One of the most enjoyable affairs of the younger set was the dancing party given to the graduating class of the high school by the alumni association of the high school last Saturday evening at the armory. The first part of the evening was devoted to a business meeting and election of officers for the ensuing year, after which dancing and other forms of amusement were enjoyed. Two of the junior girls, Miss Grace Woods and Miss Mary Barker, presided over the punch bowl in the parlor. Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Christman, Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Goldsmith, Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Bellman, and Miss Emma Wold were patronesses.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Working flat last Sunday evening when Miss Nellie Smith and Mr. Hardy Howard were united in marriage. Just before the ceremony Miss Katherine Hembree, of Portland, a niece of the bride, sang, "O Promise Me," after which, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Ford, the bridal party took their places beneath a bower of pink and white roses, where the beautiful and impressive ring service was performed by Rev. Mount, of the Presbyterian church. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream mesaline, with trimmings of lace, and carried an arm bouquet of brides' roses. Mrs. Guy Davis, as matron of honor, wore lavender tulle. The bridesmaid, Miss Susie Smith, wore a handsome gown of pale blue crepe de chine, and carried pink rosebuds. Miss Dewey Smith, the flower girl, was daintily dressed in white. Mr. Clay Darby, of Roseburg, was best man. After the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served by Mrs. Coleridge McElroy and Mrs. Walter McCornack.
