OREGON'S GRAND OLD MAN AND STATE UNIVERSITY: We ought to have a good university or none at all. We want a good university, one of course it must have means to make it good. A poor, sickly, half-starved institution would be a disgrace to Oregon.

NECESSITY FOR NEWSPAPER CAMPAIGN

The Guard is refusing to publish matter both the prohibitionists and opponents. Both sides seem to be filling newspapers wherever possible their arguments pro and con. It may be necessary in other countries here we do not believe it to be since Lane has had prohibition for years and this coming election means nothing more or less than a question of opinion from the people on the practical trial of what up to two years ago an experiment there should not be an ignorant voter in the county who does not know his own mind; he is "wet" or "dry" from reason of his own, based on personal experience and observation and it is the duty of newspaper space to appeal to a voter with the hackneyed stereotyped arguments common in discussion of such issues.

Guard wants to see Eugene Lane county grow and has all advocated moderation and tolerance in the discussion of these questions that so often divide counties into warring camps. Let us go to the voting booth and decide this question without any unbecoming and rancorous, being asked to accept the result, whatever it may be, as the will of an honest, honest majority, and thus in a position to continue to grow a bigger and better city and county.

We are willing to pass up any opportunity to sell some additional space, in order to carry out a policy which we believe to be best for the general welfare, a position which will be endorsed by the best of the county upon sober reflection.

CAN AND ENGLISH HUMOR

American regard for that classic English humor, Punch, has been a standard jest and stands the test of becoming a trifle worn at the edges and frayed from abuse. A familiar picture is a typical Britisher, standing almost overcome by surprise and indignation at finding a joke which he has heard a hundred times before, utter bewilderment. So our standard of the humorist differs from that of our countrymen on the other side.

Britishers, however, return compliment with good interest. It might be just as well for several thousand would-be millionaires to bear in mind that there is but one Tom Lawson-made fortune, and that belongs to Tom.

We are assured by an expert (not Senator Tom Platt) that the Merry Widow has had no perceptible influence on the flavor of the kisses under them.

Tom Platt was unquestionably rightly named as the "easy boss." Mrs. Wood seems to have found him very "easy."

has agreed to decrease its exportation of the poppy for a period of three years in order to see whether the number of smokers is lessened. Should such be the case, importation into China will be decreased gradually. The decree orders the enforcement of existing regulations and the elaboration of further measures to deal with the evil.

Harry Thaw is said to be afflicted with an incurable form of insanity and the alienists assert that he would be a constant menace to the public if turned at large. We thought so all along, and advise that he be constantly confined in his present prison-asylum during the balance of his existence on this terrestrial sphere.

To illustrate the importance of the newspaper as related to forests, it is reported that an Englishman largely interested in newspapers has secured by purchase in one of the English dependencies, a tract of 600,000 acres of land, thickly covered with timber, so that when he finds the general supply of wood pulp paper running low he can draw from his private resources. Does not this fact make one think?

The conduct of Harry Orchard, who dismissed an attorney who endeavored to save him from the punishment of his crimes, is cordially commended to some of the wealthy malefactors of the land. But these fellows are not built that way. They prefer to escape the consequences of their crimes, and after that, that is but the natural instinct of self-preservation.

A Washington dispatch states that the average weekly wages through the country is $10. Now you'll understand why, with two kids on our hands and doctors' bills staring us in the face, we're still wearing our heavy winter duds and why wife's spring bonnet is on the absent list, says the editor of a country weekly paper.

The Methodist general conference insists that we shall have a "dry" president. Well, either of the two gentlemen who seem likely to be nominated by the big parties ought to be able to fill the bill, and Tom Watson isn't in any danger of being elected.

Before having to pay increased freight rates the consumers, who will in the end have to foot all the bills, may have the satisfaction of seeing a lively scrap between the big shipping interests and the would-be-rate-holding railroads.

Since a Brooklyn bartender inherited $75,000, under the will of a man whose taste he had long pleased, he has quit worrying about the growth of the prohibition wave and gone to worrying about automobiles.

Should the Chicago convention have any trouble in finding a man to take second place, it might give Leslie M. Shaw, statesman-banker, now out of a job, a chance to make a noise like joy.

Wu Ting Fang says the report that he was jolted off the water wagon was a slanderous fabrication, and as Wu isn't a candidate for anything his denial will probably be accepted as final.

Andy Carnegie says "a nation has everything to fear from gigantic armed breadnaughts," but we believe his steel trust is still filling orders, at fancy prices, for armor for battle-ships.

It might be just as well for several thousand would-be millionaires to bear in mind that there is but one Tom Lawson-made fortune, and that belongs to Tom.

We are assured by an expert (not Senator Tom Platt) that the Merry Widow has had no perceptible influence on the flavor of the kisses under them.

We take it that the makers of campaign buttons already out are far too wise to wait until the conventions act to collect their coin.

Tom Platt was unquestionably rightly named as the "easy boss." Mrs. Wood seems to have found him very "easy."

Kennedy's laxative Cough Syrup does not constipate, but on the other hand its laxative principles gently move the bowels. Children like it. Sold by all druggists.

A SONG OF BEAUTY

Oh, sing me a song of beauty: I'm tired of the wretched song, I'm weary of all the preaching, The acrid right and wrong; I'm faint to forget the adage, That under the leaf lies curled, And dream of the light and beauty that gladdens the gray old world.

Oh, sing of the emerald meadows That smile all day in the sun; The ripple and gleam of the rivers That on through the meadows run. Oh, sing of the singing branches Of trees in the leafy woods, And the beam for the heart that's hidden Afar in the solitudes.

The birds—let them sing in your singing, And flash through the lines you write, The lark with his list in the morning, The nightingale charming the night, The butterfly over the flowers That hovers on painted wing— All these, let them brighten and lighten The beautiful song you sing.

And let there be faces of lovers And let there be eyes that glow, And let there be tears of gladness Instead of tears of woe; And let there be straying kisses Of lips for a time that part, But never a trifling shadow, To darken a truthful heart.

Ay, sing me a song of beauty— Away with the songs of strife, Away with the spears of sorrow That sadden the most of life, Though under the leaf the adage Of death and doom lies curled, Oh, sing for a space of the beauty That gladdens the gray old world. —Dennis A. McCarthy in the New York Sun.

PURCHASE INTEREST IN OREGON LAND CO.

F. A. Frost of Fort Morgan, Colo., and L. H. Enright, of Muskegon, Mich., have each purchased an interest in the Oregon Land Co. Mark Fleming still retains an interest. Mr. Frost, of the new firm, is a man of considerable wealth, which he intends investing in land or other property in Oregon. He has a 11,000 acre ranch at Ft. Morgan, Colo., which he desires to trade for Lane county land. Mr. Enright modestly insists that he is just nobody in particular, but this much we have found out—that he is a man of energy, character and education, with the very best references, and he is likely to make some of us sit up and rub our eyes.

GOULD LIVERY, FEED AND SALES STABLES

Having purchased the Gilbert feed stables on West Fifth street, near Willamette, we intend to conduct a first-class livery, feed and sales stable. We are prepared to furnish good teams and ladies' saddle horses on short notice. Our prices will be found reasonable and our treatment of the public courteous and obliging. Having had much experience in the livery business we know how to conduct such an establishment in a first-class manner. We respectfully solicit a share of your patronage. D. G. GOULD & SON.

CLUB AUXILIARY (N U) UNIVERSITY APPROPRIATION

The women's auxiliary of the Eugene Commercial Club has passed the following resolutions on the University appropriation: Whereas, At the last session of the legislature of the state of Oregon that body passed an act granting to the state University an annual appropriation of $125,000 for the maintenance of that institution; and Whereas, An effort is being made by some persons to defeat this appropriation by means of the referendum; and Whereas, We, the Women's Auxiliary of the Commercial Club of Eugene, believe in higher education in the state of Oregon and deplore the fact that so many of our young men and women attend institutions of learning in other states; in our judgment the importance of this measure is greater than other measures now before the people. We have no special interest in the University, other than that which every loyal citizen should have, but we do have an intense state pride. We would save the state from the humiliation that awaits it if the appropriation made by the last legislature should be defeated and our University languish in a most deplorable condition because this appropriation has been placed in jeopardy through the referendum; and if the appropriation is defeated it will result in delaying large numbers of a desirable class of citizens from coming to the state who would enrich it if the state institutions of learning were allowed the appropriations necessary to carry on their work; therefore be it Resolved, That we use our influence as far as possible to have the appropriation carry, and respectfully petition all voters to support said appropriation at the polls on the first of June.

I AM A MOTHER

How many American women in lonely homes to-day long for this blessing to come into their lives, and to be able to utter these words, but because of some organic derangement this happiness is denied them. Every woman interested in this subject should know that preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardonia, N. Y., writes: "I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.
