

BOOTH CLEARED BY TRIAL JURY IN U. S. COURT

Portland, July 8.—By a verdict returned in the United States Court yesterday, James Henry Bolch, ex-receiver of the Roseburg land office, was acquitted of the charge of accepting unlawful compensation while serving as an official of the government. Bolch was indicted for furnishing advance information to Frederick A. Kribs, a timber land speculator of Portland, regarding the final cancellation of the land selections, and for which it was alleged he received $800 on October 3, 1907. The jury reached a verdict at 11:05 o'clock yesterday morning, 35 minutes after the instructions of Judge Wolverton had been repeated. At 12 o'clock midnight, Judge Wolverton went home, after ordering that the jury be locked up for the night. Consequently the findings of the jury could not be reported into court until 9 o'clock yesterday morning. "Naturally, we are overwhelmed with joy," said Dan J. Malarky, of counsel for the defense, yesterday, after the verdict had been rendered. "At no time since the trial began did we fear a conviction, but we suspected the government had succeeded in getting on the jury two or three men who would stand out for conviction indefinitely. The verdict amounts to more than an acquittal. It is most decisively a vindication, especially in view of the fact that the defense did not offer one syllable of testimony to controvert the inferences and insinuations that were presented in the testimony of the government, and on which the prosecution relied for a conviction."

WANTS TO ESTABLISH A MAUSOLEUM HERE

W. H. Hamilton, representing the National Mausoleum Co., of Shelby, Ohio, is here today, interviewing Eugene people in regard to the establishment of a large mausoleum on a co-operative plan at one of the local cemeteries. The plan is to put in reach of any citizen the most sanitary manner of interment, heretofore possible only to the wealthy. While his company has only been organized for a short time, so successful has the plan been that many cities in the East have erected the structures. Briefly the scheme followed is to build a fine mausoleum appropriate in every detail with 240 crypts, each one of which is contracted for before the erection at $125 a crypt. Mr. Hamilton estimates that this is almost as cheap as the old way of burial, besides having additional advantages, such as keeping the body out of the damp, and making possible preservation. Part of the money thus raised goes into a sinking fund for repairs on the building, eliminating all future expense. The structure on the hillside is finished marble. From the photographs, those already constructed, are ideas in sanitation and cleanliness.

THREE TEAMS IN STATE SHOOT AT SALEM

Three teams from Eugene will compete in the state shoot at Salem on July 29 to 31 in the annual competition for honors. Tryouts were held yesterday by the local companies, each of which will be represented by a team of four men, with an alternate. No selections have yet been made, though they must be in by July 13. The third team will be the one representing the regimental headquarters of the Fourth Regiment. Lieutenant H. H. Hinder will be Captain of Company C, aggregation, the other members as yet being undecided. From the high men in the results of these schools, usually is chosen a team to go to the East. What will be done this year in regard to an Eastern trip is unknown.

GEO. A SMITH SPENDS SEVEN MINUTES IN JAIL

Geo. A. Smith, the well-known comedian, had the unpleasant experience of being locked up in the city jail for seven minutes Saturday afternoon. The incident is explained by Mr. Smith as follows: He had spent the afternoon at home entertaining a party of friends and came down town to see about getting his luggage taken to the train, as he had arranged to leave in the morning with Mrs. Smith for a month's visit at Klamath Falls. He encountered a crowd on the street, and a friend, under the influence of liquor, rushed up and seized hold of him, imploring him to protect him from the officers, who were attempting to arrest him. Before he realized what had happened, the two special policemen were rushing them both to jail, with drawn clubs. At first Mr. Smith took the matter as a joke, but on arriving at the jail, was shoved through the door, which was opened by the chief of police, and locked up. In just seven minutes he was let out again, but it seemed longer than that to a man unaccustomed to being behind the prison walls. We understand that Mr. Smith has placed the matter in the hands of attorneys and that a damage suit will be instituted against those responsible for locking him up.
