G A R AND W R C ATTENDED CHURCH YESTERDAY

The members of J. W. Geary Post No. 7, G. A. R., and of J. W. Geary corps, W. R. C., attended memorial services at the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday forenoon and listened to a splendid sermon by Rev. W. B. Pinkerton, pastor of the Congregational church. The house of worship was crowded and the interior was beautifully and appropriately decorated for the occasion. There was special music for the services, which were very impressive and interesting. The sermon by Rev. W. B. Pinkerton was excellent and was listened to with rapt attention by the old soldiers, the ladies of the W. R. C. and others whose good fortune it was to be present.

COUNCIL TO DISCUSS IMPORTANT MATTERS

The city council meets in special session tonight. There are several matters to come up for consideration, among them being the ordinance ordering streets paved, the petitions having been presented at a meeting a week ago. The streets are: West Eighth, from Charnelton to Blair; East Fifth, from Willamette to Oak; Tenth, from Olive to Oak, and several other short stretches. The matter of the purchase of the Willamette Valley Water Comuany's plant by the city will also probably come up and a contract covering the sale is expected to be produced.

BOUND OVER TO COURT ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Walter Birmingham, who lives three miles northwest of Eugene, was examined before Judge Bryson of the justice court this afternoon, being charged with the seduction of Erma Miller, of this city, who is now a ward of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society at Portland. After the testimony of several witnesses, including the girl, was heard, Judge Bryson concluded that it was sufficient to warrant him in binding Birmingham over to the circuit court and his bail was fixed at $600.

PRIEST STABBED BY INSANE MAN

Salisbury, Mo., May 24.—Rev. Father Joseph Lubeley, aged 33 years, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church of Salisbury, was stabbed twice with a pocket knife and perhaps fatally injured in a church this morning by Joseph Schuette, a prosperous farmer, living near here, who is believed to have become suddenly demented.

The stabbing occurred in front of 400 worshippers, many of them women. The injured priest was taken to a nearby residence, where his wounds were attended to by physicians. His condition is critical.

KILLED IN COLLISION BY TROLLEY CARS

San Francisco, May 24.—Two crowded trolley cars collided at Devisadero and Sacramento streets at the foot of a steep hill shortly after noon today, killing Henry Baer, a traveling salesman, and injuring 20 others, one fatally and several seriously. The injured were taken to St. Francis' hospital, near the scene of the accident, where it is believed all excepting one, a child, will recover.

The car on Devisadero street got beyond control of the motorman and dashed down the hill with terrific speed, striking the Sacramento street car just as it rounded the curve onto Devisadero street.

Insist upon DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is especially good for piles. Sold by all druggists.

At Portland yesterday morning, insane from jealousy and the refusal of Mrs. Daisey Hickey to elope with him, J. Edward Blum shot the woman twice through the head and then blew out his own brains with the weapon, a .38 calibre revolver. The tragedy occurred in the woman's room in the LaPorte lodging house, Third and Yamhill streets, at 11:30 o'clock. Blum was a driver and Mrs. Hickey a domestic in the lodging house. Several years ago at Troutdale, Or., Blum's attention to the woman caused a separation from her husband.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Sometimes a reformer is simply a man who didn't get in on the game.

An upright life is inevitably followed sooner or later by a downright death.

It is no evidence that there is no good side to a man because he can't make good

If Mr. Roosevelt's views on the race suicide question were to become popular, who would take care of the pug doggies?

There probably isn't any use in borrowing trouble; but, then, some people just have to borrow something.

Prosperity is in the main a relative thing, and we are all dead anxious to have it relate to us.

When we think our neighbor is getting his just reward, he sometimes seems inclined to think that he is paying a penalty.

When the devil forgets you it is time for you to do some hard thinking. Perhaps he is trusting you entirely to look out for him.

Most girls think that too much waist is a waste of good material.

Spring Affliction.

Hear them noises
In your head,
Like a fish peddler
Trying to wake up
A deaf and dumb customer?
Feel that funny business
In your blood
That makes you want to go fishing
Or nowhere,
Just so
It's somewhere?
Don't call a doctor,
It ain't no serious
Symptoms.
Them noises
And feelings
Is the call of the soil—
Wants you to come back
And make your living
Farming
As in the good old days.
You see yourself
Following the plow,
Feeling the breath of spring
In your nostrils
And swearing at the off mule,
And, say,
It seems bully—
At peace with the world,
And no store bills
To pay till fall.
You see your wife
In a sunbonnet
Chasing the pesky hen
That wants to set
Too previously.
You see the kids
Going off to the red schoolhouse
Where you was taught,
And it is all fine.
Don't worry.
You'll get over it
Before you quit your job
And start to tackle
The heavy lifting.

Surprised Him.

"I made a great hit with these new clothes."

"With whom?"

"My tailor. Paid cash."

Couldn't Swear.

"That must be an old grouch. I asked him what was the matter with his hand, and he never said a word."

"That fellow with his hand in a sling?"

"Yes."

"He is a deaf and dumb man who stepped on a tack yesterday and dislocated three fingers trying to express himself."

No Proof.

He bought a block of mining stock,
Which wasn't any sign
That somewhere on this fruitful earth
There was a paying mine.

Plain Diet.

"What is the matter with Banker Jones? He looks worried."

"I hear he has a lot of undigested securities."

"Why don't he cut out them fancy dishes and stick to pie?"

Same Family.

"I am extraordinarily fond of fiction."

"Yes, I know."

"Why, I never told you, did I?"

"Well, you said you like compliments."

Method.

"He is always making a play for sympathy."

"Yes, and I notice that he wants a silver plate on it a dollar thick too."

Quantity, Not Quality.

"Every man has his hobby."

"Yes, and Brown has a dozen."

"Oh, well, you can't blame him, considering the kind."

Could Look Wise.

"Spindler is running for judge."

"Is he qualified?"

"Sure! He has a pair of spectacles."
