BASEBALL GAME TOMORROW AFTERNOON

The new baseball suits for the Eugene team have arrived and the team will wear them in the game tomorrow afternoon at Recreation Park, when they line up against the Coburg sluggers. The suit is of silver gray color with red stockings and belt with the inscription "C-F. Co." in red letters on the breast. The suit is one of the handsomest seen in Eugene, and makes a pretty showing for the Campbell-Fellman Co's. team.

The game will be called at 2:30 p. m., and it is to be hoped that the citizens of Eugene will patronize the team is a good one and deserves the national game this summer as the team is a good one and deserves the support of the town. The line up of the Eugene team for Sunday's game will be as follows: Weed, c; Murphy, p.; Lacho, ss.; Gaby, 1b.; Harrel, 2nd b.; O'Brien, 3rd b.; Mosberger, rf.; Patsy Donovan, cf.; Harper, lf.; Godfrey and Morgan, substitutes. Harry Graham will act as umpire.

night. Sheriff Fisk, who sleeps in a tent in the county jail yard close by, says those in the city jail have very good voices and kept him awake half of the night with their songs. In the report of the council proceeding a few days ago an error crept in regarding the hiring of Mr. Jannerud on the street cleaning department. He only furnishes one team at $95 a month.

The Bangs Livery Co. will at once put in a new set of platform scales in front of their stables on West Ninth street. These scales require no pit in the street and will be set on top of the pavement.

The Koh-i-noor ice cream parlor (Hull's) was formerly opened to the public last night and large crowds thronged the place for several hours. Hendershott's orchestra played sweet music during the evening.

Miss Camille Leach, the University librarian, is preparing a list of new books that will run up into several hundreds, and that the University will need before next fall. Larger lists will be added later on.

Eleventh street pavement is done with the exception of a few finishing touches and repair work. In case further contracts should not be awarded the Warren Company, their plant here will be torn down and taken to Medford.

Col. E. C. Hughes, Louis Aya, Sr. and W. Small, left this morning with a boat in their wagon for a point 49 miles up the Willamette river, intending to come down the river in the boat and fish. They expect to reach home Monday evening.

Norbert Aya and Louis Aya, Jr., returned Thursday evening at 9 o'clock from a fishing trip up the Willamette. They started down the river from a point four miles above Hyland's ferry Tuesday at 6:30 a. m. and caught 360 (?) fine trout.

At a meeting of the city council late yesterday afternoon the assessment ordinance for the paving of Ninth street was passed. The Warren Construction Co. was ordered paid in full for the paving work on Seventh, Eighth and Ninth streets.

In the justice court yesterday afternoon the case of Ada Bailey vs. N. Wheeler, to recover the sum of $21, alleged due as nurse hire, was tried before a jury. The jury awarded the plaintiff $15 and taxed the costs to the defendant. C. A. Wintermeier was attorney for the plaintiff and L. Edmunson for the defendant.

Dr. Cross of San Francisco, E. N. Briggs of Saginaw, Mich., and Arthur Hill Vincent, also of the latter place, left this morning in the Eugene Gun Co's big White auto for Montgomery's on the McKenzie, on a fishing trip. They expect to be gone two weeks. Dr. Cross is said to be champion fisherman of California and Mr. Briggs the champion of Michigan, so look out for a new record.

Monmouth state normal will also have a summer school, as well as the University. Courses will be given in review work, primary methods, grade methods, and supervision and high school methods. The school will last from June 29 to August 17. Among the teachers and special lecturers are President Campbell of the University, A. C. Strong of The Dalles, (formerly of Cottage Grove) and L. R. Alderman of Eugene.

Last evening shortly before six o'clock one of the street cars coming down from the University, caught fire from a hot box. The flames were noticed first by those on the street car at the M. E. church, but the motorman and conductor did not notice them till the car reached Eighth street, when it was stopped. A small hose was attached to a faucet in the sidewalk and the blaze extinguished before much damage was done. There was considerable excitement over the affair.
