

CASTORIA

Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been used for over 30 years, has borne the nature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION COMMITTEE

EUGENE WILL CELEBRATE THE NATION'S BIRTHDAY IN FITTING MANNER—COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL HAVE CHARGE OF AFFAIR—PRESIDENT WILLIAMS NAMES COMMITTEEMEN

President Charles S. Williams, of the Commercial Club, last night appointed a committee as follows on general arrangements for a Fourth of July celebration in Eugene this year: Alton Hampton, W. A. Bell, Elmer Roberts, Drew Griffin and Frank Glistrap.

The committee will organize at once and begin preliminary arrangements for one of the best celebrations in the history of the city. While no definite plans have been decided upon by the committee, it is understood that the members are figuring upon a number of new features that have never before been seen in this part of the state. The celebration last year was a partial failure because of the lack of enough amusements and because of the poor showing made by the parade, but this year's committee promises the people something much better than for a long time. In justice to last year's committee it must be said that it did the best it could with the limited means at hand for the purpose.

Everybody should take an interest in the coming celebration, and should not fail to respond liberally to the committee's appeal for funds when the time comes.

GOULD LIVELY, FEED AND SALES STABLES

Having purchased the Gilbert feed stables on West Fifth street, near Willamette, we intend to conduct a first-class livery, feed and sales stable. We are prepared to furnish good teams and ladies' saddle horses on short notice.

Our prices will be found reasonable and our treatment of the public courteous and obliging.

Having had much experience in the livery business we know how to conduct such an establishment in a first-class manner. We respectfully solicit a share of your patronage.

U. O. TENNIS TEAM GOES NORTH TONIGHT

Gerald Eastham and Charles MacSnow, both from Portland, won out in the finals of the tennis tournament at the University this morning in the tournament to choose the representative for the team of doubles to meet the Universities of Washington and Idaho, Washington State College and Whitman College Friday and Saturday, and leave tonight for Seattle, where the final games will be played. Ronald McKenzie, in the same tournament, won the championship in singles, but will not make the trip, as only two men may go.

MacSnow will play in the singles. Eastham and he the doubles. Oregon is said to rank well among tennis players in the Northwest, and the enthusiasts in tennis will watch the showing made with interest.

The University track team also holds its triangular track meet Saturday at Seattle. The late "ate oratorical contest will be held Saturday night at the University of Washington. Orators will be there to contest from the state universities of Idaho, Washington and Oregon. Jesse G. Bond represents Oregon.

How It Grows.

A personal adventure.
A tale of love or stress,
Related ten years later,
Does not thereby grow less.
The fellow who retails it,
About himself takes care
To see that it is pleasing,
Embellishment is there.

Perhaps he had occasion
Some sensible man to tick
Who played on him a hateful
And most unlovely trick.
But when he has to view it
Across of years a span
He'll have it in his opinion
Was twice as large a man.

Or maybe in a contest
To win a lovely lass
Good fortune went against him
And sent his hopes to grass.
But when to time his rags
Have turned to gray from brown
His version of the story
Will say he turned her down.

It's only human nature
For men at later date
To make themselves the heroes,
The auro enough near gate.
If they were ever vanquished,
If humbled was their pride,
They've soon forgot it
And tell the other side.

That's All.

When skies are gray
And joy's away
And sorrow by you sit,
When grim despair
And earling care
Your presence never quit,
When hot and cold
Your head you hold
Don't let your courage drip,
But buck up strong
And jog along—
You've only got the grip.

Either Will Do It.

"I have some corning laugh producers here."
"Which?"
"What do you mean?"
"Real jokes or real money?"

How He Knew.

"Do you believe in phrenology?"
"There is nothing in it."
"How do you know? The professor must have been feeling of your head."

Pauper Pay.

"THIRTY CENTS!"
"What for?"
"For the eggs for fifteen cents. Perhaps you think it funny. But still, we don't see how the hens can lay them for the money."

Warning.

In stopping at a street hotel,
When you retire to rest at night,
Before you tumble into bed,
Don't blow out the electric light.

The woman whose house never is dusty doesn't belong to the Shake-speare club.

You know when some people have been vaccinated with tainted money, for they have the dollar sign to show for it.

So Unusual.

"Something queer about John."
"Think he is a little bit off?"
"Well, I heard him say that he was satisfied with his wages."

CURE BY CUTICURA AT CITY MISSION

Young Woman Found in Awful Condition with Scabies—Body a Mass of Sores from Scratching—Tried Many Remedies for Seven Weeks—Result Was Discouraging, but

ITCHING TORTURES YIELDED TO CUTICURA

"While I was doing missionary work in the lower portion of several cities I found it necessary to know a little of the efficacy of a few medicines and after a while I found that a little knowledge of Cuticura was about all I needed. One of the very bad cases I had to deal with was that of a young woman who had come to us not only broken in spirit but in a most awful condition physically. Our doctor examined her and told us that she had scabies (the itch), impetigo parvula, rheumatism, etc., brought on from exposure and the effects of her ragged-edged life. Her poor body was a mass of sores from scratching and she was not able to retain solid food. We tried many things, a good tonic was prescribed and baths with a rubbing of lard and sulphur. We worked hard for seven weeks and you can imagine how discouraged we were when, after all that time, we could see no little improvement. One day I happened to see a Cuticura advertisement telling how a little baby had been cured of a bad case of skin eruption, and although I had long since given up when I saw that in exactly five weeks this young woman was able to look for a position, being strong enough to work and full of ambition. In another month she left the home, and now has a good position in a nice family where she is respected and is strong and well. You may refer any one you wish to me personally.
