

YOU PAY A HIGH PRICE

FOR almost everything you buy, including the common necessities and the expensive luxuries, from foodstuffs to automobiles.

The one marked exception is lumber, which can be bought cheaper today than for many a year past and is retailed in Eugene in many instances for less than wholesale prices.

This means that your dollar will buy more now than at any other time and this is therefore the time to spend it.

SIXTH NEW BRICK BLOCK FOR COTTAGE GROVE

Nattie H. Martin and Mike Kebblebeck, the former owner of the Lincoln meat market building on the north corner of Main and Fifth streets, and the later, owner of the building occupied by the Cottage Grove Electric Light Company, have plans about completed for a fine modern two-story brick, 50x95 feet, to occupy this sightly corner. Contractors have figured on the work and that there is little doubt but that the contract for this, the sixth big brick on Main street since the first of the year, will be let in a short time, on which work will commence on or before September this year. The new building will probably be occupied by Messrs. Martin and Kebblebeck's present tenants. Secure another point for Cottage Grove.

To Be Married

Miss Celia Lurch, who will be married at the home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hexter, in Portland, Sunday, to James McCreadie, of San Francisco, took her departure for the Rose City Wednesday, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Ben Lurch, and a cousin from California, Miss Irma Schragg. Miss Celia is the second and only remaining daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lurch, their other daughter, Miss Lillie, having been married some time ago. The groom elect is a prominent commercial traveler of San Francisco, and is said to be a very worthy and estimable gentleman. Mr. Lurch and nephew, Jake Lurch, will go to Portland on the early Sunday morning train to attend the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. McCreadie will reside in San Francisco.

hardest battles would have to be fought west of the Missouri river, and that he planned to secure the benefits of political assets never before available, for the reason that state chairmen confined their efforts in the past to their own territory. Mr. Hitchcock will try to bring them together in the matter of getting speakers, and so far as possible wipe out the state lines in carrying on the campaign. "We want to show the people that we are at work and mean justice," said Mr. Hitchcock. "There is not a state that will be neglected, nor a state that will be abandoned to the other party."

Hearst on Bryan

New York, July 17.—A cablegram has been received from W. R. Hearst in reply to a message transmitted to Mr. Hearst from Samuel Gompers, stating that in view of the Democratic platform it would be "an act of great patriotism for the independence party to endorse the Democratic platform," and urging him not to run a third ticket, as it would elect Mr. Taft. Mr. Hearst's cablegram follows:

"Paris, July 13.—Tell Mr. Gompers that I am not authorized to speak for the members of the independence party, but according to my personal standards a purer patriotism consists in laboring to establish a new party which will be consistently devoted to the interest of the citizenry, and particularly to the advantage and advancement of the producing classes. I do not think the path of patriotism lies in supporting a discredited and decadent old party which has neither conscientious conviction nor honest intention, or in endorsing chameleon candidates, who change the color of their political opinion with every varying hue of opportunism. I do not think the best benefit of the laboring man lies in supporting that old party because of a sop of false promise when the performance of that party while in power did more to injure labor than all the injunctions ever issued before or since. I have lost faith in the empty professions of an unregenerate Democracy. I have lost confidence in the ability and even in the integrity of its leaders. I do not consider a patriotism to pretend to support that which, as a citizen, I distrust and detest, and I earnestly hope the independence party will give me the opportunity to vote for candidates who are both able and honest, and for a declaration of principles that is both sound and sincere."
—WILLIAM R. HEARST.

BILL HAYWARD GETS POINTERS AT OLYMPIC GAMES

The University of Oregon expects to gain much in athletics through having its physical director, "Bill" Hayward, at the Olympic games in England. There he will get a notion of the kinds of training that different parts of the world use, and it is hoped that this experience will prove attractive to embryo athletes who are choosing their college this autumn.

Hayward is the most famed trainer in the Northwest, and he has won his reputation without visible attempt at publicity. In fact he frowns on news stories and bears the reputation of being hard to approach. Since he left Eugene little other than that in postal cards has been heard from him, and those that have been received were little more than mementos.

GEO. LONG INVENTS IMPORTANT MACHINE

It has been known by a few people here, the home town of Geo. Long, who for years operated a flouring mill in this city, associated with his father, J. C. Long, under the name of J. C. Long & Co., that he has spent much time the past few years in perfecting a device which would effectually clean wheat preparatory to grinding, with the view of getting a finer flour and a better article out of a given number of bushels of wheat. For the past two years Mr. Long has had his invention well in hand and associated with his father and brother, "Fate" has been operating his machine, now perfected and fully covered by patent, in a small mill at Elsworth, on the Columbia river, not far from Portland.—Cottage Grove Western Oregon.

COTTAGE GROVE NEWS

Elmer Ritchey, who has been confined in the Eugene hospital for some weeks with typhoid fever, is recovering nicely and is expected to return home next Sunday.
Wm. Van Gordon, of Mosby Creek, last week purchased the property of Tom Lee in that district. This is a 50-acre piece of property, containing the balance covered with a good growth of timber. The buildings are second to none in the district. Mr. Van Gordon is to be congratulated on getting possession of this property.
One of the hottest baseball games of the season is advertised to take place next Sunday at the old baseball grounds. The Garman-Heneway Company's baseball team will take on

DR. OGLESBY VISITS THE BOHEMIA MINES

Dr. Oglesby is home from a trip to the Golden Slipper property in Bohemia, in which he is largely interested, and where he has a crew of men at work taking out ore and laying a car track in the Dewey tunnel. He announces that the camp is stirring in fine shape. He thinks the conditions this season are very favorable throughout the diggings. He mentioned the work going on at the Mayflower, J. A. Fastabend, of Astoria, manager. He says this company has about thirty men at work, building road, developing and preparing for the installation of the big mill.—Cottage Grove Western Oregon.

IT CAN'T BE BEAT.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney trouble, it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best, too, for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at W. A. Kuykendall's drug store.
