MR. AND MRS. SOUDERS TO LEAVE EUGENE

WILL GO TO SEATTLE IN SEPTEMBER, WHERE MR. SOUDERS IS INTERESTED IN FOOD FACTORY

The Bon Marche is inaugurating a great closing-out sale, it being the intention of the proprietor, W. L. Souders, to dispose of the goods at manufacturers' cost so that he will be able to leave Eugene about September 10th to take up his residence at Seattle, where he is interested in a big factory for making food products from bananas. Mr. Souders is vice president of the International Banana Company of Ann Arbor, Mich., which manufactures 22 different kinds of food products. The company is just completing its plant in Seattle, and Mr. Souders is compelled to be there to manage the big concern.

Mr. and Mrs. Souders, who have been prominent in the business and social life of Eugene since they came here several years ago, are loath to leave Eugene, but greater opportunities are in sight for them and they feel that they must take advantage of them. Their many friends also regret very much to learn that they are to leave the city.

CITY NEWS

Early apples are ripening very fast.

The Catholic church is being repaired. W. E. Russell has the contract.

The large brick stack for the heating plant of the Bible University is completed.

The W. R. C. will serve ice cream in the east park during the band concert Friday night.

The paving crew is now at work on Olive street, between West Eighth and West Ninth.

The University campus force of workmen are constructing a number of new sidewalks.

Work on the new cement walk in front of Day & Henderson's furniture store was begun this morning.

J. Jacobs has moved his stock of goods from West Eighth street to his new store building on Charnelton street.

Three carloads of huge sawlogs arrived down from the Mohawk branch for the Eugene Lumber Company last evening.

The Stanley ice cream and confectionery parlor next door to the Hoffman House was opened for business this morning.

Commissioners' court convened in regularly monthly session this morning. Routine business was the order of business today.

Mrs. D. C. Wright, who left some time ago for Orleans, Ind., to see her father, who was ill, writes that he has grown much worse.

The interior of the room in the Hotel Smeede building to be occupied by Mrs. Helen Marks' drug store is being repapered and renovated.

Hon. R. A. Booth and son, Roy, went to Yoncalla this afternoon. Roy has purchased a large farm there and will engage in the raising of stock on an extensive scale.

Eugene F. Skinner, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, arrived in Eugene last evening on his way home from a trip to California. He is a grandson of Eugene Skinner, founder of the city of Eugene, and from whom it was named.

The crossarms for the trolley wire on the Judd's Point extension of the street railway line are being placed on the power poles along the route and just as soon as the trolley rails for the crossing arrive the cars will be run as far as the trestle at the point.

Dr. R. L. Wilfonghly has moved into his office in the new Coleman building, where he will be glad to see his old friends and welcome new ones. The doctor took a post-graduate course while in California and has all the late improvements in scientific dentistry.

The promotion department of the Commercial Club reports that more new members are arriving in Eugene at the present time than at any time since the department was established in December. They are arriving fast and fast and it is hard to get them named.

Allan S. D. Allen, who has had a writ in the circuit court for some time past against Jos. H. Bridges, operator of the Roseburg land office, to recover a large sum of money as compensation on the sale of some Lathrop county timber land, today filed a motion for non-suit, stating that he was ready and able to pay the writ of the writ as soon as they are determined.

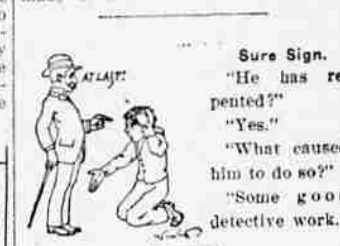

A party of Southern Pacific railroad officials arrived in Eugene last night on a tour of inspection of the company's property. They went over to inspect the "Hull" this morning, accompanied by Geo. H. Kelly, of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company. The members of the party are: Chairman Superintendent M. J. Buckley, Superintendent L. R. Hines, Division Engineer Hollins and Mechanical Younger.

A party of eight, consisting of P. N. McAlister, wife and little daughter, Mrs. Bird Rose and two children, and Cal Young and daughter, left Monday to a Rambler automobile for Foley Springs and got there by 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the trip having been made without accident. This was the first auto ever driven to Foley Springs. It was in charge of Mr. Van Winkle. He and Mr. Young came back yesterday.

A public reception was given to Hon. and Mrs. R. A. Booth at the Commercial Club last evening. The affair was largely attended and a pleasant evening was spent. The members of the ladies' auxiliary of the club had charge. Misses Minnie Schwarzschild and Korinne Hartog presided at the punch bowl and Misses Veda Quackenbush and Lois McMurphy rendered a number of selections on the piano.

Walter Francis, the former Eugene high school football player, before he died from his injuries at Seattle the other day, asked his father, who was at his bedside, to give all his former schoolmates and friends in Eugene his love and asked him to tell them that he often thought of them during his last days and hours. Mr. Francis requests The Guard to deliver his son's message in this manner, as he would be unable to see many of the friends personally.

Business Head: "Mamma, can't I have a birthday?" "Why, of course, my child--next fall, when the time comes."

"But I think I ought to have it right now."

"Don't try to hurry time along."

"But it would mean so much more to me if I could have it before Uncle Charley and Aunt Susan went home."

Self Protection: "Are you opposed to woman suffrage?" "You bet I am."

"Why so violently?" "If women ever went into politics they would begin studying up the political questions, and then the men would look like about 30 cents."

Wanted Listeners: "Why doesn't he hire a hall?" impatiently asked the man who was listening to a noisy street orator.

"He hasn't money enough."

"But it takes only a few dollars."

"Yes, for the hall, but think what it would cost him to hire the audience."

So Pathetic: Too many joys come round so late that gone is their delight. When we can buy sufficient pie We've lost our appetite.

So Resourceful: "The doctor says I must take lots of outdoor exercise."

"Won't that be lovely! Now we will not have to hire a man to beat the rugs."

Lightning Change: "Going to the circus?" "No; such things make me weary."

"Here is a free pass."

"When do the doors open?"

Might Please Her: "If my wife gets there before I do try to jolly her up."

"How shall I do it? Tell her you have fallen in the river."

Factory for Sale

For Sale A cider vinegar, apple butter and cider jelly factory on the corner of Blair and West Second streets; one of the best corners in the town for that kind of business. Building is 50x100 divided in half by partition on a lot 60x143. Ample room to handle and pack fruits, farm produce, etc., when not manufacturing. Very little competition, and if any you have the markets of Tacoma, Seattle and Alaska to supply. In fact, a number of Eugene merchants have said that they needed just such a factory here to buy their goods from. A golden opportunity for some one.
