GENERAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Grant is in the list of dry counties, if the decision of Circuit Judge Davis is allowed to remain final. The court today dissolved the temporary injunction and dismissed the case instituted by the liquor interests.

Grants Pass will soon have free city mail delivery, as the application for such has been received by the department, and all necessary steps taken by the postmaster and council. The houses were recently numbered, the streets named, the sidewalks have been put in good shape and everything done to assure the acceptance of the application. The receipts of the Grants Pass postoffice have increased about 25 per cent during the past year.

County Judge Jewell, of Josephine, now believes he has more original kinds of trouble than the troublemaker himself. Today one of the inmates of the county home came into the courthouse and asked the county board to get him a white vest. He wanted it, he said, so he could go to church. He was in earnest about it and expressed genuine sorrow when turned down.

The aggregation of horse traders who have been camped under the Fairmount Oaks for some time past have folded their tents and moved on.

The city council will meet in adjourned session tonight. The matter of the paving of Eighth and other streets will be discussed and probably decided.

DOUBTLESS AN IMPOSTOR.

Equal: "So you don't think that young man whom you met last night is a divinity student, as he claimed to be?"
Dolly: "No. When I told him I should like to have him meet my father he said: 'All right. Where are the gloves?'"

BALLOON RACE FOR FORBES TROPHY

North Adams, Mass., Aug. 13.—The balloon race for the Forbes trophy will start from this place tomorrow and if the weather conditions are favorable the contest probably will be one of the most notable of its kind that has ever taken place in America. Arrangements for the event have been concluded by the North Adams Aero Club. Five balloons are entered for the contest. According to the conditions covering the contest each pilot is required to select a town outside a thirty-mile radius from North Adams where he will land. To win the cup he must land within ten miles of the postoffice of the town, or, if two or more balloons land within this distance, the winner will be the one who lands nearest. Numerous pilot balloons will be sent up at intervals before the race starts in order that the pilots may judge the direction of the wind in the upper currents and thereby decide which town or city they will select as their landing place.

PHILIPPINE VETERANS MEET IN REUNION

Galesburg, Ill., Aug. 13.—The freedom of the city was given today to the host of visitors who rallied here for the national convention and reunion of the Veterans of the army of the Philippines. The morning trains brought in many delegates from Illinois, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Colorado, Oregon, California and other states. The visitors found the business district elaborately decorated in their honor. This afternoon there was a public reception and tonight the formal opening of the gathering takes place. Mayor Shumway will deliver the address of welcome and Captain Crow, of Pennsylvania, will respond for the visitors. The reunion program covers three days and provides for numerous features of entertainment in addition to the routine business of the convention.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always by the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.
