EUGENE LAUNDRYMAN RECOVERS DAMAGES

E. L. Fisher, the Eugene laundryman, who sued Charles F. Harpster for $402 damages for causing him, so he alleged, to lose a piece of worthless land under the representation that he was getting a valuable tract of timber, was awarded the puzzling verdict of $223. Itemized, Fisher's claim was $250 which he paid Harpster for the "tip" to the land; $72 for cruiser's fee and $89 expenses in making the trip to the land and loss of time at his business. By what process of mathematics a verdict of $223 was arrived at the wacraes about the courthouse have been unable yet to figure out. Harpster's attorneys, Cardwell & Watson, presented a motion for a new trial this morning, but it was overruled by Judge Harris. Notice of a bill of exceptions was then given. The case will probably be appealed to the supreme court.—Roseburg Review.

WILL REMODEL FRONT OF BRICK BUILDING

R. M. Day will improve his property at seventh and Willamette streets.

R. M. Day, who owns the two-story brick building occupied by the Day & Henderson furniture store at the corner of seventh and Willamette streets, has ordered the material for remodeling the front of the building and making out of it an up-to-date place of business. He will have forty feet of plate glass put in on the seventh street side of the building, and will replace the old glass front on Willamette street with modern show windows. It is said that some other line of business will occupy the building, or a portion of it, when the improvements are completed, but just what it is or who the tenant will be has not been given out for publication.

SERIOUS RIOT OVER CLEVELAND STRIKE

Cleveland, May 19.—The most serious violence of the street car strike which has been on here since Sunday occurred in Lakewood, a suburb, tonight, when four men were wounded by bullets, one car burned and another practically wrecked. Trouble had been anticipated and the first car run into Lakewood carried no passengers. When it stopped before the railway bridge, the crowd, which had been lying in wait, leaped from their hiding places and opened fire upon the crew and the guards. Two guards returned the fire, more than thirty shots being exchanged. While the shooting was in progress the crowd grew to nearly a thousand. Another car arrived and the crew joined in the fight. Gasoline was poured on the second car and it was burned to the trucks. The Cleveland police were notified and sixty officers were sent to the scene. The first car was riddled with bullets, and with windows broken proceeded to the barn. Motorman Elholz was shot in the leg; John Gray and J. Alvanter, guards on the second car, were shot in the chest, and Mace Durlingame, who was in the crowd which made the attack, was shot in the hand.
