

Body of the University of Oregon, won the falling prize of $150 for the best oration among the graduating class. His subject was "The Reign of Law: a Guarantee of Equal Rights." Miss Miriam Van Waters of Portland, the second prize of $100, known as the Beekman trophy. Her subject was "The Reign of Law: Persistence of Variation." These two orations were handled in a very masterful way. Others who took part were: Cora Cameron, "A Part of Earth's Creative Majesty;" Dell McCarty, "The Reign of Law;" Emily Muhr, "Social Poise and Social Progress;" Wesley Wire, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"

The judges were Rev. H. S. Johnson of Boston, President Coman of Commencement week at the University has been a continued round of festivities. Eugene turned out in gala attire to welcome back its old graduates and visitors.

Beginning with the baccalaureate sermon delivered by one of the alumni of the University of Oregon, Rev. Herbert S. Johnson of Boston, Mass., who came over three thousand miles to bring the message of a broader love of humanity to his Alma Mater. The large and appreciative audience was thrilled with enthusiasm.

The Recital of Music was one of the best ever heard in Villard Hall. Each member merited great praise. Great disappointment was felt over Professor Glen not being able to sing.

On Tuesday at 9 a. m. the Alumni reunion and business meeting was held at Villard hall.

Promptly at one o'clock the Alumni banquet was served on the campus under an immense canvas canopy. The numerous tables were beautifully decorated in La France roses and sweet peas. Tables were presided over by fifty young ladies. L. R. Alderman, '98, president of the associations, acted as toastmaster. President Campbell rose in response to the toast, "The Outlook;" James Cunningham, '08, "Closer Relationship Among Alumni;" Hon. S. H. Friendly, "The Inter-Relationship of the Board of Regents and The Alumni;" C. N. McArthur, '01, "The Campaign for the University Appropriation Bill." Among the extemporaneous speeches were: Professor Carson, President Coman of Willamette University, Mrs. L. T. Harris and Hon. M. A. Miller.

At 7:30 in the evening a large crowd had assembled on the campus to see the Flower and Fern procession. It was a former custom, but had fallen into disuse, but in the future it will be one of the most pleasing features of the week. The participants looked very charming in their dainty gowns with their wreaths and garlands. The music of the band added charm to the occasion. The procession was led by Miss Lela Goddard and Miss Angeline Williams. The co-eds were arranged in order of graduation, one member having graduated in '78. On the line of march a wreath of flowers or laurel was left at each building. The march ended at Villard where all the flowers were heaped upon the east porch.

After the procession the crowd immediately assembled in Villard Hall to listen to the Falling-Beekman prize contest. The house was usual, was filled to overflowing. Bert N. Prescott, president of the Student

Miss Dale, who is a prime favorite with thousands of theater goers, has achieved further success recently in the role of Bessie Brayton in "Father and the Boy." Miss Dale is exceedingly versatile, for she has appeared time out of number in straight drama and has won prominent mention in comedy on more than one occasion. She is well remembered as John Drew's support in "His House in Order" and other Broadway successes.

Willamette University and Judge L. T. Harris of Eugene.

The thirty-second annual commencement at the University of Oregon was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Villard Hall. Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard University, delivered the address to the Senior class. Dr. Hart's address was restrictive and helpful. Following the address the degrees were conferred upon the graduates—there being sixty-one in all. The unveiling of the splendid picture of President Johnson was one of the most memorable events of the week. Prof. F. S. Dunn delivered a very impressive address, telling of the life of the President and his wonderful work and influence. The picture was painted by Godwin of New York and is surely a credit to the artist.

The rounds of festivities was ended Wednesday evening by the Alumni dance at the Armory. The hall was prettily decorated in pennants and streamers. There were many pretty gowns in evidence. The patronesses were: Mrs. Frank Trousdale, Portland; Mrs. Robert N. Lewis, Portland; Mrs.

Harris, H. W. Thompson and S. H. Friendly. The Eugene Military Band was there also to greet them.

Dr. Wm. Kuykendall welcomed the visitors. After the dedication of the new depot the Portlanders were escorted by President Campbell to the University grounds where an appetizing luncheon was awaiting them. It had been prepared by the ladies auxiliary of the Eugene Commercial Club. During the luncheon the band played. Dr. D. A. Paine acted as toastmaster. The program of speeches was: C. S. Williams, Congressman Hawley, Governor Chamberlain, Mr. F. E. Beach, Pres. P. L. Campbell, S. H. Friendly, Mr. Wittenburg and Luther Dyott. In the evening at 5:30 dinner was served at the Commercial Club. Mrs. Osborn presided over the dinner and was assisted by a bevy of young girls.

Tuesday morning Mrs. C. A. Burden, at her home on Lincoln and Eighth streets served a dainty breakfast to the musical alumni of the University of Oregon, of which she is a member.

Mrs. F. W. Prentice entertained very delightfully a number of her friends at her home on High street, Thursday afternoon. The rooms were very pretty and elaborately decorated in cut flowers. The pastime of the afternoon was whist, in which Mrs. Friendly won the prize. A most delicious lunch was served. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. M. L. York and Mrs. S. Spencer. The guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. Shelley, Mrs. J. Kelly, Mrs. B. Dearborn, Mrs. Seavey, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Bristol, Mrs. Littlefield, Mrs. Snodgrass, Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. Carrie Friendly Harris, Mrs. S. H. Friendly, Mrs. Shumate, Mrs. H. Hoffman, Mrs. F. N. Osborn, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Titus, Mrs. Paine, Mrs. Goodrich, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Sheldon, Miss Whiteaker, Mrs. Rooney, Mrs. Frank Chambers, Mrs. Fred Chambers, Mrs. Burden, Mrs. Belle Smith, Mrs. Ankeny, Mrs. Lilley, Mrs. Chrisman, Mrs. Preston, Mrs. Eakin, and Mrs. Hammond.

The Seniors of the Zeta Iota Phi Sorority were entertained during Commencement week. The Seniors are Lena Miller, Bell Van Duyn and Cora Cameron. On Monday evening Miss Kate Kelly was the charming hostess at a dinner party given in honor of the seniors. Mrs. Mackintosh and Mrs. Henry Sheldon chaperoned the party. The table was beautifully decorated with green and yellow and the rooms were artistically decorated with cut flowers. Those present were: Cora and Edna Cameron, Belle Van Duyn, Lena Miller, Juliet Cross, Helen Washburn, Grace Magladry, Myra Loveridge and Elizabeth Elliot.

On Tuesday evening Miss Lucia Wilkins gave a breakfast in honor of these young ladies at Bangs' park. A very enjoyable time was spent by all of these popular girls.

The fraternities and sororities of the University have been entertaining many visitors during Commencement week. Those visiting at the Delta Alpha house were: Judge Wallace Mount and wife (Olympia Wash.) and mother (Silverton, Or.) Mr. and Mrs. John Kestley and daughter Mae (Springfield); Charlie Cleveland (Cornell University) and Arle Hamilton (Pendleton). At the Sigma Nu house: Messrs. Jon Knapp (Washington D. C.); Clifford Brown, (Portland); C. N. McArthur, (Portland); Clarence Bishop (Salem); Hawley; Fred Stump (Salem); George Euyre (Dayton) and Richard Geary, (Portland). At the Kappa Sigma house were: Roy Kelly (Hood River); Merrill and Chester Moores (Salem); Horace Fenton (Portland); O. A. Merrick, Jack Latourette; Mr. and Mrs. Moores (Salem); and Mrs. Hathaway (Portland). At the Beta Epsilon Sorority: Alice Bretherton, Lila Goddard and Marion Chase, (Portland). At the Tau Pi sorority: Mr. and Mrs. Childs Caulfield, Edna Daulton and Bess Kelly (Oregon City).

At the Kioshe Tillamuc Club: Mrs. Stowe (Salem); Mrs. Halr (Grants Pass); Mrs. Lincoln (Portland); Emily McCormick, Miss Mann, Miss Ethel Shoup and Cora Shaver.

Miss Grace Murray and Harlow J. Evans, both of Baker City, were married Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. D. A. Paine. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. C. Wright of the Baptist church, in the presence of only the immediate relatives and friends. The decorations at the home were beautiful with cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will make their home in Baker City.

Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Matlock, Miss Kathryn Freeman of Iowa was married to B. Marquis of this city. Rev. Mount officiating. The bridal party stood beneath a bower of white roses. Miss Veda Mulkey played the wedding march. Little Gertrude Gompf, the groom's niece, was flower girl. After the wedding Mrs. Matlock served an elaborate luncheon and was assisted by her sister, Miss Florence Marcellis. After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Marquis will make their home in this city.

Mrs. F. J. Hard entertained the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church at her beautiful home on East Eleventh street in her usual charming manner. Most of the afternoon was spent on the banks of the mill-race, where hammocks, and easy chairs were abundant. The hostess had provided canoes on the race for canoeing. There was a full attendance of the society, about a hundred being present. The hostess was assisted in serving an elaborate luncheon by Mrs. Fannie Barges, Mrs. Jessie Van Scoy, Mrs. Charles McFarland and Mrs. W. W. Hawkins.

Wednesday morning the members of the Beta Epsilon sorority gave a breakfast in honor of their senior girls, Jessie Chase, Winnifred Hardy and Helene Robinson. The table was beautifully decorated with a swastika of red and white, sweet peas as a center piece. The place cards were beautiful and were the artistic work of Miss Leone Kays. The guests at the breakfast were: Marion Chase, Leone Kays, Alice Bretherton and Lela Goddard.

Two out of town weddings of interest were celebrated Wednesday, June 24. Sarah Reid and Bod Hammond were united in marriage in Baker City. Mr. and Mrs. Hammond were formerly students of the University of Oregon, as also were Miss Mable Smith and Ralph Fenton, who were married in Astoria.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Lischen Miller entertained the women's Patriotic League at her charming suburban home. The rooms were beautifully decorated in flowers. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Idaho Campbell and Miss Eva Frazer. The guests of the League were: Mrs. Thompson of Portland, and Mrs. Nelson of Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond entertained Miss Bertha Slater of the University faculty on Thursday evening; members of the choir of St. Mary's Episcopal church and several of her friends joined in giving her a "shower", to which St. Mary's guild added a beautiful piece of cut glass. During the evening Miss Nina Nicklin, accompanied by Mrs. Nicklin, rendered two exquisite selections on the violin. Miss Slater leaves for her home soon and after her marriage will reside in Portland.

The Kioshe-Tillamuc Club of the University spent Thursday with some of their friends on a delightful picnic several miles east of Eugene.

Last night the friends of Miss Grace Parker and Professor Carl McClain, the former, matron of the dormitory, the latter of the University faculty, surprised the couple with a tin shower at the University Dormitory. The wedding will take place next week.
