ORDER TO SHOW

In the County Court of Oregon for Lane County

In the matter of the Estate of Harry Weaver, Lessor vs. Susan Weaver, Lessee

This cause coming on for trial on July 17th, 1908, on the motion of John M. Williams, guardian of the above named estate, to set aside the order of the court in the premises, containing a list of the property of the estate, as follows:

Beginning at the south of donation land claim No. 7026 in section 22, T. 2 S., R. 2 W., ran thence north 15.25 chains, 24 chains, south 13.75 chains, east 36.50 chains, to the northeast corner of the above land, and thence north 15.10 chains, south 15.10 chains, east 10.00 chains, north 15.10 chains, east 15.10 chains, containing 54.00 acres, all in Lane County, Oregon.

And it appearing to the court that it will be beneficial to the estate that their interest in the same should be sold.

It is therefore ordered that Harry Weaver, Lessor, Susan Weaver, Lessee, and Peter Weaver, Executor of the last will and testament of Harry Weaver, and all persons claiming under them, show cause, if any, why an order should not be made directing the guardian to sell the premises in said land, and August 17th, 1908, at 9 a. m., be fixed for hearing the said petition, objections, if any, and that this order be published three successive weeks in the Daily Guard, a newspaper published in Lane County, Oregon.

G. R. CHRISTENSEN, Clerk.

JACOBS BUILDING STORE

ON CHARNELTON STREET

Jos. Jacobs, the merchant who was convicted of liquor selling some time ago, is building a new store building two doors south of the Congregational church on Charnelton street, and expects to open next week a general business of notions, groceries and dry goods. The building is a light wooden structure, which five men are erecting with great rapidity. Mr. Jacobs, who is most amiable, also said he would carry a stock of temperance beer and soft drinks.

The contest case of China B. Shirk vs. J. G. Rarus concerning s 1/2 sw 1/4 ne 1/4 sw 1/4 sec. 34, tp. 17, s. r. 7 w., was decided in favor of the contestant. I. N. Harbaugh was attorney for contestant.
