OLD PEOPLE DIED IN LANE COUNTY IN JULY

Dr. J. W. Harris, county health officer, has prepared his report for the month of July. He reports sixteen deaths during the month, of whom there were males and six females. The causes of death were as follows: Pneumonia, 3; apoplexy, 1; senility, 4; enteritis, 1; paralysis, 1; heart disease, 2; cancer of the face, 1; obstruction of the bowels, 1; cerebral spinal meningitis, 2.

Of those who died seven were past 75 years, four were past 80, and one was past 89. One was only three days old.

Two bodies were shipped here from Seattle for burial.

There were nineteen births during the month—eleven males and eight females.

There were six cases of contagious disease, as follows: Diphtheria, 2; smallpox, 3, and measles, 1.

CITY NEWS

The Seattle Produce Company received a carload of watermelons last evening.

A carload of heavy scrap iron consigned to the Portland Wreckage Co. arrived here last night.

Another car of white pressed brick arrived here today from Newberg for the new I. O. O. F. block.

E. C. Stutzer was in from Pleasant Hill today. He said threshing would begin in that vicinity next Monday. Most of the hay is being baled this year.

A drawhead was pulled out of one of the cars in a freight train at the depot this forenoon, causing a few minutes delay in getting out of the way of the Roseburg local.

J. B. Eggen, a Bohemia mining man, has bought three lots in Fairmount and will build a nice residence there this summer, bringing his family to this city to reside.

County Treasurer Eastland has received from State Treasurer Steele $8151.20, as a part of Lane county's share of the state school fund. A first payment of $6500 was received some time ago.

The Young Women's Christian Association of the high school will have a booth in the next park Friday evening during the band concert. They will sell candy, peanuts, popcorn and orangeade.

A new sidewalk is being built in front of President Campbell's residence on East Thirteenth street. The piece is the last length on the walk running up Thirteenth street along the Kincaid property.

The elevator to hoist brick and mortar to the upper stories of the new I. O. O. F. block will be operated by horsepower, as is usually the case, the motor having been installed yesterday.

The stairway of the new Coleman block has been completed and the front rooms of both the second and third floors are ready to occupy. Dr. R. L. Willoughby, the dentist, has already occupied two rooms on the second floor.

The homestead contest case of R. M. Day vs. Geo. Ebehart, involving 160 acres of land in township 17 south of range 7 west, was tried before U. S. Commissioner Calkins today. Mrs. H. Harbaugh appeared as counsel for the contestant and C. A. Hardy for the contestee.

Charles F. Croner arrived down from Belknap Springs this afternoon. He reports an unprecedented tourist business on the upper McKenzie this summer. When he left Belknap Springs yesterday there were 135 or 140 people at that resort and he met thirteen wagon loads going in. At McKenzie Bridge there are 37 at the hotel, besides a large number of campers. He met numerous vehicles loaded with campers on the road.

J. O. Bristol has bought a half interest in the wood business conducted by B. A. Seelye and they will be known as the Eugene Fuel Company. Mr. Seelye has been shipping two or three carloads of wood to Eugene from Wendling every day for the past several months, and the firm will continue to do so until the winter season sets in. They will put out men to work cutting wood near Wendling at once and their shipments will probably increase.

PRIVATE ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANTS TO BE INSTALLED

A few days ago The Guard mentioned the fact that a number of business firms were contemplating installing electric light plants at their places of business. The Campbell-Fellman Company, housefurnishers, this morning informed a reporter that they had ordered a 120-light dynamo, and it will soon be here. It will be installed in one of the upstairs rooms of their building and will be operated by a water motor.

Another business man who operates an engine all the time is said to be contemplating installing a dynamo at his place to furnish lights for stores and residences in the entire block in which his place of business is located.

NATHAN HILL FARM SOLD TO NEW ARRIVAL

Yesterday Nathan Hill closed the sale of his beautiful home and farm adjoining Springfield to C. E. Skiller, a recent arrival from the East, for $7500. This property contains 185 acres, and is considered one of the best dairy farms in that vicinity. It is to be hoped that by this sale we will not lose Mr. Hill, for he is one of the kind of men who make their presence felt in a community as progressive farmers. It is his intention to take a trip through Washington before leaving again, but he says there is no doubt but that he will be back to old Lane county when he finally decides the question of a permanent home.

The deal was made through E. J. Frasier.
