MAY TAKE CHILDREN AWAY FROM MOTHER

JUVENILE COURT LOOKING INTO MATTER OF WOMAN AND CHILDREN WHO WALKED FROM PORTLAND

The story in Tuesday's Guard about a woman and her four children walking all the way to Eugene from some point down the valley, carrying the two younger children and her effects in a push cart, called the attention of the officers of the juvenile court to the matter and they at once made an investigation. They found that the woman's name is Mrs. Lizzie Humphrey, and that she had come all the way from Portland, she said. The juvenile court had taken four of her children, two of whom had died since. She says she is the mother of fourteen children. She had with her when she arrived in Eugene Monday two boys, aged 14 and 17 years respectively, and two girls, one aged about two years and the other about five months old. This morning the two younger children were taken away from the woman, as it appeared that they were not being cared for properly, and they were turned over to Mrs. Geo. M. Kelly, of the juvenile court. This action called forth loud protest on the part of the woman, and some excitement was created on the streets by her objections to the procedure. Judge Carisman has cited her to appear before him at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning to show cause why a guardian should not be appointed for her children.

D. L. Cartmell, Henry Moore and T. H. Garrett, appraisers of the estate of Mrs. Emma E. Bray, deceased, today filed their inventory with the probate court. They found property valued at $1800. M. J. Harper, C. C. Hays and Edward Key, appraisers of the estate of Christian L. Winter, also filed their report, $3820.87 being the value they placed upon the property owned by the estate.

A telephone message from Leaburg this afternoon stated that Hon. T. G. Hendricks, the Eugene banker, who with his wife and daughter and J. S. Luckey are taking a short outing in that vicinity, went over to Ritchie creek, the stream from which it is proposed to secure the supply of water for the city's new gravity system, at noon today to test the quality of the water, and while crossing a footlog he fell into the stream and received a ducking. He can now testify that the water in the creek is sufficiently cold to satisfy the thirstiest man in the city.

STOREKEEPER'S UNIQUE APPEAL TO PUBLIC

A merchant not a thousand miles from Eugene who has been convicted of selling liquor in violation of the local option law, and who has been fined several hundred dollars and sentenced to the county jail for quite a period of time as a punishment for his wrongdoing, is advertising by handbills that he will close out his stock of goods at a sacrifice sale. He makes this unique appeal to the public:

"I must close my stock at once, I suppose you realize the condition I am in and I hope you will be kind and urge everybody to this sale."

HE'S A TRUE MATLOCK
