THE HORSE SHOW AND MARKET DAY JUNE TWENTY

To let our readers know with whom they are dealing and who the people are that are inaugurating Eugene's first annual horse show parade and first monthly market day, it being the Messrs. Colgate and Zimmerman's intention to hold a regular market day every month, we will state that James B. Colgate is a grandson of James B. Colgate, of the great Colgate & Company's soaps and perfumes, of New York city, who was also president of the gold exchange, and Colgate Seminary, of Hamilton, N. Y., being named after him. He left $1,000,000 to that institution. He died about four years ago, leaving his millions, Jas. B. Colgate, who is in Eugene now, being one of his favorite heirs. He is about 25 years old, and is one of the most unassuming and modest young men in the world. He has his hobbies, however—a fine string of horses and a little fun and excitement. Mr. Colgate's father, Wm. Hoyt Colgate, is one of the prominent residents of Portland, also maintaining a residence in New York. So our readers may know that they are dealing with people up in "G."

Associated with Mr. Colgate is Max Zimmerman, an old-time family friend of the Colgates, and is now making a tour of the Northwest combining business with pleasure. He is known as the Blue Ribbon auctioneer of the Northwest, having gained this distinction at North Yakima, Wash., where he sold at the N. P. stock yards last fall 76 fancy heavy unbroken draft mares in an hour and a half, the prices ranging from $225 to $450, pretty good prices for young unbroken horses. So it pays the farmers to raise the best. The following are a few press notices from Seattle and Bismark, N. D., regarding Mr. Zimmerman:

Seattle Times: Max Zimmerman, of St. Paul, one of the best known horse auctioneers in the Middle West, if not in the United States, and whose reputation as an auctioneer is a national one, has decided that the Northwest offers better inducements in his line than any other part of the country and has come here to locate. Bismark Tribune: Max Zimmerman is the best-natured and most capable auctioneer in the Northwest, whose "ballyhooing" is worth going miles to hear. Farmers, you will have a rare entertainment, besides big bargains, on his market days. Mr. Zimmerman is a brother of Zimmerman, of Barrett & Zimmerman, of Midway, St. Paul, Minn., America's greatest horse dealers. So this is enough said. A great time is promised in Eugene Saturday, June 20, a day to be remembered as one of Eugene's greatest business and pleasure events. The red booster cards show who the boosters are:

SUNSET MAGAZINE WILL BOOST OREGON

The Sunset Magazine, the Southern Pacific literary organ, will devote almost all its entire space to Oregon during the next six months, says J. H. O'Brien, the field manager of the party which has been in Eugene the past two days, canvassing and securing write-ups. The object of the magazine is to attract homeseekers to this section. California is full of immigrants attracted by the railroad's inducements, and the company wants to further the interests of Oregon to help business along.

The same Sunset party will have, it is probable, a special car from Spokane to Chicago. While working in the Middle West, as well as to secure subscriptions the purpose will be to endeavor to get homeseekers. Mr. O'Brien, whose home is at Roseburg, says that the Southern Pacific, directly and indirectly, gets $500 from every family in the state each year. The passenger department also keeps close track of all newcomers who enter the country over their roads, and has an adequate and complex system of keeping a line on them.

WILL OCCUPY DEPOT BY FIRST OF JULY

The new passenger depot will be occupied by the first of July at the present rate of progress of the workmen. Agent A. J. Gillette stated this morning that the plasterers would arrive Monday to finish up the walls of the structure. When the office is moved into the fine new home the present building will be placed as an annex to the freight depot. The remainder of Willamette street will then also be paved by the railroad company. When the platform is surfaced a "dead line" will be established, beyond which the hotel runners and the draymen will be forbidden to go. There will be no track on this side of the depot, either.

Bucklen's Arnica Stive Wins
Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot, and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25-cent box won the day for me by effecting a permanent cure." Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.

As a result of the heavy prohibition vote cast in Eastern Oregon counties last Monday the O. R. & N. railroad now traverses a "dry" stretch through Sherman, Gilliam, Morrow, Umatilla and Union counties, and the only place at which a thirsty traveler can now secure a drink in an open saloon between Portland and Baker City is at the Dalles, even Arlington, the strongest small saloon town in Eastern Oregon, going "dry" by a heavy vote.

COTTAGE GROVE
NEWS OF PAST FEW DAYS

The vote in the East Cottage Grove precinct this election rolled up to 463. Under the law, it is said that 300 votes to a precinct is the limit. For some time there has been some talk about dividing the precinct, creating a new one at Dorena. This is a matter that should be attended to. It is not only a great convenience to many voters to come to Cottage Grove to vote, but it works a hardship on the judges and clerks of election, in the matter of a two days' and night shift, say nothing of the long and unnecessary wait for the returns.

Mrs. Wm. Landess and daughter Laura will leave about the 15th inst. for Lone Rock, Eastern Oregon, where they expect to spend the summer, where Miss Laura is expected to grow back into health and strength. It will be remembered that a year ago she was in Idaho and there contracted pneumonia of the most fatal nature. Her strong vitality brought her through and she returned home. Since then she has been in delicate health and therefore the trip to Eastern Oregon. Her many friends wish for her speedy recovery.

The Stewart-Hinds block is now completed. Compton & Wallace, grocers, expect to occupy the corner room on or July 1, while the Burkholder-Woods Co., general merchandisers, will occupy the inside store room from their stock during the construction of their new wharf. Messrs. Stewart & Hinds have added a handsome monument so to speak for the growth, progressiveness and enterprise of Cottage Grove. Came 144 Miles to Vote.

Jerry Dammon, who has resided here for a number of years, but who recently has been employed in Portland, was sufficiently interested in election to come 144 miles to vote. He was shaking hands with friends in Cottage Grove last Monday.—Western Oregonian.
