CITY NEWS

A carload of cane for the Allen cannery arrived from the north this morning.

The foundation for the freight depot at its new location at the west end of the yards is being put in.

B. W. Maddox, the railroad man, sent to this office today some vigorous young corn, which is a good sample of what Oregon can produce.

Otto Kaufman is moving his candy factory from its temporary location at 71 West Eighth street to his new building in the rear of his confectionery store.

Another fatality on the street car line. A cow belonging to Samuel Manerud was run into by one of the cars out on the cemetery line yesterday and her leg broken. She had to be shot.

Frank Fetrow is building a fine bungalow on North Jefferson street, next door to Charles Barthe's residence. He will sink a well, put in a tank and install electric power with which to pump the water into it.

Chief of Police Farrington this morning received word from independence that an automobile had been stolen there and the thief was supposed to be on his way up the valley. The machine is a Haynes, two-seated and light-colored.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Littlefield and Samuel Littlefield, Mr. Littlefield's father, leave in the morning for an extended trip east. They will first go to Everett, Wash., and from there to the Palouse country. From there they will go to Minneapolis and expect to be gone three months.

Richard Clow today filed with the county clerk notices of appropriation of the waters of Mapleton creek at Mapleton. One appropriation is for 36 inches of the waters and is for domestic purposes. The other is for all the surplus water of the creek and for power purposes for lighting.

John R. Chezem, the contractor, today began suit in the circuit court against Pisgah Lodge No. 159, I. O. O. F., of Goshen, to recover the sum of $1300, alleged due on the contract for erecting a new hall for the lodge. The $1300 is alleged to be due above the contract price on account of the modification of the specifications. Pines and Pines are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

The street car track is being laid from the present eastern terminus on East Thirteenth street to the new crossing with the S. P. track. Foreman Utterback says cars will not be running on the new track to Judkins' Point until about the first of August.

W. T. Gordon, W. M. Green, E. F. Chapman, M. Svarerud and J. W. Cuerny went to Crow in an automobile last evening to install the new officers of the Odd Fellows lodge there.

Lee W. Henry, a former Eugene newspaperman, a brother-in-law of H. A. Schwering, the barber, has sold his newspaper, the Boyd County Register, at Butte, Neb., and expects to come to the coast again.

The carload of Rambler autos, which arrived here some time ago for the Eugene Auto Company, will at once be unloaded, the differences between the railroad company and the Auto company having been settled.

J. B. Wilhelm, who is down from Zion, reports that Mr. Lawrence, who resides on Lost Creek, suffered a broken leg yesterday afternoon. He was working with a grubbing machine when something gave way, and struck him on the leg, fracturing a bone. Dr. George, of Creswell, was called to attend the injury.

The rock crusher at the paving plant is shut down for a few days in order to put in new flues in the boiler of the engine. The next street to be paved will be Olive street, if the work of putting in the four-inch water pipe instead of the two-and-a-half inch pipe does not interfere. If this work is not completed in time, West Tenth street will be worked on first.

License to wed was today issued to J. H. Douglas, aged 46 years, and Miss Nellie Fashay, aged 30 years. Mr. Douglas is a minister at Pomeroy, Washington, and a brother of Rev. S. A. Douglas, of this city. Miss Fashay is a well-known Albany school teacher. Albany Herald. Miss Fashay is well known in Eugene, having graduated from the University of Oregon in 1906.

This morning shortly before 8 o'clock one of the horses hitched to a fruit wagon fell down on the pavement in front of Polders' store. This caused the tongue of the wagon to come down, frightening the team. They started to run and kick, but were held in check by the driver and stopped by several by-standers. There was some excitement for a while, but no damage was done.

Four-inch water pipe is being laid on Olive street, in place of the 2 1/2-inch main that was intended. Last Monday night the Commercial Club appointed a committee to interview the council in regard to the matter, the consensus of opinion of the members present being that the street should have an eight-inch independent main before the pavement was laid. However, the council at a meeting the same night ordered 4-inch pipe laid and the matter was allowed to rest there.
