a fool who goes so far with his investments that he cannot meet his current expense account, and a dozen other parallels might be brought up and arrayed to prove the truth of the above sentence.

Down in St. Louis a man was fined $100 the other day for throwing his wife's powder rag out of the window. They are making a good deal of noise about equal rights to all persons, regardless of sex, or previous condition of servitude, but it seems to us that if man ever had any particular rights in this world, it is about time they were pointed out to him, so that he may go about exercising them.

Congressman Littlefield is an able lawyer, but he was going far when he said no anti-trust law had ever been enforced, or ever could be. Let that idea once become generally accepted and trust magnates would have to reckon with something far more dangerous to them, than a law.

"Pistol toting" would soon be a thing of the past if all the states would adopt the Alabama law forbidding the sale of pistols less than two feet long, as the average "toter" is too lazy to cart a cannon around.

game in this country to keep him busy. Consequently he will not go to Africa.

Mexico has a revolution, or a bunch of strenuous bandits, on its hands, according to which brand of news you accept as straight goods.

What a lot of other fat men would like to know is how Taft got through college without being called "fatty."

Mr. Sherman might spike a great many paragraphic guns by shaving off those English butler siders of his.

Portland wants more seats in her parks. So does Eugene.

Britain Bennett, charged with assault on the 10-year-old daughter of Peter Zollner, of Mount Angel, on the night of the 4th, had his preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice Hayes and was bound over to the circuit court in $5000 bonds, failing to furnish which he was taken to the county jail by Constable Hiller.

FORM ONE MORE HABIT. YOU HAVE probably not yet formed enough "habits". It is likely that you would find the "ad-answering habit" a dividend-paying one—and one that would never lure you far away from the best thrift-creed ever devised. A habit is usually formed through yielding to natural inclination. The ad-answering habit will have to be cultivated—perhaps against present inclination, and through an effort of will. You are not in the habit of saying "impossible," are you?
