lonica, July 24.—The imperial firmin restoring the Macedonian constitution of 1876 was read today, creating great enthusiasm.

Constantinople, July 24.—The immediate cause of the sultan's raising the white flag was a telegram from the Albanians of Uskub informing him that they had taken an oath in favor of the re-establishment of the constitution. The message landed like a thunderbolt at Yildiz Kiosk. The sultan had been under the impression that he could depend upon the Albanians under all circumstances. Ferid Pasha, who is an Albanian, fostered this conceit. When the facts became known the wrath of the sultan fell upon Ferid Pasha, who was dismissed upon the spot. Said Pasha has been appointed in his place as grand vizier.

HAYES WINS MARATHON RACE AT LONDON

London, July 24.—The American protest against Dorondа, the Italian, for receiving assistance in the Marathon race has been upheld by the judges. This makes Hayes, of the Irish-American A. C., winner of the famous event, which is the most important of the whole meet.

London, July 24.—The Marathon race of over 30 miles was won by Dorando, an Italian runner. He came into the Stadium, staggered along the track for a short distance and then fell down. Hayes, American, came in second; Heffron, of South Africa, third, and Ponshaw, of Missouri, fourth; Welden, American, finished fifth. Longboat, the Indian, did not finish.

Dorando collapsed 220 yards from the finish. He struggled to his feet and tried to cover the remaining distance, but fell down, as he could not keep his feet. The collapse was complete and the officials practically carried him to the finish. He was carried from the arena on a stretcher. Hayes came in unassisted. The Americans entered a protest against the assistance rendered Dorando at the finish. The action of the officials in assisting the Italian is universally condemned by spectators irrespective of nationality, for he could not have crossed the line unassisted.

GILBERT WINS HIS SECTION IN THE POLE VAULT

London, July 24.—Gilbert, of Yale, who is a Portland, Or., boy, won his section in the pole vault by clearing 12 feet. Foreigners competing in the pole vault had an unpleasant time. The unruly crowd "booed" and tried to balk them. Police were called in but they were not very successful in stopping the procedure.

The foreign teams are those representing America, France and Sweden.

SWITHSON WINS SEMI-FINALS IN HURDLES

Forest Smithson, of the Multnomah Club, of Portland, Or., won his heat in the semi-finals of the 110-metre hurdles in 15 2-5 seconds, which equals the Olympic record.

Drain Nonpariel: Roy W. Bullard, of Eugene, is now night operator in the railway office at Drain, taking the place of Wilson Cantrell, who has been transferred to Coburg.

J. B. COLEMON GIVES VALUABLE PROPERTY TO BIBLE UNIVERSITY

John B. Colemon, the Eugene capitalist who owns several business blocks in Eugene, including the three-story block he put up on Willamette street this summer, besides a large amount of residence property, has made a valuable gift to the Eugene Bible University (formerly the Divinity School) in the shape of the two-story brick block on Willamette street, now occupied by the Berger-Bean Hardware Company. The deed for the property was filed for record today. The consideration given in the deed is $3000, but it is an outright gift. The property is valued at about $25,000.

The property is described in the deed as follows: "Beginning at the southwest corner of lot 1, block 11, of that part of the city of Eugene which was originally donated to Lane county by Charnel Mulligan and wife, running thence east on the south line of said lot 114 feet to Park street, thence 26 feet 8 inches, thence west 114 feet to the east line of Willamette street, thence 26 feet 8 inches to the place of beginning." The building on the lot is 26 feet 8 inches by about 80 feet in dimensions.

While the property passes into the hands of the Bible University with the filing of the deed, Mr. Colemon retains a life interest in it and reserves the income from it during the remainder of his life. The reservation, as stated in the deed, is as follows:

"Hereby reserving herefrom to the said J. B. Colemon a life estate in and to said described premises, together with the right of possession, control, dominion, use and occupancy of said premises, together with all of the rents, profits and incomes therefrom during his natural life and so long as said J. B. Colemon shall live. Also reserving herefrom a perpetual right of way over an easement in the stairway five feet in width upon the north side of said tract, leading from Willamette street to the second story of the building upon said tract, said right of way to extend along said easement to the hall in the second story, and the free and unobstructed passage therefrom to the room in the building north thereof."

On Account of Wife.

Mr. Colemon's wife, who died a number of years ago, was a devoted member of the Christian church, which denomination controls the Bible University. It was his tender memory for her and his high regard for the church of her choice that prompted Mr. Colemon to make this magnificent gift. He is truly a benefactor to the city, as well as to the institution to which the gift is made. His name will always be a household word in the homes of the thousands of members of the Christian church of the Pacific Northwest, who are supporting the Bible University. The property, which is among the most valuable in the city, will be a splendid addition to the assets of the institution.

FAIRBANKS MAKES SPEECH AT QUEBEC

Quebec, July 24.—The Prince of Wales was the central figure yesterday in the magnificent spectacle reproducing Quebec's historical past and ushering in the 100th anniversary of the founding of the city by Champlain. Aside from the spectacular features of the event, it was the occasion for a notable exchange of addresses between Vice-President

VICE PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS

Fairbanks and the Prince of Wales, in which the former spoke of the existing relations between the United States and Great Britain and the Prince delivered a message of good will to the American government.

It was a splendid spectacle, carried out under bright skies with a setting of this picturesque old city and its harbor filled with a fleet of international warships. Tonight the city and harbor are a blaze of lights. The warships are outlined in electric lights, marking every line of hull and rigging, while the Parliament and many other buildings are similarly outlined.

At the evening exercises Vice-President Fairbanks spoke as follows:

"Your Royal Highness: I acknowledge with grateful appreciation the welcome which you so generously extend. The sentiments which you are pleased to express with regard to my country I receive with profound sensibility. They are renewed evidence of that respect and cordial good will which has so long existed between the United States and Great Britain and will tend to strengthen and preserve their amicable relations.

Permit me to extend to Quebec my hearty congratulations upon the distinction which she enjoys in the presence of your Royal Highness and upon the enthusiasm with which she has welcomed you within her gates. It is, indeed, a signal honor which you have done her. It is a happy circumstance which brings you across the sea. The event is one which will be long treasured among

RHODES SAYS HIGH SCHOOL MORALS BAD

Albany, July 23.—That the high school offers the chief problem to those engaged in Christian work regarding boys, was the thought advanced in the summer Bible school here today by I. B. Rhodes, of Portland, secretary of the Oregon-Idaho interstate Y. M. C. A. He pictured startling conditions from the viewpoint of a Christian worker in the present day high schools, and said the boys in the high school need Christian influence more than any others.

That the present conditions are due in large measure to the fact that high schools try to "ape" university students, was the opinion of Secretary Rhodes.

High school fraternities received a denunciation at the hands of the speaker. Commencement festivities, continuing a whole week, with Junior prom., Senior dancing party, etc., were also listed as having a demoralizing effect.

[illegible] athletics, with attendant immorality, were also mentioned by the speaker as a condition to be reformed. With a motto of "anything to win" the students take dishonest methods, he said, and are brought in touch with undesirable influences. He said investigations had revealed immoral conditions existing in many high schools that were startling.

ROBBER TRIES TO HOLD UP TRAIN

Appleton, Wis., July 24.—A nervy robber attempted to hold up the northbound train on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad yesterday near Appleton Junction. He climbed over the tender into the cab and ordered the engineer to stop the train. He was about to comply when the fireman hit the robber with a coal pick. He was about to hit him again when the robber jumped. The train was going 20 miles an hour. A posse is searching for the bandit.

JULIA FLEMING MADE CONFESSION

New York, July 24.—At the hearing before Magistrate Corrigan of the three persons charged with agreeing to give false evidence in the Gould divorce case, Assistant District Attorney Hart told the magistrate that Miss Julia Fleming had made a confession.

The Southern Pacific put in force this week a new tariff providing for the reduction of the minimum weight to 20,000 pounds for cherries, plums, prunes, pears and other fresh fruits, in place of the former minimum of 24,000 pounds. The same tariff has been in force on the O. R. & N. The new arrangement was made by special permission of the railroad commission, and will remain in force until December 31, 1908.

The University summer school closes on Friday of next week.

THOMAS WATSON SAYS DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM DISGRACE

POPULIST LEADER, IN SPEECH AT MACON, GEORGIA, LAST NIGHT SAID BRYAN WAS ABSOLUTELY IN DESPOTIC CONTROL AT DENVER CONVENTION

Macon, Ga., July 24.—In a political speech here last night Thomas E. Watson, the populist leader, scored Bryan and the Democratic platform. He said in part:

"The greatest purpose of my life is to put the South back into the position of national influence which she held before the civil war and to bring back the reign of Democratic principles as they were practiced in the forties and fifties. The greatest obstacle in the way is the apathy of the South itself. If the Southern people arouse themselves they can easily throw off the domination of the Eastern capitalist, who exploits the Southern states through the machinery of the Democratic party. You call yourselves Democrats—Andrew Jackson Democrats, Thomas Jefferson Democrats—and you have never stopped to inquire what are the principles for which Andrew Jackson and Thomas Jefferson stood.

"You are asked to vote for Mr. Bryan and yet Mr. Bryan's platform is one which Andrew Jackson would have spurned and Thomas Jefferson despised. It represents a disgraceful surrender of principle. In 1896 Mr. Bryan claimed to be as good a Populist as Watson.

"For eight years he wore every shred of clothing which populism had in its wardrobe. In 1904 he abandoned his Populist raiment and entered zealously into the Parker campaign which he himself had denounced as a sell-out to the Wall street element of the Democratic party. In Denver he was absolutely in despotic control of the Democratic party. Whatever he wanted done was done. Whatever he wanted thrown out was bounced. The platform is just what he made and that platform is one of the most shameful abandonment of principles that political history presents.

"What right has he to demand the support of those citizens who are Democratic in principle, upon such a platform as this? And particularly, what right has he to expect the support of the South? Upon one principle alone can he hope to get it, and that is upon the idea that the South is compelled to vote the Democratic ticket, no matter how offensive in principle the platform may be, nor how much the candidate may insult her.

"Mr. Bryan understands the helplessness of the South and exploits it to the very utmost. From the Southern states he must draw 150 of the 242 electoral votes that are necessary to his success, and yet he has treated the Southern states purely as a negligible quantity. In return for her 150 electoral votes she gets nothing—absolutely nothing. The platform recognizes no interest of hers. If the South will follow me in this campaign, revolting against the odious conditions which she is expected to serve Mr. Bryan, she will at once resume her old place in the sisterhood of sections. Being now a Democratic asset, which can be counted on with certainty, no one regards her, pays any attention to her interests or thinks of her feelings. Let the South become politically uncertain and she will again become politically great."
