mal School, has accepted a position in the Divinity School at Eugene. The students in his department have appreciated his work with them, and regret his leaving.—Ashland Tidings.

Four of the O. A. C. students who were here yesterday to see the track meet, left this forenoon in two canoes down the river for Corvallis, expecting to make the trip in nine or ten hours. They are: Davolt, the distance runner, R. E. Reynolds, J. M. Reynolds and R. K. Brodie.

The contest case of Viola E. Wiles against Henry F. Miller, over a homestead entry near Crow, has been decided, cancelling the homestead filing. The contestant is allowed 30 days in which to file an entry of the land in dispute. L. M. Travis and T. N. Harbaugh represented the contestant.

George Fisher was today appointed administrator of the estate of his son, Evert, who was run over and killed by a Southern Pacific engine in the gravel pit across the river from Eugene on September 30, 1906. The estate consists of a claim against the company for $750. W. M. Renshaw, J. C. Watkins and H. F. Holtenbeck were appointed appraisers.

The old building formerly on the I. O. O. F. lot on East Ninth street crossed the pavement at the intersection of East Eighth and Oak streets yesterday and there is a depression in the pavement about an inch deep and two or three inches wide, caused by an iron rim on the edge of one of the rollers. The immense weight of the building was too much and the iron rim cut right into the pavement.

On account of the burning of a bridge in Douglas county last night the northbound overland passenger train, due here between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning did not arrive till about 9:20 o'clock, coming in two sections. About a hundred passengers breakfasted here, a majority of them eating at the Hotel Gross. Many of them, however, came on down town and ate at the Theatre Cafe, the Hotel Smeede and the several lunch places.

A. C. Dixon, of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, returned last night from Washington, D. C., and other points in the East. He went to Washington for the purpose of representing his company in the lumber rate cases before the interstate commerce commission, which are now under consideration by that body. He reports conditions in the East as improving, and says Oregon still looks better to him than any other state he has passed through.
