 AUGUST 14, 1908

candidate eight years ago. Mr. Sherman was about to be elected secretary of the United States senate when some one whispered to him that there was strong chance of his becoming Senator Platt's choice for the vice-presidency. As it was practically conceded that Platt's choice would be the choice of the convention, Mr. Sherman declined the senate secretaryship. When it came to a "show down" Roosevelt was Platt's choice and Sherman was left holding the bag. Perhaps he derived some satisfaction from the fact that Senator Platt had no part in making him the nominee of the Chicago convention last June.

It was in Germany that the fireless cook-stove was perfected, and now comes news from a special consular agent that the Germans are making a fireless railroad locomotive. It is equipped with a boiler after the manner of other locomotives, but the water in it is heated to the necessary temperature from a stationary plant. Enough power can be stored in it to operate it four hours for switching purposes in a railroad yard, and it does not take more than fifteen minutes to charge it. Now, if somebody will get to work and invent a fireless cigarette, there will be little more to ask for in this world, for most property loss through the acts of careless smokers will be prevented.

Portland has never been sorry that she issued several millions of bonds to secure Bull Run water, but it will be recalled that private water companies fought to the last ditch to force her people to continue using impure river water. Eugene is now in the throes of such a fight as Portland passed through and the struggle has just begun in Salem, where, as might be expected, the private corporation is contesting every point. However, it is encouraging to reflect that in nearly all such contests the people finally win.

Nobly's Magazine for August is out and it is a "cherry number." The illustrations are original and especially attractive, and there is much information concerning the fruit industry in the number. It is an especially good issue of the magazine to send to Eastern people or for that matter to inquirers in any part of the country.

Henry Watkinson thinks he sees ahead a recurrence of the same "ground swell" that elected Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892. He says these things go in seasons, and that it is now the turn of the democrats. Still, knowing Henry's record as a prophet, Chairman Mack will not stop here.

Judge Alton B. Parker claims to be the daddy of the New York law prohibiting campaign contributions by corporations, and accuses the last congress of having done the ostrich stunt in handling the subject. The "Judge" is talking a whole lot "parker" than he did four years ago.

In Ohio even the plain congressmen are doing acts of heroism. In the presence of about 1,000 persons Congressman Cole "plunged into 18 feet of water" and rescued two girls from drowning. Oh, yes, and one of them was an actress, and Mr. Cole is a candidate for re-election.

In discussing "The Measure of Rewards" Br'er Bryan will get close to where every man lives. Few of us think we get all the rewards due us, though doubtless the most of us do—at least our enemies say so.

Harriman has placed an order for 6000 steel cars, so the dispatches state. That is the most convincing of all arguments that prosperity is returning with a vengeance.

ANOTHER GIANT CHERRY TREE IN LAKE COUNTY

The following was clipped from the Oregonian:
 Junction City, Aug. 12.—(To the Editor).—I recently read in the Oregonian of the great cherry tree of Yamhill county. But Lane county, as far as heard from, beats any county in the state. Three miles east of Goshen, near the Coast Fork bridge, on the J. D. West farm, stands a cherry tree that measures 33 inches from the ground, and six inches below where the limbs start out from the tree. The latter measures eight feet six inches. It has a spread of 48 feet from the northwest to the southeast, and it also measures 48 feet from the southwest to the northeast. It has just been measured by J. D. West, owner, and myself.

SHE LIKES GOOD THINGS.

Mrs. Chas. F. Smith, of West Franklin, Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Mr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at W.A. Kuykendall's drug store.

Ernest Thompson-Seton
 Ernest Thompson-Seton, who has attained eminence as an author, artist and naturalist, was born August 14, 1859, at South Shields, England. He made his home in the backwoods of Canada for some years and it was during this period of his life that Mr. Seton gained that marvelous familiarity with many kinds of animal life that has made his writings so much sought. From Canada he went to the wild prairie country of the western section of the United States, where he remained from 1882 to 1887. During that portion of his life that he spent in Western Canada Mr. Seton acted as the official naturalist to the government of Manitoba, and wrote a number of books, treating of the birds and animals of that section. He went to Paris in 1890 and spent several years of study in the woods, where it was that he became one of the foremost illustrators and writers on animal life as found in its native haunts.

MAC SUMMERVILLE DIES AT LOS ANGELES

FORMER EUGENE RESIDENT PASSES AWAY IN THE CALIFORNIA CITY—WILL BE BURIED HERE.

A telegram was received in Eugene last evening containing the information that Mac L. Sommerville, formerly of Eugene but who had been living at Los Angeles for some time past, had died there. This came as a great shock to his many friends here. No particulars were received. Another telegram from Mrs. E. E. McClanahan was received about midnight stating that she would leave Los Angeles this evening with the remains. They are expected to arrive Sunday.
 It will be remembered that Mrs. Sommerville, who was Miss Stevens before her marriage, died suddenly in Los Angeles only a few weeks ago and was buried here. Mr. Sommerville was a native son of Oregon and was in business in Eugene for a number of years. He had a wide acquaintance throughout the state. He was in the wholesale liquor business in Los Angeles at the time of his death.

MARRIED

On Wednesday evening, August 12, at the pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Winkley, parents of the bride, in Linn county, Dr. Samuel M. Hamby, of Portland, and Miss Bessie Winkley were united in marriage. Rev. S. A. Douglas officiating. The ceremony was private. A fine wedding dinner followed and Dr. and Mrs. Hamby left on the 8:18 train from Albany for their home in Portland.
 Dr. Hamby is a successful practitioner, a former Roseburg neighbor and member of Rev. Douglas' church while in that city, and Miss Winkley is a beautiful and worthy young lady, recently a clerk in the store of Meier & Frank in Portland.—Albany Democrat.
 (The bride formerly resided in Eugene, where she is popular.)

The editor of the Albany Herald contemplated a deer hunt. He thought the necessity of taking out an insurance policy. The local agent considered this risk too great and he has excused the editor.

Advertisements, Like Clocks, Should Keep Running

A store's advertisements to the people what is "doing" at that store—what is new, what is inviting, why today is a good time to visit the store. People look for the ads to tell them these things just as naturally as they would look at a clock to tell the time.
 Sometimes a clock does not run—sometimes a store's ads does not run. A "run-down" clock or ad are about equally unsatisfactory, unserviceable, misleading.
 Curious thing about it is that a merchant who would think it absurd to have a run-down" or out-of-repair clock will, sometimes, deliberately let his ad stop running. It's not wise, nor good business, nor defensible on any known grounds—but it is sometimes done.
