LEASED BUILDING FOR NICKELODION

W. J. BURNS, OF THE GRAND, WILL OPEN ANOTHER SPLENDID AMUSEMENT PLACE IN THE FALL.

W. J. Burns, proprietor of the Grand Theatre on East Ninth street, has leased the Coleman building now occupied by the Berger-Bean Hardware Company on Willamette street, and as soon as the hardware company moves out and into the new I. O. O. F. building, now in course of construction, he will open a five-cent moving picture theatre there. He has acquired the entire building and will conduct amusements on the upper floor also. In the front part of the upper story he will put in a penny arcade with all the popular devices that are usually found at such places, and in the rear there will be an amusement place for men and boys, fitted up with punching bags and other athletic paraphernalia. He intends to make these places the best of their kind to be found in the state, the theatre to have a fine Venetian front, which will be the handsomest in the city.

Mr. Burns will continue to operate the Grand and will improve the place for the fall and winter business. He will maintain an orchestra there at all times.

The Berger-Bean Company expect to vacate the Coleman building about October 1.

NEW MILLINERY STORE ON EIGHTH STREET

Mrs. Spores and Miss Hawkins will open a new millinery store in the room now occupied by the Eugene School Supply Company's store in the Schneider block within a short time. They will occupy the east half of the room, a half partition to separate their store from that of the school supply store. R. J. Kirkwood, local representative of the International Correspondence Schools, who occupies a part of the store room now, will seek other office rooms.

A man was seriously injured in a California town a few days ago by the explosion of gasoline in an automobile. He was beneath the machine when the explosion occurred, and his face was frightfully burned.

R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the insane asylum, has sent word to County Clerk Lee that Ulysses B. Sutherland, who was committed to that institution on September 16, 1907, was discharged on a six-months' leave of absence on August 7.

Sub Anderson and Elza Pickard, who were in the party that went over the grade at Dead Horse Mountain, resulting in the breaking of Jake Berger's leg and the dislocation of Andy Taylor's shoulder, have gone on to Hill's ranch, and will enjoy a hunt without their companions.

Pendleton East Oregonian: A passenger on the eastbound O. R. & N. train this morning was Lee M. Travis, of Eugene, chairman of the Democratic county central committee of Lane county, who has been chosen to represent Oregon on the committee which will notify William Jennings Bryan of his nomination at his home near Lincoln, Neb., on next Tuesday.

Saturday night banker F. W. Osburn's auto ran into a buggy occupied by Mrs. C. E. Shumway and Mrs. Tom Shumway, as they were driving near the high school, and the buggy was upset, but the occupants were not injured. The auto was going along behind the buggy when the horse fell down, and before the auto could be stopped the accident occurred.

Mrs. Henry Kompp, who lives west of the city about six miles, was severely hurt in a runaway Saturday. She and her daughter were driving along West Seventh street in a buggy when the horse became frightened at an automobile and began to run. Mrs. Kompp was thrown out of the vehicle and badly jarred and bruised. She was unconscious for a time but her injuries are not considered serious. Her daughter jumped out of the buggy and was uninjured.

Some one stole a good shotgun out of Louis Severn's buggy in the Yates livery stable Sunday evening. Officer Bonner was notified and after looking around the stable he found the gun under some sacks. It was returned to its owner. Afterward three men were seen about the barn and one of them lifted up the sacks where the gun lay. It is probable that they were the guilty parties, but as no proof could be secured, they were not arrested.
