COLOSSAL BLUNDER

Oregon has made one colossal blunder in her educational affairs. Let us hope she may not make another. The paucity of our school fund is due to judgment in the disposal of school lands; to the University appropriation would be an equally colossal blunder, equally disastrous to the educational interests of our state.

era of greater prosperity that is right ahead. All together now, HURRAH!

There seems to be a general opinion in railroad circles that the Oregon Eastern will be one of the first railroad projects that Harriman will carry out in the West. Should the surmise prove true, it will make Eugene not only an important railroad center of the West, but a jobbing point, with its trade area extending across the Cascades to the Idaho line and south into Northern California.

"Fighting Bob" Evans, when told that he had been spoken of for the vice presidency, said: "I've been threatened with jail and a lot of other things have happened to me, but I was never threatened with anything as bad as that." Bob don't have to be introduced to a joke when he meets it.

Here's a revamped epigram turned out by a foreign factory: "Some things we were born to believe, some things we were made to believe, but most things we believe—because we wish to."

By a judicious use of Foraker soothing syrup and Roosevelt pie it is expected that the discordant anti-Taft noise in the black-and-tan band will be shortly changed to "Hail to the Chief."

General Fred Grant says "we are a very pugnacious people, and no nation is so little prepared to meet the consequences." Still, Fred, you cannot point out any instance in which we have yet failed to meet them.

Society may yet find it necessary to draw a line by stating the exact amount of money a man may acquire before he is entitled to apply for his first divorce.

About the merriest widows of the bunch are those who have perfected arrangements to become June brides.

THE PHONE BELL

She ran to cook his pancakes, And the phone bell rang. She rushed to start the coffee, And the phone bell rang.

She tried to dress the children, And the phone bell rang. She went to wash the dishes, And the phone bell rang.

The grocer stopped for orders, And the phone bell rang. A neighbor came for gossip, And the phone bell rang.

All day her housework waited, While the phone bell rang. No time for rest or labor, When the phone bell rang.

BASEBALL GAMES AND TRACK MEET

O. A. C. ATHLETES WILL MEET UNIVERSITY TOSSEES AND RUNNERS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

The O. A. C. lineup for the baseball games next Saturday will probably be as strong as any team that the Aggies have ever sent to Eugene. Roper, Looney and Myers will be on the mound in the centre of Recreation Park, and Moore and Cooper will alternate behind the bat during the two games.

The rest of the lineup is as follows: First base, H. Moore; second base, Swann, who is barred from the track this year; third base, Francis; shortstop, Holman; left field, Poff; centre field, Blyeue; right field, B. 25.

The entries for the track will probably be as follows: 100-yard dash, Scott, Schroeder, Looney; 220-yard dash, Scott, Schroeder and Greenhaw; quarter, Steiner, Howard and Greenhaw; half, Davolt, Crowe, Steiner and Greenhaw; mile, Davolt, Cross and Bary; two hurdles, Brodie, Southernland and Farnsworth; high hurdles, Brodie, Southernland and Lonsberry; high jump, Lonsberry, Chapman, and Hawley; pole vault, Chapman, Lonsberry and Farnsworth; shot put, Lonsberry, Wolf and Hall; hammer throw, Hall, Wolff and Smith; discus, Jameson, Lonsberry and Wolff.

One of the differences between the University athletics and agricultural teams, is that members of the baseball team take part in track work also. Last year Swan played on the basket ball, the track and the baseball teams.

The track meet will be pulled off rain or shine Friday afternoon. The business houses will close.

ODD FELLOWS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

J. M. WILLIAMS, OF EUGENE, CHOSEN GRAND SENIOR WARDEN OF THE STATE ENCAMPMENT.

Salem, Or., May 19.—Salem extended a cordial welcome to 500 Odd Fellows and Rebeckahs today, when the members of those orders gathered for their annual meeting of grand lodge and assembly. Streets and business houses are decorated with bunting and with the I. O. O. F. emblem. Reception committees have met all trains and the visitors have been escorted to rooms and boarding places.

The Grand Encampment convened this morning in Representative Hall, with about 90 delegates present. Very little business was transacted aside from the election of officers which resulted as follows: Grand patriarch, E. J. Seeley, Albany; grand high priest, R. Robertson, Roseburg; grand senior warden, John M. Williams, Eugene; grand scribe, E. E. Shanley, Portland; grand treasurer, W. W. Francis, Albany; grand representative, H. M. Beckwith, Portland; grand marshal, G. P. Rickett, Harrisburg; grand sentinel, Dr. G. A. Pogue, Ontario; grand outside sentinel, J. S. Lawrence, Coquille.

The Rebeckah Assembly convened in Odd Fellows hall this morning with Grand President Mrs. Emma Galloway, presiding. The assembly degree was conferred upon 186 new members this forenoon and upon 50 this afternoon. This was the only business of the day, aside from the appointment of temporary committees.

Is Mountain Climbing Necessary to Reduce Fat? A few years ago the physician would have said yes, but today less expensive, less strenuous and less dangerous methods are employed. So well understood has this distressing condition become that one can literally sit in an easy chair at home or at a well supplied dinner table and reduce excess fat at the rate of one-half to one pound a day, without previously going to any greater exertion than a visit to the drug store.

Any druggist can supply a perfect fat reducer at a moment's notice at a cost of only a few cents. His best receipt is one ounce Marmola, one-half ounce fluid extract Cascara Aromatica, and three and one-half ounces Syrup Simplex. A teaspoonful taken after meals and at bed time will do more for a fat man or woman in a shorter space of time and far more safely than all the exercise and dieting one could crowd into a summer's vacation.
