DEATH OF MRS. DANKS AT WALTERVILLE

(Special Correspondence.)

Walterville, June 11.—On Monday, June 8, the friends and relatives of Mrs. Ina Danks followed her remains to the Camp Creek cemetery, where she was laid to rest by the side of her infant son, who was buried last Saturday. Mrs. Danks was a beautiful young woman, of a cheerful, sunny disposition, a wife for three years, and was beloved by all who knew her. She leaves a sorrowing husband, father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. Deadmond, sister and brother, and a host of other relatives and friends. The grave was completely covered with floral offerings. There was an appropriate and instructive service at the Camp Creek church conducted by Rev. Champie, of the Divinity School.

Mrs. Polley, of Thurston, is visiting her son, Chris, and family.

Mr. Brubaker and Frank Deadmond are home from the Day logging camp.

Mrs. Sturtevant is now able to be up after an eight-weeks' stay in bed, from ulceration of the stomach. Dr. Johnson has been her constant medical attendant, and has brought her through this dangerous sickness successfully.

Drs. Bartle and Scafe were in the neighborhood last week attending Mrs. John Danks. But for all their skill, which is well known, death claimed her.

Mr. Williams, of the Eugene Divinity School, preached last Sunday, June 7, at the Walterville school-house. He is an earnest, interesting speaker, and we hope every man, woman and child in the neighborhood, who cares for Christian services, will come out to hear him June 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Jennings are rejoicing over the arrival of a nine-pound boy. Grandpa and Grandma Dovor think he's the very nicest ever. Mr. Stacey claims the grandship, as the little fellow arrived at their home, where Mr. and Mrs. Jennings have been boarding for several weeks. Mrs. Stacey being an experienced nurse.

PLEASANT HILL ITEMS

(Special Correspondence.)

Pleasant Hill, June 10.—The picnic Saturday was a great success, beautiful weather, large and orderly crowd, entertainment and refreshments better than expected. Everything contributed to the general satisfaction of all present.

Miss Ruby Bangman came down from Blue River Saturday after teaching a five-months' school at that place.

Professor Sherwood and brother Frank are spending a month in the Cascades.

Among the 100 or more people from Eugene at the picnic Saturday we noticed President Campbell and daughter, accompanied by Mesdames McIntosh and Church, T. G. Hendricks and F. L. Chambers.

Uncle John Shelley, accompanied by his son, P. N., and daughters, Mesdames Waring and Martin, left Sunday for a prolonged visit to Klison Springs.

The Salt Creek S. P. surveyors have made arrangements as heretofore to have their blacksmithing done at this place.

Professor Hunter, of the experiment station at Corvallis, addressed a small but intelligent and enthusiastic audience at the W. O. W. hall Monday night on important farm topics. Next day he visited several farms in the vicinity, recommending some changes, but commending methods of several progressive farmers. This kind of help from the department is much appreciated, and we hope may more often be extended in the future.

Franklin, June 11.—These bright sunny days and the meadows with their sweet-scented flowers, make us know that summer is at hand.

The protracted meetings at the Christian church, conducted by Rev. Emmons as evangelist, and the Franklin pastor, Rev. Stevens, as chorus director, closed Monday night, after weeks' services. Many souls were won to Christ and much good done.
