Last evening theatre-goers of Eugene enjoyed a real treat. It was a little out of season because the best attractions do not, as a rule, travel during the summer months, but it was none the less appreciated. Miss May Robson in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary", was one of the best offerings this city has seen in a long time. It was the cleanest of bright, sparkling fun, and while Miss Robson was the particular star, the company was well balanced and Frances Cossar, Nina Saville, Harry Comley and Jack Storey were well cast for supporting parts. Miss Robson was the recipient of repeated curtain calls at the end of each act.
