PRINCESS ALICE REFUSED INVITATION BY PROHIBITIONISTS

Columbus, Ohio, July 15.—H. W. Davis, of Louisville, Ky., T. P. DeMaree, of Wilmore, and H. S. D. Wright, of Louisville, are today in a cold sweat because the Kentucky delegation to the Prohibition national convention has refused to accede to their request to invite Mrs. Longworth to attend the convention as the guest of Kentucky.

The three men have already written to Mrs. Longworth, and they fear that President Roosevelt will take the action of the Kentucky delegation as a personal affront. The invitation cannot be withdrawn, but it is thought that the president's daughter will not attend the convention, in view of the protest that has arisen.

The Kentucky delegates to the Prohibition convention object to Alice because, they say, she smokes cigarettes, attended the Lexington horse races and sat beside Boss Cox, a man of the world, and because she placed a tack on a chair in the gallery of the house at Washington, causing pain and embarrassment to a diplomatic visitor.

PRIEST'S SLAYER BURIED IN THE PRISON CEMETERY

Canon City, July 16.—The body of Giuseppe Alia, who was hanged at the penitentiary here last night for the murder of Father Leo Heinrichs in St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, Denver, on February 23 last, was buried today in a rude coffin in the prison cemetery on the mountain side near the entrance of the Royal Gorge. Alia died cursing the priesthood, shouting "Long live Italy; long live the Protestants!"

STRIKERS FIGHT WITH NON-UNION WORKERS

Cleveland, July 16.—In a fight between non-union and union cabinet-workers six were injured today. The union workers went out on a strike several weeks ago and attempted to prevent a body of non-unionists from going to work. Bricks, stones and clubs were used, and a riot call brought the police, who were obliged to use their clubs on a number of the rioters.

FEDERATION OF MINERS HEAR MANY REPORTS

WANT FEDERAL INVESTIGATION OF CONDITIONS AT TREADWELL MINES—SECRETARY'S REPORT SHOWS HEAVY FALLING OFF OF MEMBERSHIP DURING PAST YEAR—MOYER-HAYWOOD DEFENSE WAS COSTLY

Denver, July 16.—The Western Federation of Miners in convention today heard reports of a number of officers and the reading of resolutions from various locals causing for changes in the constitution. The resolutions were referred to various standing committees for consideration.

William Davidson, executive member from Alaska, told of conditions at the Treadwell mines and asked that a demand be made for a federal commission to investigate.

Membership Loss

The annual report of Ernest Mills, secretary treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, which was submitted to the convention yesterday, shows that the organization lost 5,000 members during the past year. The total membership January 1 of this year was 38,116. Mr. Mills attributes the loss of members to the existing industrial conditions. The report shows total collections by the local unions of $1,100,694 and expenditures of $993,835. It shows total receipts by the parent organization, together with last year's balance in bank of $392,133, and expenditures of $376,153. Of the latter amount $189,589 was expended in the defense of Haywood, Pettibone and Adams on murder charges.

During the year outside contributions were made to the defense fund to the amount of $79,451.

Sixty-two new locals were organized during the year and 29 either disbanded or affiliated with some other union.

James Kirwan, who was acting secretary-treasurer while Haywood was in jail, submitted his report in the afternoon. He recommends that officers of the local unions give bonds through the parent organization instead of bonding companies, and that all unions secure depository bonds before depositing money in banks.

The report of President Moyer yesterday pleased the delegates and today there was a general feeling that he should be re-elected.

PROHIBITIONISTS ADOPT PLATFORM OF PRINCIPLES

Columbus, July 16.—The report of the committee on resolutions of the Prohibition convention provides for the following platform:

1. The submission by congress to the several states of an amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale, importation, exportation or transportation of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes.
 2. Immediate prohibition of the liquor traffic for beverage purposes in the district of Columbia, in the territories and all other places over which the national government has jurisdiction; repeal of the internal revenue tax on alcoholic liquors and prohibition of interstate traffic therein.
 3. Election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.
 4. Formation of graduated income and inheritance taxes.
 5. Establishment of postal savings banks and guarantee of deposits in banks.
 6. Regulation of all corporations doing interstate commerce business.
 7. Creation of a permanent tariff commission.
 8. Strict enforcement of the law, instead of official tolerance and practical license of the social evil which prevails in many of our cities, with its unspeakable traffic in girls.
 9. Uniform marriage and divorce laws.
 10. An equitable and constitutional employers' liability act.
 11. Court review of postoffice department decisions.
 12. Prohibition of child labor in mines, workshops and factories.
 13. Legislation having suffrage only upon intelligence and ability to read and write the English language.
 14. Preservation of mineral and forest resources, and improvement of highways and waterways.
- The platform was adopted by a viva voce vote.

PROHIBITIONISTS ADOPT PLATFORM OF PRINCIPLES

Canon City, Colo., July 15.—Calling down maledictions of the most high upon the Roman priesthood, and shouting "Long live Italy; long live the Protestants!" Giuseppe Alia, the murderer of Father Leo Heinrichs, was carried to the death trap at exactly 8:30 o'clock tonight, and paid the extreme penalty of the crime.

Perhaps a more sensational and thrilling scene was never witnessed by any of the few persons present at the execution of this murderer, whose cries and screams were only hushed by the automatic springing of the mechanism, which forever silenced the tongue that cried for vengeance against those whom Alia had considered the destroyers of his home and happiness.

At 7 o'clock Spaso came in to him with the information that within an hour the execution would take place. Alia again assented and said he was ready at any time. He further said that he felt no sorrow whatever for having killed Father Leo. He was certain that Father Leo was the man for whom he had been searching many months, and said that he recognized the priest as his tormentor by a scar on the side of his face. Alia said he had worked for Father Leo in Portland, and was sure that he killed the right man. Alia said he did not believe there was a God, for if so he would not have been permitted to be in his present predicament. He said he found no fault with the law, but that the priest did wrong in breaking up his family.

Declares He is Ready to Die

At 4 o'clock this afternoon Ward-n Cloghron, of the state penitentiary, through his interpreter, Antonio Spaso, a prison guard, read the death warrant to Alia. Contrary to expectation the prisoner exhibited no emotion, not even moving a muscle, and when the reading was finished, said: "All right, I am ready to die now."

At 6 o'clock supper was served to the prisoner. He ate the regular meal served to the officers of the prison. Before eating, he divided the food into five portions, saying one was for his wife, one for himself and one each for his three children. He then ate with apparent composure and relief.

Dies Cursing Priests.

At 8:30 o'clock, everything being in readiness, the warden's assistants approached Alia's cell and led the much jubilation at Fairview today. With unfeigned delight Bryan announced the receipt of a telegram from W. H. Dunphy, Democratic leader of that city, announcing the result of the election. Bryan declared the election was significant, and that it showed the country Democrats were justified in their forecast of the trend of political sentiment throughout the country.
