AN INDEPENDENT PAPER. Member of Associated Press. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1908

MORE GROUND NEEDED ABOUT PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The matter of buying additional ground for the Geary school is being considered by the board, since there is now an opportunity to purchase adjoining land at a very reasonable price. This would seem a wise thing to do in view of the rapidly advancing values of Eugene real estate.

RAILROAD ACTIVITY HARBRINGER OF PROSPERITY

As the railroads were the first to fall into the financial slough of despond last fall, there should be loud rejoicing over the accumulating evidences of returning prosperity to the transportation companies. For example, the Los Angeles Express does the $196,000,000 bond issue of the Union Pacific which has just been arranged by Mr. Harriman.

A few months ago that gentleman patiently replied to a modest inquiry from a newspaper man: "Everybody is trying to finance the Union Pacific." He further declared the company only needed $25,000,000, but added that that amount would be doubled to resume development and put people at work.

A CONQUERING HERO.

The Latin and confederate do battle with each other back to yesterday in a patriotic contest at the high school. The contest was a grand success and the confederate team was defeated.

R. L. Polk & Company are engaged in compiling a new directory for Eugene which will be issued about the middle of the month. A directory is a valuable convenience to business men, but it is especially important in a city where a large publisher's concern in this line is recognized as a standard.

master receives a larger salary than that offered in Eugene, viz.: $2600 a year. These are the Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Astoria, Baker City, Salem, Aberdeen, Boring, North Yaluma and Walla Walla. In several of these the salary being less than $100 a year more than that received by Postmaster Sage.

According to a report filed in a report before the national committee, now sitting at Chicago, the state director of Kentucky has furnished and not furnish money which political frankness than any other state of the same size in the United States. When you think of some places that a good word is.

There is such a thing as having too much. For instance, how can we help suspecting that this election who talks of the dangers of inflation from using indulgence in paper is on the payroll of a booster or dealer?

Every dollar spent in public and private improvements in Eugene will bring many-fold returns in increased property values. It is this spirit that is building up a city here, and it should by all means be preserved.

Another campaign lie, is this story alleging that the door to Secretary Metcalf's private office had to be enlarged before Secretary Taft could call on him. If Taft had wanted Metcalf he would have sent for him.

As a Taft and Fairbanks ticket would be sure to be called a streak of fat and a streak of tears, time is hereby taken by the forelock. If the ticket fails to materialize, so much the worse for the ticket.

John Hays Hammond says he wants the nomination for vice president for business, not political reasons. Would that he meant to convey the idea that he was willing and able to buy it.

Had some four college boys, the son of Chancellor McCracken, of the New York University, said that the time of one-third of our college students was worse than wasted, what a howl would have gone up from the elect.

In discussing the "penney" postage on letters to England, which will go into effect next October, don't forget that a "penney" in England is the same as one cent here.

The bridges you have been making have more than equalled the number, probably because it knows it will have no more after the railroad but take the road.

Bliss for the market day, the commencement exercises and the Fourth of July celebration. Boost for everything and everybody—except the knocker.

Keep the town clean; keep the weeds and grass cut along the streets. To do this requires only a little work and no outlay of money.

Give his Satanic majesty his due, and don't forget that congress pulled off two filibusters and several real scappy filibusters.

Twenty thousand more freight cars in use this month than last. That's a sign for the prosperity league to make note of.

Williams' Kidney Pills. How you succeed your kidneys? Have you succeeded your nervous system and succeed trouble with your kidneys and bladder? Have you pains in the back, side, back, groin, or the feet? The physician's desire to cure you with his pills, but Williams' Kidney Pills will cure you. Williams' Kidney Pills, Chicago, Illinois.

LULU GLASER, COMIC OPERA STAR. Miss Glaser, who is one of the most popular comic opera singers in the country, is to write a book on stage life. In the ten years of her career she has had a varied experience, and her observations on the stage, its triumphs and disappointments, should make very interesting reading.

BE A BOOSTER ROOSTER

Do you know there's lots of people Sottin' round in every town, Growin' like a broody chicken, Knockin' every good thing down? Don't you be that kind of cattle, 'Cause they ain't no use on earth, You just be a booster rooster—grow 'em boost for all your worth. If your town needs boostin' boost 'er, Don't hold back and wait to see, If some other feller's willin'—

That's right in this country's free, No one's got a mortgage on it, it's Just yours as much as his. If your town is shy on boosters you Get in the boostin' biz, If things don't just come to suit you And the world seems kinder wrong, What's the matter with a boostin' Just to help the thing along? 'Cause if things should stop a-going You'd be in a sorry plight, You just keep that horn a-blowin' 'er, 'Cause it's with all our might, If you see some feller tryin' To make some boost go, An you can boost it up a trifle, That's your cue to let him know, That you're not a-going to knock it, Just because it ain't your 'shant, But you're going to boost a little, 'Cause he's got the best thing out, If you know some feller's fallin', Just let 'em, for you know, The same feller's not a-going to show, 'Cause your boost is on the water, 'Till it's with all our might, 'Till it's with all our might, 'Till it's with all our might, 'Till it's with all our might.

CONTRADICTIONS

What is the key to success?—Capitulation. When does a hen lay the longest?—When it is dead. What is the favorite word with a woman?—The last one. Why is it the easiest letter in the alphabet?—Because it is always in full. Where will you find love, wealth and health?—In the dictionary. What is it that will make a man go faster than anything else?—Checks. What is the difference between a glass of gin and one of water?—Ten cents. What is it that is always ready and very seldom wanted?—An old maid. Why is a fine lover and a show-maker alike?—Because they are true to the last. Why is the heaviest a half or full moon?—The half a full moon is as light as air.

Bucklen's Arnica Sive Wine

Tom Mosey, of Rural House 1, Columbia, Mo., writes: "I had a bad case of rheumatism on the outer of my foot, and could find nothing that would help it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Sive Wine. Less than half of a 25-cent box will do for me by applying a permanent cure." Sold by all druggists at W. A. Koenig's drug store.

WILLIAMS' KIDNEY PILLS

How you succeed your kidneys? Have you succeeded your nervous system and succeed trouble with your kidneys and bladder? Have you pains in the back, side, back, groin, or the feet? The physician's desire to cure you with his pills, but Williams' Kidney Pills will cure you. Williams' Kidney Pills, Chicago, Illinois.

DELICIOUS BANANA CREAM

This recipe is highly recommended by one of our correspondents; try it for dessert tomorrow. Peel five large bananas, rub smooth with five tablespoons of sugar. Add one cup sweet cream beaten to a stiff froth; then add one 1/2 package of Lemon JELL-O dissolved in 1 1/2 teaspoons of boiling water. Pour into mold and when cold garnish with candied cherries. Serve with whipped cream or any good pudding sauce. JELL-O is sold by all grocers at 10 cents per package.
