WILL NOTIFY COLONEL BRYAN OF NOMINATION

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 11.—All preparations have been completed for the notification tomorrow of William J. Bryan of his nomination for the presidency. The occasion promises to be one of the most memorable events in the history of Lincoln. Leading citizens, without regard to their political affiliations, have entered into the plans for the event, which will be graced by the presence of many republican officials of Nebraska and of the city of Lincoln.

The ceremonies attending the notification will take place on the grounds of the state capital, where stands have been erected for the speakers and prominent guests. The ceremonies will be preceded by a luncheon at the Lincoln Hotel, attended by Mr. Bryan, Mr. Kern and the members of the notification committee. Among the members of the notification committee, many of whom reached the city today, are the following: W. A. Forbes, Arizona; C. W. Ossenton, West Virginia; R. H. Walker, Alabama; Byron Barwig, Wisconsin; Gustave Jones, Arkansas; George F. Christensen, Washington; J. W. Pauley, Minnesota; Charles Edelman, California; J. H. Tyler, Virgina; John T. Winship, Michigan; Elmer F. Beckwith, Colorado; James E. Burke, Vermont; Harry C. Ney, Connecticut; William Masterson, Texas; W. S. Jennings, Florida; Humphrey O'Sullivan, Massachusetts; D. G. McKesler, Tennessee; Crawford Wheatley, Georgia; F. M. Zieback, South Dakota; Harry L. Day, Idaho; Edward F. Dunne, Illinois; T. F. Brantley, South Carolina; P. P. Kean, Rhode Island; Harry McCart, Indiana; DeWitt C. DeWitt, Pennsylvania; L. M. Travis, Oregon; J. P. O'Mally, Iowa; D. M. Haley, Oklahoma; Charles M. Sawyer, Kansas; T. S. Arnold, Ohio; John Puleton, Louisiana; Frank Lish, North Dakota; W. B. Haldeman, Kentucky; Edward J. Hale, North Carolina; Lewis Nixon, New York; J. H. Wynne, Mississippi; J. W. Ferris, Missouri; John H. Moorehead, Nebraska; W. B. George, Montana; and Robert Davis, New Jersey.

From the hotel the chief participants in the ceremonies will proceed in carriages to the state capital. Congressman Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, will deliver the notification speech. The speech of acceptance by Mr. Bryan, it is said, will be short as compared with the acceptance speech of Mr. Taft. It is said to contain less than six thousand words. The issues of the campaign will be discussed, but not at great length, Mr. Bryan's views being reserved for more elaborate treatment in the several speeches he intends to make during the latter part of August and early in September.

The advance guard of the crowd of visitors who will attend the notification put in an appearance today. Large parties, including a number of political clubs, are expected to arrive tomorrow morning from Kansas City, Omaha and other points. The city is elaborately decorated for the occasion and the downtown streets are filled with hawkers selling Bryan and Kern souvenirs and badges of all descriptions.

ACTIVITY OF AGED HEAD OF SALVATION ARMY

London, Aug. 11.—General Booth, the venerable head of the Salvation Army, continues to be one of the wonders of the age. In his eighty-leth year he is just completing his fifth automobile tour through Great Britain. Starting from Dundee, the general and his staff have visited scores of towns, and addressed hundreds of meettings. Everywhere he has been received with enormous crowds.

General Booth's next trip will be to South Africa, where he goes in order to have a look at Rhodesia, and to form an opinion as to its
