MAKE SHRINERS' DAY IN EUGENE GREAT SUCCESS

PROMOTION DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL CO-OPERATE WITH LOCAL MASONS TO ENTERTAIN VISITING BRETHREN ON SEPTEMBER 5

At the last meeting of the board of governors of the Commercial Club figures were submitted for advertising for three months in Eastern trade papers for factories, and after discussion the appropriation asked for was allowed.

A reply from the Albany Commercial Club was submitted to the board in regard to the intended visit from Eugene to Albany, but owing to so many Eugene merchants being away it was decided to postpone this matter for the time being.

A committee from the Shriner's department to make the big day of the Shriner's meeting in Eugene, September 5th, a success, and the manager was instructed to co-operate with the committee in charge.

A proposition to hold a country show in Eugene this year was discussed and the manager instructed to take this matter up with the secretary of the Poultry Association.

The next number of Nobody's Magazine was ordered devoted, pictorially, to berries and a following number to either Springfield or Florence.

The question of a trout hatchery was discussed and ordered placed before the general meeting, as fully reported in The Guard.

LANE COUNTY AT SALEM CHERRY FAIR

Lane county will be well represented at the cherry fair which opens at Salem tomorrow and continues till over Saturday. The Lane County Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Association is preparing the exhibit at their packing house on Oak street and will ship down to the capital city tonight. There will be 30 or 40 boxes of cherries in the exhibit, all neatly packed, and they present a beautiful appearance. The work is under the direction of J. O. Holt, secretary of the association, which fact alone insures that it will be done in a splendid manner. The varieties to be sent to Salem are: Bines, Lamberts, Centennials, Late Dukes, Black Republicans, Royal Anns and Liewellyns.
