

SOCIETY

Mrs. Robertson, from Honolulu, who has been visiting here for a number of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith, is to leave in a day or so for her home. During her stay here she has been the recipient of much social attention. On last Friday afternoon Mrs. Smith, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Whitson, entertained in her honor. During the course of the afternoon the hostess introduced a "perception" contest as a diversion from needle work. In this contest the prize was awarded to Mrs. H. D. Sheldon. The guests were: Mrs. C. S. Freeland, Mrs. Geo. T. Hall, Sr., Mrs. F. W. Osburn, Mrs. John Strain, Mrs. F. J. Hardy, Mrs. J. M. Glen, Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, Mrs. George M. Miller, Mrs. C. D. Emmons, Mrs. James F. Robinson, Mrs. Geo. O'B. DeBar, Mrs. Jack Willoughby, Mrs. Calvin Hanna, Mrs. R. H. Dearborn, Mrs. M. E. Watson.

Mrs. L. M. Travis, Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. C. B. Willoughby were hostesses at a silver tea on Wednesday afternoon, given at the home of Mrs. Travis. It was both a social and financial success, owing to the large number in attendance. A dainty luncheon was served in the dining room, where the color scheme of yellow was prettily carried out. Pink predominated in the drawing room, where large bunches of pink roses were used to advantage.

Mrs. M. E. Watson entertained the members of the Rhoda Kahn Club with an elegant eight-course dinner on last Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The dining room was beautifully decorated with crepe paper and flowers in the University colors. Miss Catherine Watson and Miss Echo Hawk assisted the hostess in serving. The guests were: Messrs. Morgan, Watson, Austin, Farrington, Harper Jamison, Sam Robinson, Will Mott, Sam Davidson, Henkel and McKenzie.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Lischen Miller entertained a few of her friends very informally at her home on the hillside of East Eugene. Among the guests was Mrs. W. S.

Gilbert, of Astoria, who formerly resided here.

Mrs. A. T. Cockerline was hostess to the Sunshine Club on Friday afternoon. The Mesdames C. M. Elspass, Emma Johnson, W. G. Gilstrap and Sibel Kuykendall Smith were invited guests for the afternoon. Miss Winifred Cockerline assisted her mother in serving refreshments.

Later the hostess served a dainty luncheon.

The former friends of Mrs. W. S. Gilbert were glad of the opportunity given them to again meet her on Friday afternoon at the home of the Mesdames Emma and Nettie Chase. Tea was passed by Mrs. Alice Ross and little Margery Gilbert passed dainty tea cakes.

Mrs. Martha Chambers was the complimentary guest at an informal gathering this afternoon at the home

On last Monday evening Miss Margie Young was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower given for her by

GABRIELLE RAY, LONDON STAGE FAVORITE.

Few actresses are more popular in London than Miss Gabrielle Ray. She is one of the most beautiful women on the stage and possesses rare talent in her line of work. It was recently reported that she was engaged to the Earl of Stanhope.

of Mrs. Fred Chambers. The guests Mrs. Muth. Each of the twenty guests passed a very pleasant afternoon with brought some useful articles for their needle work and conversation, kitchen, and Miss Margie was requested to guess the name of these articles by accompanying rhymes. This caused much amusement. The remainder of the evening was passed delightfully with music and refreshments.

The Mesdames Mary and Ensl Barker were hostesses this afternoon at a handkerchief shower for Miss Idah Hendershott. The guests were fifteen of the high school girls, who made the afternoon merry with games and music, followed by a supper. Miss Vera Auten assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Mrs. W. W. Brown invited a number of the teachers in today to pass the afternoon with her at their needle work. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Therese Jackson, in serving lunch. The guests were: Miss Ida Patterson, Mrs. Blanche Thurston, Miss Mertle Auten, Miss Nettie Kress, Miss Fannie Milligan, Miss Belle Keeney, Miss Fannie Zeigler, Miss Mabel Simmons, Miss Mae Kinsey, the Mesdames Abel, Mrs. Charles Freeland, Mrs. Albert Thrall.

The song recital given at Villard hall on Thursday evening by the pupils of Mrs. Katherine Ward Pope, under the auspices of the University of Oregon School of Music, proved to Eugene that we have some vocalists of no mean ability. Villard hall was filled with an extremely appreciative audience, as was witnessed by the beautiful flowers and the pianists. The accompaniment work of Miss Alberta Campbell and the instrumental solo of Miss Josale Fariss are deserving of special mention, as is the work of each of the vocalists. The rich contralto voice of Miss Louise Yoran was heard to advantage in three numbers, but especially in her second number, "Rose in the Bud." Miss Lila Prosser has a pure, sweet soprano voice, and she uses it excellently. A new voice to a Eugene audience was that of Mr. Ralph Dodson, but which we hope we shall hear again. Mrs. Pope is to be congratulated upon the excellent showing made by her pupils.

Young-Knowles
On Thursday afternoon, June 4, at 3 o'clock, the wedding of Miss Margie Young and Mr. Archie Knowles was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Young, Rev. O. C. Wright officiating. The bride wore a dainty gown of white net over white organdie, and carried a showed bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Charlotte Young, as bridesmaid, also wearing white. The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by his brother, Mr. Silas Knowles, as best man. Miss Florence Andrews, of Minnesota, played the wedding march. The ceremony took place 'neath a net filled with ferns and white roses, making a beautiful bower. Immediately following the ceremony a luncheon was served to the guests, who numbered between 50 and 60. When the bride's cake was cut Miss Elizabeth Howe drew the thimble, Miss Nancy Pollock the ring, and the coin went to the bridegroom himself. Miss Rhoda Green caught the bride's bouquet.

Harris-Wilson
On the evening of June 3 the First Christian church was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Miss Young Margaret Wilson became the bride of Dr. M. C. Harris. The altar was heavily banked with greens mingled with white roses. Promptly at the appointed hour Miss Daisy Gilbert sang softly Bohm's "Still as Night." As Miss Mary McCracken played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin Rev. H. N. Mount met at the altar the groom and his best man, Mr. C. P. Deveraux, where they awaited the coming of the bride, preceded by Miss Belle Van Duyn as bridesmaid. Rev. Mr. Mount pronounced the impressive ring service and presented Dr. and Mrs. Harris to the assembled group of relatives and intimate friends. After congratulations the couple went to the home prepared by the groom at 538 Jefferson street, where they were at home to their many friends after July 1st. The bride was becomingly gowned in pure white batiste, with trimmings of Valenciennes lace and white ribbon. She wore a veil held in place by lilies of the valley, and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and asparagus ferns. The bridesmaid's gown was pink batiste, with Valenciennes lace. She wore a white picture hat with tiny pink roses and carried pink carnations and ferns. Messrs. F. A. Tripp, A. W. Livermore, R. C. Gray and Charles Watts acted as ushers. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shortridge, grandparents of the groom, and Mrs. L. C. Martin, his sister.

Earl Kilpatrick was given a pleasant surprise party at the home of Mrs. Faubian on East Twelfth street Wednesday evening after the University rally. The surprise was prepared by the boys' clubs, of which he is a leader. About fourteen older students were present. Refreshments were served.

The Boys' Dorm Club last night gave a pleasant informal dance to a number of their friends in their reception hall. Mrs. Church served the refreshments.

A charming surprise June luncheon was given for Mrs. A. C. Terrill on Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. David Link as hostess. The living room and the dining room made a charming scene, being one mass of roses. A delicious three-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Wetherbee, in the dining room, where pink was the predominating color. The guests were: The Mesdames Archie Livermore, Robert McMurphy, Frank Wetherbee, Will Yoran, A. E. Wheeler, C. B. Willoughby, David Linn, W. G. Allen, S. D. Read, R. S. Bryson, O. A. Stillman, W. B. Pinkerton, G. E. Metcalf, H. L. Studley, W. C. Barbour and Miss Nellie Loomis.
