MARKET DAY REGULAR INSTITUTION

There were a great many people in town for market day Saturday in spite of the rain. Had the weather been good there is reason to believe that the crowd would have reached record-breaking proportions. It was a good indication of the possibilities of market day interest among the farmers.

What should be done next Saturday is to form an association that will make market day a regular institution for one Saturday in each month. Such associations have proved wonderfully successful in building up the business of towns in the east, and the idea is gradually coming west, a gentleman from South Dakota telling the Guard Saturday that market days have been regular institutions in towns there for the past two years and that they have proven wonderfully successful.

The right plan would be to make an initial market day next Saturday the occasion for organization, and thereafter to have an auctioneer or agent on Saturday once a month, whose services would be free to all farmers who desired to sell stock and implements, or goods of any kind. Also to provide some sort of amusement or gala features that would attract the crowd.

We believe that a regular market day would grow in popularity and thereby increase the area of territory from which Eugene merchants could draw trading. It is worth trying.

The city council should not forget that the people of Eugene are practically unanimous for a gravity water system. They have voted for it time and again and will be satisfied with nothing less. When the city election was allowed to go by default, it was generally understood that all the candidates were in favor of the plan and willing to stick to that end; that all opposers were to the wishes of the majority and had been abandoned. This being the case, every member of the council should pledge upon his honor to carry out the wishes of his constituents. We do not know that there is any disposition to do otherwise, but we do not know that at this time there would be no evasion, quibbling or unnecessary obstacles interposed. The matter is too important to be trifled, and the people will see the seal of their disapproval on the acts of any man or men who disregard their interests.

1908 will register the greatest crop of berries and cherries that Eugene has ever produced, says the Grand Chamber of Commerce Bulletin. Quality is magnificent, quantity almost unlimited, and while the berry crop is enjoying this fruit the cherry crop insures a big increase in the dairy output, which has been greatly benefited by the spring pastures as were ever known in this section. Residents of Northwest should take pains to see that their Eastern counterparts are made familiar with the excellent conditions which make berrying so profitable here.

It is the psychologist, who has been proven beyond the shadow of a doubt that women have a hot-and-cold, alternating disposition and been the goat for law-abiding stunts.

In Eastern Oregon the non-unionists are still voting for Chas. Crook county last week.

Robert Hart, who ought to be the Dowager Empress of China "has magnetic power over all officials." It stories that occasionally leak out may be believed, she also has subduing power over them and uses it.

No married man will raise any objection to making a law of the abject of the magazine Scoundrel who says every married woman should have an income of $5,000 a year, so long as he isn't compelled to furnish the same.

Whether the selection of Sherman for second place on the ticket was a wise stroke has not been fully determined yet. It takes some time to thoroughly determine a comparatively unknown man's financial standing.

There's a mist bud in the White House garden, but with prohibition waves a-raging, it would probably be worth any servant's job who told that it supplied flavoring for anything but sauce.

This London medical authority, which asserts that many middle-aged men die of stupidity, will have to guess again. They may over there, but they certainly do not in this neck of the woods.

The Guard's campaign against that depot bill board has won out the unsightly dead wall having blown down Saturday night. There are no limits to the power of an untrammeled press.

Whatever else they may call Senator Bourne, the most persistent "second elective term" boomer of them all, he gave nobody cause to call him a quitter.

A headline in the East Oregonian says "State druggists may come to Pendleton." Nothing strange about that—the town went dry, we understand.

Some of the professional politicians, who have received the "back-to-work" call are not enthusing over it—not so you would notice it.

The Commercial Club wants a few carloads of cherries and roses delivered at its rooms tomorrow. Don't forget the time and place.

Cut the grass and weeds along the streets. Remember that hundreds of strangers will be in Eugene Wednesday.

There is still time to do a whole lot of cleaning up before Wednesday. Take advantage of the good weather and get busy.

The republican platform doesn't suit William J. Bryan. Somehow, we suspected all along that it wouldn't.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

BECAUSE—Don't gamble, young man. Because—Every game should be played for the sake of the game. Real sport should not be lowered to the plane of betting.

SPAIN'S BABY PRINCE ON PARADE. This picture shows King Alfonso of Spain parading before the officers of the guard, carrying the little Prince of the Asturias. There is no powder in his hair, and he is being carried by the soldiers in the arms of his officers and men. The baby prince already is honorary colonel of a crack cavalry regiment.

A Change of Luck

The Cat: "Heads! I win!"

The Mice: "Tails! You lose!"

Clean sport demands that the game should be played for the love of the game itself and not for the money there is in it. Do not spoil good sport by bad practice.

Because—It is a cheap and mean way to make a nasty dollar. Each time you win the other fellow loses. You get his money for nothing. How do you know he can afford to lose? The loss may make him commit a crime. Where does that leave you? Be a man. Pay your way. Earn your own. Don't try to beat your way.

Because—Gambling will lead you away from good company into bad. Gamblers do not belong to good society. They and their kind herd together. If you herd with them you must get down to their level. You can't keep clean and live in the mud.

Because—It will unfit you for business. The fellow who sits up half the night to play poker is in poor shape to solve business problems the next day. He who keeps his eye on the race track or the board of trade quotations must take his eye off his business. And he who neglects business is unreliable. He cannot serve two masters.

Because—The fever of gambling will soon get into your blood and vitiate your life. Instead of giving every man a square deal you will come to look for the advantage you may take of every man. And shortly you will come to the place where the fine flash to honest endeavor and the fine edge to honor will disappear.

And because—And this perhaps is the last thing that will restrain you—so we put it last—because it is wrong.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

Try JELL-O, the dainty, appetizing, economical dessert. Can be prepared instantly—simply add boiling water and serve when cool. Flavored just right; sweetened just right; perfect in every way. A 10c package makes enough dessert for a large family. All grocers sell it. Don't accept substitutes. JELL-O complies with all pure food laws. 7 flavors—Lemon, orange, raspberry, strawberry, chocolate, cherry, peach.
