SHERIFFS' NEW PLAN TO PREVENT CRIME

Humanitarians and others with keen sensibilities may have a bone to pick with the sheriff at Pottsville, Pa., who recently invited a large number of foreigners to witness the hanging of a man from Poland who had been sentenced to die for murder. It was the purpose of the Pottsville official to teach by object lesson what happened to homicides under the laws of the Keystone state.

There has been a decided tendency within recent years to exclude the public from executions of criminals and allow the newspapers to supply the necessary details of such affairs. This is probably quite correct in theory but the Los Angeles Express thinks there is a certain percentage of the American population of recent importation and education, which cannot take advantage of such excellent avenues of publicity, and many of these persons need enlightenment as to American views on the too ready use of implements of destruction and the code of revenge which prevails in some foreign countries. Witnessing a hanging is possibly the best means for such enlightenment.

In addition, the sheriff of Pottsville is carrying out the ideas of penologists, who contend that the purpose of executions is not so much the punishment of the criminal as it is a preventative measure intended to deter others from committing similar crimes. In this case his procedure is well calculated to diminish violence in that section of Pennsylvania.

"The cat came back" was forcibly and sorrowfully brought to the mind of a certain Gothamite who bet $25 that he could lose his friend's cat so that it would never return. The bet was a sporting one, for every kind of an attempt had been made to lose the grimalkin. Once the cat was dropped from High bridge, but it swam down the river to Port Morris and from there walked back to its master's house. After the bet was made the other day the cat was taken to Blackwell's Island with the understanding that the money was to go to the Gothamite if the cat did not return by 4:30 p. m. the following Sunday. It was 4 p. m. to the minute on Sunday that the cat turned up at her old home.

It is announced, on good authority, that the Hamburg-American and Cunard companies will establish direct lines of steamships between Europe and San Francisco as soon as the Panama canal is opened for traffic, and that the rate for steerage passengers will be but $4 or $5 more to San Francisco than to New York. Presumably cabin passengers will be in like proportion, and also freight charges, so one effect of the canal will be to greatly reduce transportation charges between the Pacific coast and Europe, compared with those now prevailing, by way of New York.

Now they are booming Governor Chamberlain for vice president on the Bryan ticket. Well, if George wants it he will get there—you can't keep him—and while he can't orate like Billy, he can give him pointers on rolling up votes on election day. Parrish, Withycombe, Cake and a few others are ready to back this statement with their affidavits.

Boston has the greatest living ex-Mayor—a man who for four years successfully held down four jobs, none of them political.

Chauncey Depew got in bad with the "drys" when he said that "moderation" from overeating than from overdrinking, and the "dry" ribbonites are on the trail with a supply of hot brimstone. How chagrined! And he who is coming to Eugene he was really dry.

The wise commencement orator who told a bunch of sweet girl graduates that this country will be a woman's country will have to tell them all of us which of the poet remarks was not.

After the Chicago convention has been stampeded to Roosevelt, the stampeders will move on to Denver and make the thing unanimous. Accent on the "after," please.

Oh, no; the Standard Oil press bureau has nothing to do with these stories that oil will soon be used for fuel on all the battleships of the world.

The O. A. C. students voted and worked against the U. of O appropriation, but like their athletic endeavors, they failed to score very heavily.

ELECTION NOTES

Sheriff Smith was the only Democrat elected to county office in Linn, but they got the members of the legislature and carried the county for Chamberlain.

Linn goes about 1200 against the University appropriation; Tillamook, 122; Yamhill, 700; Clackamas, 400; Washington, a few hundred and Benton about the same. Marion, 1500. The appropriation carries Jackson, Josephine, Douglas, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Multnomah (by 8500), Coos, Wasco, Wheeler, Umatilla, Baker and probably all the other Eastern Oregon counties except Wallowa. The vote in the state outside of Multnomah will be close.

The U. of O. appropriation bill is defeated in Linn county by 1000 to to 1500 votes. Some precincts have voted almost solidly against it. In Kingston, for instance, there was only 1 vote for it and 47 against. In Tallman there were only 7 for it. This was Eugene Palmer's precinct. He declares that three of these were mistakes.—Democrat.

In Benton county the Republicans elected Gellatly sheriff, Hawley commissioner, Mack superintendent, Newton recorder, Wilker surveyor, Bovee coroner; the Democrats Moses clerk, Buchanan treasurer, and Richards assessor. B. F. Jones will be joint representative of Polk and Lincoln.

Clatsop county, Senator Fulton's home, gave Chamberlain 300 over Cake.

Congressman Hawley has a majority of over 15,000 and Ellis as much in the second district, indicating about 30,000 Republican majority, which is about Bailey's majority.

ELMIRA ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)

Elmira, June 2.—Every one in this neighborhood is rejoicing that the county has gone dry and we will have two more years of peace and prosperity.

Harry Bown got 67 votes and Griffin 10 in this precinct.

The meeting at the Baptist church closed on Sunday, having lasted for three weeks.

Charles Gilson, of McMinnville, came up on Friday and stayed over Decoration day.

Mrs. Arvilla Duckworth and Miss Vesta Hale have been visiting friends and relatives at Marcola.

Quite a number from Elmira attended the meetings at Franklin on Sunday.

The Odd Fellows organized a lodge at Elmira on Saturday night, May 30. There were several members from Eugene, Irving, Junction, Crow and surrounding places.

The two Hoyts' show have their tents stretched in our burg.

Rev. Olson delivered a very interesting address on local option on last Friday night.

HERE'S THE PROOF

But Besides Catarrh Hyomei Cures Grip, Coughs and Colds, Croup And Asthma

Read, if you are a sufferer from catarrh, reason and reflect:

"My wife and I will swear that Hyomei cured me of the worst case of catarrh that ever existed. I used to cough constantly at night, and had a dropping in the throat, which kept me awake a great deal. I raised thick phlegm, and was in a horrible condition. However, I am entirely cured, solely through the use of Hyomei."

Dr. Phillip Z. Hart, Laconia, N. H.

Reader, this is one of thousands of testimonials praising the marvellous curative power of Hyomei. If you are a sufferer, why not try it? The Red Cross Drug Company guarantees it, and will refund your money if it fails to cure. Hyomei is not a stomach nostrum. It is a dry antiseptic and medicated air, and all you have to do to cure any disease of the nose, throat and lungs is to breathe it in through the Hyomei inhaler. A Hyomei outfit, including a scientific inhaler, only costs $1.00. Get one today. Subsequent treatment is only 50 cents a bottle. Get one now. The Red Cross Drug Company takes all the risk. They guarantee it.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve Wins

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot, and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25-cent box won the day for me. No effort is required to get permanent cures with this matchless salve." Sold under guarantee at E. A. Stadelman's drug store.

"MERRY WIDOW" WALTZ ON AN ELEPHANT.

A Viennese vaudeville team has evolved the novel idea of doing the "Merry Widow" waltz on an elephant. The waltzers are confined to very close quarters, as will be noted in the picture, but the "turn" has met with popular favor and probably will be seen in America before a great while.

THE WIDTH OF A SMILE.

This is a statistical age. Everything nowadays must be reduced to the average of tabulated figures.

Following this disposition, an inquiring Englishman with a genius for figures has been devoting himself to the statistics of smiles. Naturally he finds the smiles of women the more interesting study.

On an average, he says, a woman's mouth is stretched a half inch each time she smiles. He allows her thirty-six smiles a day—a fair average—and, according to this computation, the temporary extensions of her lips amount to the total of eighteen inches.

Very good indeed!

Pursuing these statistics, one can easily figure that in an entire year the average woman's face would be wreathed and twisted into more than 182 yards of sunny, winsome smiles. And that is going some.

This presumably accurate estimate, however, it must be remembered, takes no account of variations. You see, there are some women who do not smile more than the sixteenth part of an inch at one attempt. And some of them do not make the attempt more than thirty-six times a month. Their smiles are stingy and therefore difficult to measure. Besides, they are the smiles that come off.

Other gracious ones smile easily and often—all over their faces. Most anything good will set their bonny lips to stretching and their dimples to dancing accompaniment to laughing eyes. Your English expert cannot measure the aggregate length of their smiles. Not on your life. That sort of smiles stretch leagues of happy laughter.

And there are some men also who can do a good job of smiling. The convulsion of mirth starts somewhere down in the region of the diaphram, creeps upward until it spreads all over the jolly countenance. Such smiles are somewhat less than a rod in length. They need no eulogy.

Note, for instance, those types of hearty, irrepressible, generous, wide open smiles by Theodore Roosevelt and William J. Bryan.

Let your Englishman tackle them.

Half an inch?

Why, they are as wide as a barn door.

Applying the Englishman's measurements, Bryan and Roosevelt smile hugely and without mental reservation seventeen miles a day.
