

We Have Seriously Considered

AND almost decided to discontinue our half-page advertisement, since the ad. or something else has brought us almost more business than we can care for. However, on second thought, we concluded to increase our facilities and care for all orders offered, and are prepared to do this to our mutual satisfaction, we believe. No one can give you better prices, grades and delivery of first-class Lumber and Shingles.

HATCHERY FOR TROUT ON THE M'KENZIE RIVER

At the meeting of the Eugene Commercial Club next Monday evening the matter of the necessity of a trout hatchery on the McKenzie river will be taken up, and it is probable that preliminary action looking to the establishment of one will be taken. All men interested in fishing are urged to be present.

It is felt by many persons who have observed conditions during the past few years that the trout in the river are becoming less numerous, and in order to prevent their entire exhaustion at some future time the matter of restocking the river is being discussed.

LOOSE HAY SOLD TODAY FOR $8 TON

Sales of loose hay were made in Eugene today for $8 a ton. Other lots have sold for $9, and the farmers seem to think that as the season advances the price will probably rise. New hay is plentiful, the crop being good everywhere, and a few other wisecracks think that the poor prospects earlier in the season have boomed the hay market too strongly. Some sales have been made at prices below $8.

EASTERNER WILL LOCATE IN EUGENE

Peter Defer, who has been visiting in Eugene the last few weeks, started home to Detroit, Mich., last Tuesday by way of Portland. He has been traveling in Old Mexico, New Mexico, Arizona, California and Oregon during the last six or eight months. He has seen nearly all of the Pacific coast, and has visited Portland and Salem during his stay at Eugene and expects to return here and invest after disposing of some real estate in a new addition he has laid out in Detroit. He thought very favorably of a 4-acre tract near the southeast boundary of Fairmount. Mrs. Defer remains in Eugene with her sister, Mrs. H. R. Kincaid.—Oregon Journal.

BOY STOLE ALEX PATTERSON'S WATCH

Yesterday Alex Patterson, the butcher, hung his vest up in his stable on Pearl street while he helped unload some hay. When he went to put the garment on again he missed his gold watch. A boy by the name of Bert White, aged about 12 years, was seen hanging around the barn at the time and he was at once suspected of the theft. Chief of Police Farrington was notified and the boy's father was told. They succeeded in getting a confession from the boy, who said he had taken the watch out of the vest and taken it to a second-hand store, where he traded it for a pair of shoes, telling the second-hand dealer that his uncle had given him the watch, but he needed the shoes worse, and wanted to trade it off. The juvenile court will probably handle the case, as the boy has been a ward of that tribunal before.
