COMPANY TO RUSH
WORK ON ELECTRIC LINE EXTENSIONS

A. W. With, general manager of the Eugene & Eastern Railway, is in the city looking after construction work on the company's line. He stated that the work of extending the line across the Williams River by the Eugene-Springfield line will probably begin within a few days. It is just as soon as a contractor can be found to make the work as the river. In regard to the extension of the line to Hendrick's Park Mr. With stated that the work will be commenced within a very short time. He was to have a conference with the local officials of the company and with others interested this afternoon to arrange for the beginning of the work.

GOOD WORK ON ROAD TO LORANE

The south Lorane road, or rather the McKernan road to Lorane, which is now undergoing improvement, presents a most pleasing appearance, especially to those who have to travel it in the winter time, says the Cottage Grove Western Oregon. The road has only been opened to the public three years, and when opened, that was about all that could be said about it. Since then, with the exception of a little volunteer work, the road has been neglected until this season. This spring through private contribution of many citizens of Cottage Grove, special tax levied by the people living between here and Lorane, assisted by the county court, aggregating $1650, the work is made possible. M. B. Stone of Lorane, was given the general superintendency with Curtis Veitch, assistant. Mr. Stone took direct charge of the work on the Lorane end and Mr. Veitch on this. The work is being accomplished from both ends, a crew working from this side to the top of the grade and another from the Lorane side. The grade is one of the best established in this section and the work throughout is being done in the most painstaking way. The only thing to be regretted is that there is not more funds available to the end that the road may be complete in every detail.

WEEK OPENS WITH BACCALAUREATE

DR. HERBERT S. JOHNSON OF BOSTON, DELIVERS EXCELLENT ADDRESS BEFORE 1600 PEOPLE.

HIS THEME WAS "THE CALL OF THE AGE," AND WAS HANDLED IN A MASTERFUL MANNER—TONIGHT AT VILLARD HALL GRADUATING EXERCISES OF THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

The baccalaureate sermon to the University of Oregon graduating class, delivered yesterday in Villard Hall by Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, of the Warren Street Baptist church of Boston, Mass., dealt with social problems of society's aristocracy, in contrast with the working folk of the country. The theme was "The Call of the Age." So powerful was the sermon that frowns would have been brought to the faces of some members of New York's social sets, if they could have heard the masterpiece. The audience of 1600 people, however, was held spellbound.

The speaker said in part: "This is not a favorable age. I am not a pessimist, or a communist, neither am I an anarchist nor have I the faintest tinge of socialism. I voted the ticket of one of the two great national parties all my life, yet there are many evils, but of these I will refer to only one that marks this age,—that is, the growth of inequality between classes, the submerged tenth, which is rapidly becoming more than a tenth.

"Ten years ago some authorities said that all property of the United States was in the hands of 250,000 persons, and at the same rate of concentration in ten more years the same property would be in the hands of 50,000. Another man says that our country is now controlled by just one per cent. of the entire population.

"There was a time when every man owned his farm, but now due to inventions—the steam engine and other things,—our population herds together in unthinking masses in the cities. If the whole world were herded like one flock in New York, the people of this earth would be living in a land no bigger than New Jersey.

"Why, do you know that I have a friend who has a place where he takes city children for fresh air, and that some of these went on a strike because the milk was rich and yellow, and not blue and thin like the city children get. There are certain children in Boston, who I know, are not five years old, and have not seen a blade of grass. Such as these are mere cogs and pulleys in the world of business and commercialism.

"There are in Boston women who send postals to hear Curuso. They get their nails manicured. Indeed, I have seen a doggie taken to ride in a coach for his health. And a maid would go along to hold a parasol over him,—forsooth, to protect his delicate complexion.

"At a ball in the home of a New Jersey belle, after wine of the cost, had been served, and American beauty roses at $12 a dozen provided to decorate the hall, the father was not satisfied. So when the ball was not opened, at the psychological moment, thousands of yellow gaudy colored butterflies were let go from their cages, to flutter among the guests and chandeliers, and decorations until they fell from exhaustion under the feet of the dancers. And these butterflies, imported from South Africa and the South Sea Islands cost not less than $100.00 while in just four blocks from that ball were women earning through the whole week long, only $14.

Dr. Johnson is a graduate of the University with the class of 1887. His father was the first president of the University.

The chorus of fifty voices, accompanied by the orchestra of twenty-five pieces, all led by Professor Glen, was one of the features of the morning service.

The invocation was given by Rev. W. B. Pinkerton. The Scripture lesson, the story of the Good Samaritan, was read by Rev. J. S. McCollum, and the prayer given by Rev. P. K. Hammond.

Miss Edith Prescott sang a beautiful solo. "But the Lord is mindful of His Own." Rev. C. C. Wright delivered the benediction at the close of the sermon.

ANOTHER NEW CLUB HOUSE
TO BE BUILT

Still another student's club house will be built during the present summer and completed before the fall term of the University begins. The Zeta Iota Phi, a girls' organization which now occupies the second mansion on East Eleventh Street, today accepted the plans drawn by Architect V. D. Vencil. The building will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000, and will contain 17 rooms with all the conveniences of a modern club house for students. The location has not yet been decided upon, but it is expected that within a few days a definite conclusion will be reached. One site talked of is at the corner of East Thirteenth Street and University Ave. and another is on East Thirteenth further toward the center of the city.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL AGAINST BASKET BALL

SENSE PERVADES BODY THAT SPORT SHOULD BE ABANDONED UNTIL NEW GYM IS BUILT—BEAN, WATSON, WHITLEY APPOINTED MANAGERS.

The University of Oregon athletic council will abandon basket ball as a college sport until a new gym is built, if the student body does not decide contrary to the sense that pervades the council, for this morning and Saturday it was determined not to appoint a manager until some time later. The reasons given for the abandonment of the game, which is now a national one, is that the floor in the gymnasium is too small for the production of a winning team.

Ormond Bean was elected track manager for next year to succeed himself. His report was also accepted which showed a surplus of about $50 on the season. Manager Frank Moun's report for base ball, showed only a deficit of $50, though the season was filled with all kinds of hard luck.

Frederick J. Whitley of Portland was elected assistant football manager over a number of other candidates. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Saturday Morgan Watson was elected base ball manager for the coming season of 1909. He is a graduate of the Eugene high school and is very well known in local athletic circles.
