MODERN WOODMEN HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

Graves of departed neighbors decorated yesterday — Sermon in the evening

Yesterday was annual memorial day for the Modern Woodmen of America, and fitting exercises were held by the local camp. At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon 75 or 80 of the members met at the hall and rode to the I. O. O. F. cemetery, where the graves of the departed neighbors, five in all, were decorated with flowers and the ritualistic services of the order were carried out. A committee was then appointed to go to the Masonic cemetery to decorate the grave of Neighbor Paul Green.

In the evening the Modern Woodmen met again and proceeded in a body to St. Mary's Episcopal church, where an excellent sermon was delivered by the rector, Rev. P. K. Hammond.
