To-Night and All Week
THE EMPIRE STOCK CO.

Presenting all week the great New York Comedy Success
"The Millionaire"

Illustrated songs between acts and the greatest of Moving Picture Films
"Uncle Tom's Cabin"

Curtain rises at 8 p. m.—Saturdays 7:30 and 9 p. m.
Admission 10c and 20c—Reserved Seats 50c

AMUSEMENTS
All next week at the Orpheum theatre "My Sweetheart" will be the play presented by the Empire Stock Company. This beautiful play is the one in which Mrs. Fisk made her first great success. The play is in four acts and is cleverly written, and a number of fine stage settings are being prepared for this production. "The Millionaire," which is pleasing good-sized audiences each night at the Orpheum, will continue for the remainder of the week, and tonight the Orpheum's popular balladist, Harry Hopkins, will sing a new illustrated song, entitled, "The Silent Violin." The curtain rises each evening at 8:15, there being only one show each night except on Saturday nights, when two performances will be given, the first starting at 7:30 and the second at 9. There will also be a matinee each Saturday afternoon at 2:30.
