

More proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores women to normal health.

Mrs. Mattie Copenhaver, of 315 So. 21st St., Parsons, Kans., writes:

"For two years I suffered from the worst forms of feminine ills, until I was almost driven frantic. Nothing but morphine would relieve me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness, and made me a well woman. Every sick woman should benefit by my experience."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat your letter in confidence and advise you free. No woman ever regretted writing her, and because of her vast experience she has helped thousands. Address, Lynn, Mass.

GOLDWIN SMITH EIGHTY-FOUR YEARS OLD

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 12.—Professor Goldwin Smith, one of the adopted sons of which Canada is most proud, celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday today. From England and from many parts of Canada and the United States messages of congratulation poured in at "The Grange," where the genial publicist and historian has made his home for more than thirty-five years.

Born in Reading, England, August 13, 1823, Mr. Smith early reached the high position of regius professor of modern history at Oxford, which he held from 1858 to 1866. In 1868 he went to the United States and for three years filled the chair of lecturer at Cornell University on English and constitutional history. In that year he moved to Toronto, but until a few years ago he still retained a nominal connection with Cornell. His life in Toronto has been devoted to literature, journalism, philanthropy and all the higher duties of citizenship.

"The Grange" was built in 1817 and was then on the outskirts of the little town of York. It still has the atmosphere of an English country house, though the roar of traffic of a large city is about it. There in its large rooms Professor Goldwin Smith spends his days in pleasant labor. The years have brought many changes and have carried away many of his cherished friends, but the sage of the Grange still has a cheerful outlook on life and enjoys remarkably good health for a man of his years.

THAW CASE MAY GO TO PITTSBURG

Pittsburg, Aug. 12.—Harry K. Thaw was today declared a bankrupt. Every move of the proceedings shows the determination of Thaw and his counsel to take the case out of the New York courts and force a hearing on the question of his mental condition in the courts of Pittsburg. Attorneys say that it any creditor's right to appeal to the United States courts here to have Referee Blair's order of adjudication set aside on the ground that Thaw is insane, and the question of sanity can also be raised at a meeting of creditors by any one who can demand Thaw's appearance at the meeting and force an examination of his sanity by objecting to his being allowed to testify on the ground that he is insane, and therefore not a competent witness. This would also require a ruling of the United States district court. Thaw's sanity may be taken into the local county courts and if adjudged sane he need not go back to New York, where the only ground for holding him is that he is an insane person.

METHODIST CRUSADE FOR ELECTION OF SPEAKER OF HOUSE

Baltimore, Aug. 12.—The Methodist Episcopal church has begun an active crusade for the election of a speaker of the house of representatives "who will allow congress to vote on an interstate liquor shipment bill." The church, which has over 3,000,000 communicants, has created a temperance society with the authority to represent the denomination in all temperance matters. This society is managed by a board composed of fifteen members named by the bishop and elected by the late general conference.

ROOSEVELT IN FAVOR OF HUGHES

Oyster Bay, Aug. 12.—State Senator Raines, John Mitchell and Ralph M. Fasley were among the guests at Sagamore Hill today. Raines came on private matters, but later he expressed an entirely personal opinion that the president looked with favor upon the political status of Governor Hughes. Raines was quick to add, however, that the president was taking no part in the Republican gubernatorial nomination in New York.

One Part Easy. "How were the final examinations? Were the questions hard?" "Oh, no; the questions were dead easy. In fact, they were right there before us as plain as print. It was the answers that gave us so much bother."

Culinary. "I have but one fault to find with the strawberry shortcake season." "What is it?" "It can never be brought to coincide with the pancake season."

Concert. "I am so different from you, don't you think?" "Ye-es, but then—" "What?" "It confers no distinction upon you."

Reason Enough. "Why don't you ever invite Susie?" "All the men like her."

It is truly distressing the way some people remember.

FOR SALE, EXCHANGE OR LEASE

Having concluded to retire from the lumber business I offer for sale, lease or will exchange for Eugene or Portland income property, my sawmill, sawmill site, booms, lumber sheds, office, planer, dry kilns and all tools connected with the business. Mill located at river bridge in the centre of Eugene city, east and west, and only three blocks from the S. P. R. R.

This is a fine opportunity for some one to go into the lumber business, as there is always a big local demand for all slabwood, sawdust, shavings, cull lumber, as well as the better grades of lumber. Logs are cheap, labor cheap, lumber high.

A good millman can make this property pay for itself in two years, and if he will operate day and night in one year. Greatest opportunity in this part of Oregon for a mill man; best located mill in the state. Capacity, 20,000 feet in ten hours.

When you have this mill you are at the market. Planer and dry kiln—everything needed to make lots of lumber and lots of money. Give this your early attention if interested in a lumber proposition. I am sure you cannot beat it in the state. The quicker you act the surer you are of making your fortune, for this is a chance in a lifetime.

GARDEN HOME ADDITION

IS SITUATED close to the city limits on the Southwest---only a short distance beyond the Fair Grounds. It adjoins the large tract purchased by J. C. Storey, president of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern R. R., which indicates that it will be in close proximity to the electric road system in the near future. It is bounded by a county road on two sides, and lies beautifully, sloping gently to the northwest, which gives it perfect drainage.

GARDEN HOME ADDITION TO EUGENE

TRACTS ARE FROM 2 1/2 TO 5 ACRES

Have been platted and are now offered for sale at very reasonable prices for cash or upon easy terms---monthly installments if the purchaser desires. Property situated as close in as this will double in value within two years, and for the home builder and investor these tracts will prove a snap. The owners of bought the property at prices far below its value, and are thereby enabled to place it on the market at prices below what is asked for surrounding property in larger tracts and some of it even less desirable.
