Fourteenth street to Alder street, south on Alder street to the Odd Fellows' cemetery. The usual services will be held at the G. A. R. lot. After the services the column will move to the Spanish War Veterans' lot, where the G. A. R. will participate with those veterans in the ceremonies of honoring their dead comrades. At the conclusion of these ceremonies all will return to the city.

The Woman's Relief Corps will serve dinner at the G. A. R. hall to the old soldiers, their families and friends.

At 3 o'clock p. m. the G. A. R. column will again form and march to the mill race on East Ninth street, where they will participate with the Woman's Relief Corps in the beautiful ceremony of decorating the waters with roses in memory of the soldier-sailor dead who perished in the waters of our country and whose remains lie in unmarked and unknown graves in the depths of the rivers and oceans. At the conclusion of these ceremonies all will be dismissed, this service finishing the services of the day. No evening services will be held.

Sunday, May 24

On Memorial Sunday, May 24, services will be held at 11 a. m. at the M. E. church. The address will be delivered by eRv. W. B. Pinkerton, of the Congregational church. The Rev. P. K. Hammond will deliver the address at the decoration of the waters May 30th.

To all of these services all patriotic organizations and citizens generally are earnestly requested to participate with the G. A. R. The school children are especially invited to join with us.

The W. R. C. Flower Service.

The Woman's Relief Corps, assisted by J. W. Geary post No. 7, G. A. R., will observe the beautiful ceremony of scattering flowers on the water in memory of the soldier-sailor dead. The parade will form at G. A. R. hall at 3 o'clock and proceed to the bridge on Ninth street, where the following program will be rendered at 3:30 o'clock:

Prayer, Rev. C. C. Bell.
Singing, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," audience.
Address, Rev. P. K. Hammond.
Remarks, Commander C. H. Baker.
Ceremony of scattering the flowers on the water.
Singing, "America," audience.
"Taps."
Benediction.

A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to witness this ceremony.

HARRIMAN IS OPIMISTIC ON GENERAL OUTLOOK

Washington, May 16.—E. H. Harriman says that the traffic managers will have to decide the complicated rate question which has aroused a tempest of protest from all over the country because of increases. This morning the magnate said:

"The traffic manager will decide the matter of increased freight rates. I do not care to further discuss the subject."

When asked what the railroad situation was as regards finances, he replied: "The property of the railroads is in good physical condition, and is being well managed. The roads are able to get all the money necessary to finance them; in fact they can finance themselves now.

"Natural conditions have not been better in years. The country is going to have a bumper crop and the recent financial agitation has greatly calmed. Recent decisions of state and federal courts have had a good effect in adjusting affairs of big concerns."
